THE LEAFS DID IT ALL IN THE SIXTH

Otherwise Spartanburg Held Toronto Runless in Opening Exhibition Game.

Spartanburg, S.C., April 10.—The Toronto International team beat the Spartanburg South Atlantic League team this afternoon by the score of 9 to 2. The exhibition, with the exception of the sixth inning, was an interesting and fast contest. Ineffective pitching and fast work in the field allowed the Leafs to race around the bases, the nine runs being scored in that frame. Ray pitched the first six innings for Toronto, and twirled well, the a trifle wild. Burks finished the game and yielded a three-base hit, netting the only earned run. On defense, the visitors played a fast game, but were somewhat lacking with the stick.

Spartanburg held the Toronto Club well in hand for the first five rounds, but the sixth saw a general shake-up in the local team with substitutes. Chasick, who essayed to pitch, was wild, and with erratic fielding, Toronto took this occasion to safely show away the game. The Toronto team will go to Columbia, S.C., from here, to play Monday.

OLYMPIC HOCKEY CUT TO FIVE DAYS

SIX GOOD BOUTS ON SEMI-FINAL NIGHT

Newton Beat Graham, a Club Mate, in Best Fight — The Finals On Tonight.

The second night of the Ontario Amateur boxing championships might be described as short and sweet. The entertainment was a little late in starting, but from early on, the bouts were something to watch. Every minute that kept the crowd on their toes cheering all the time. Only six bouts were decided, but everyone was the star of the evening.

The event of the evening was the bout between Cliff Graham and Walter Newton. Both of the Riverdale and the 125-lb. class. Graham was the cleverer and in the early part of each round avoided Newton's rushes by clever footwork and landed terrific blows with both hands on his opponent's head and jaw, but the only effect was to make Newton fight closer and as the round progressed Cliff weakened and Newton took the upper hand. Graham had the better of the first, but Newton took the other two and the decision. The other bout in the 125-lb. class was between Ryan, Clases, and Donovan, Riverdale. It was also a warm argument that went to the first and gave Donovan a lead hammering, but in the second, Donovan's stomach went bad and the Riverdale boy held his own and had a shade in the third, while in the fourth Donovan had considerably the better of the argument. Coyne immediately challenged for another chance and Donovan will accommodate him on Monday night in an extra bout. Field of the H.M.A.C., who put the K.O. on Larkin on Friday, got a dose of his own medicine from a Toronto boxer, who started strong and fast, but slowed him up and finished him in the second.

Pratt and Duckworth, another Riverdale pair, hooked up in the 145-lb. and it took clear of the Riverdale boy, who battered his opponent all over the ring in the first round and had the better of the second, but in the third, Duckworth, who is a portlander with a hard wallop in either hand stood the going better and evened matters, while he was aggressor all the way in the fourth, and won the judge's eye.

Platt of Classics, and Prudholm of London, had a rough time of it in the first round, but in the second round, to settle their difference. Neither boasted of much cleverness, but they were a bit of a struggle, and in the third, they battled each other all over the ring. Platt was the better man and won the verdict. Skidmore, Riverdale, another 155-lb. pair, wound up the entertainment. Skidmore, Meadows and Wheat; Sherman, McQuillan and Hartley.

At Richmond: R.H.E. Richmond Virginians 3 3 5
