BREAK WITH LABOR UNIONS.

C. P. R. Have Made Announcement That Causes Excitement.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 5.-The Canadian Pacific Railway has decided to break with unions which have a membership in the metal trades employed in the Canadian Pacific Railway shops. The company has abrogated the agreement entered into last September giving a month's notice to the unions from the great lakes to the Pacific coast. While the company asserts no reduction in wages nor inserts no reduction in wages no I way shops. The company has abrocrease in hours will follow, the unions have called a meeting from all over the system and will appeal to the board of concidiation of the labor departments at Ottawa to negotiate.
