PLATERS FINAL TRIALS SEAGRAM'S EXTENDED

Railbirds Treated to Genuine Surprise-Gossip From the Track

The track was rather on the slo

side yesterday morning, but notwith standing this fact there were some good trials made, particularly by the American horses. The platers were al galloped and breezed an eighth of a mile to open them up for the race to day. If the track be heavy, it will strengthen the hand of the Dyment and Seagram stables, for the mare and Seagram stables, for the mare Shimonese does not like the heavy footing as well as a fast track and Fort Garry made his best trial on a heavy track. The clockers and horsemen generally looked in amazement yesterday morning when the Seagram platers were taken to the barrier and schooled, then worked a mile well ridden out. In the first lot were the horses Dog of War, Mendip and My Valet. This lot worked the mile in 1.50, with Dog of War in the lead. Then came the trial of Tollendale and Courtier. They were whipped out all Courtier. They were whipped out all the way, covering the mile in better than 1.46, with Courtier in front by a length. Trainer Littlefield was taking his last chance of keying this pair up, for they have shown nothing and the work could not have hurt them in any way. It will be a hard ridden race way. It will be a hard ridden race and now, more than ever, some of the wiser horsemen look for Dyment to win the plate. Shimonese is a big four-year-old, it is true, an dhas done all her work well, but the bumping this horse is likely to receive during the race and challenges that she will have to stand off, will necessitate will have to stand off, will necessitate her being at least ten pounds betwill have to stand off, will necessitate her being at least ten pounds better than any of the rest. She will have to give weight to nearly every horse in the race, and at this time of the year colts are better able to carry weight than filles.

Some of the trials that were made vesterday morning were: Henry O, inile in 1.45, well in hand; Edwin Gun mile in 1.45, well in hand; Edwin Gum a mile in 1.46; Turf Star half in 52 seconds; Rifleman six furlongs in 1.19, handily; Clements three-quarters in 1.22; Rose Queen three-quarters in 1.62-5, with something left; Ontario a mile in 1.47; Guy Fisher a mile in 1.45 3-5, well rated; Ida Reck six furlongs in 1.20; Desperado six furlongs in 1.18; Photographer three-quarters in 1.19 handily—this colt looks as the he was fit to race; Gretna Green a half in 53 seconds; Terah and Petulant three-quarters in 1.19, well in hand; Col. Zob. juarters in 1.19, well in hand; Col. Ze half mile in 52 seconds; The Glob mile in 1.49; Touchwood a mile in 1.5 Tourenne a quarter in 25 miley Corbett a quarter in 25 second Smoker a mile in 1.48; Holscher a mi in 1.48; Sewell three-quarters in 1.19 My Grace a mile and a quarter at a tv
