Social.)—If any confirmation of this morning's statement in the editorial section of The World, to the effect that the town council and the Metropolitan Railway were dickering for the double tracking of Yonge-street and its subsequent leasing to the company, was needed, it was supplied to-night from an unimpeachable source. An offer, as stated, was made by the company along the lines indicated, and later referred by council to the engineer for ar. expert report.

ar expert report.

What North Toronto citizens want to know is, why all this secrecy relative to the whole matter? Are the members of council afraid to refer the question, even in its initial stages, to the judgment of the ratepayers? There was no reason why the fact that was no reason why the fact that an offer had been submitted by the Metropalitan was not made known at the council meeting of Tuesday night, and this view is shared by two or three members of council, who do not favor St. Catharines, Niagara these hole and corner methods. The double tracking of Yonge-street is a big project, and as pointed out in this morning's trenchant article, dealing, editorially with the matter, supine county councillors in the past have lost irretrievably valuable rights which county to have to ought to have been retained to the municipality for all time to come. Single tracking will suffice for a little while longer.

Annexation petitions, drawn up in due form, are now being placed in the hands of a number of citizens, and within the next few days will be still further augmented. One of the gentle-men who was to-day given a petition in an hour's work to-night called on no less than 21 ratepayers and met with not a single refusal. This is a remarkable showing, and indicates an annexation to the city.

It was a jolly crowd, made up of the Eglinton Methodist Sunday School, that Eglinton Methodist Sunday School, that filled two Metropolitan cars this morning, when they left for a day's outing at Morton Park. There were races of all kinds and an abundance of good things to eat. The party reached home shortly after 9 o'clock, tired, but happy.
