In accordance with the recommendation of a sub-committee on the subject, grants to a small amount have also been made to several missionaries whose income did not amount to £150, upon condition of the people fulfilling their agreements with their clergymen.

In consequence of the wish expressed by the Society at its last meeting, the ex-committee have prepared a table containing parochial statistics from the clergy who are aided by the D. C. S.

The committee regret that there are now two vacancies in the number of the assistant missionaries which this Society has undertaken in part to support. The money voted for this purpose has been set aside to meet future wants in

COLPORTAGE.

The committee were able to obtain the services of a Colporteur for a few months during the early part of the present year. His route lay through Lakelands, Newport, Rawdon, Maitland, Truro, Londonderry, and also for a short time in Chester and Mahone Bay.

The committee are led by their experience to the conclusion that the effort cannot be sustained except at a greater cost than they feel justified in expend-
