LATE LOCALS

The board of public works will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Argument in the Grand Falls Power case has been postponed until tomorrow morning at 10.30 o'clock. The three-year-old son of Carpenter Ward, who was lost, was found yesterday by the police and returned to his mother. Steamer Calvin Austin, Captain Pike, arrived in port about 9.30 o'clock, this morning and landed 340 passengers. Many are taking advantage of the excursion rate of $5 and return. The Carleton Cornet Band will take the place of the City Cornet Band for tomorrow evening's concert at King Square, the latter playing in place of the Carleton band in Tilley Square, on Friday evening. The New Bedford auxiliary yacht Katrina 2nd, will come through the falls this afternoon. She has been up the St. John river on a pleasure trip. She will sail from this port tomorrow. George Reed, watchman of the steamer Calvin Austin, went on duty this morning, after a visit to his home in Calais. John H. Graham, head watchman of the Austin, left the steamer this morning for a vacation with his folks on the Hickey Road, St. John county. Diver Edward Lahey went down to the sunken bell buoy off the eastern end of Partridge Island today to put extra gear around it, so as to make it more secure when he places the screws to raise it. With the incoming tide, probably tomorrow morning, if fine weather continues, the work will be done. The members of Fairville Section J. T. of H. T. wish to thank the school board for the use of the vacant room in the Fairville school building, which they secured for them as a section room. All the members of the section are requested to meet at the home of the worthy governors, Miss Alice Stears, this evening at 8 o'clock, to make arrangements for fitting to the room. Plans and specifications have been prepared for the immediate reconstruction of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Station at Glace Bay. The date for starting work is not fixed and no estimate is made as to when the new station will be ready for operation, but the company expects to have everything done in as short time as possible.

LA TOUR SPORTS

ON LABOR DAY The sports to be held on the west side under the auspices of La Tour Section T. of H. on Labor Day are exciting interest among lovers of amateur sport. This organization has done much to promote sport on the west side and has created quite an interest in baseball. It is the intention to further promote clean sport during the fall and winter. The events are arranged for Monday afternoon are: For members of sections only: 220 yards and 880 yards, 3 mile, broad jump. Free for section members: 100 and 200 yards, Juniors 13 or under. Sections only. For all intermediate 15 years and under: 100 yards, 220 yards, 880 yards, 1 mile, 5 mile, high jump, broad jump. Among the entries received are Stanley Humphrey, Wm. Tufts, Robt. Lunnegren, A. McAlloney, Geo. Saul, H. Gardiner, H. McLeod, H. Ellis, C. Sharpe. Several others are expected within the next few days. Some of the prizes are: Medal, Hon. Robert Maxwell; silk umbrella, Jas. McAllan; 5 pound box candy, C. M. Brown; Fancy clock, H. Colby Smith; Fountain pen, T. H. Hall; Fancy clock, W. D. Baskin; comb and brush, West End Dairy; pair skates, Rev. W. R. Robinson; pearl knives, R. H. Parsons. The entries will close on Friday September 3. An entrance fee of 15c. is charged. All entries should be sent to R. H. Parsons, St. John West, who is chairman of the sports committee.

THE MILITARY CHANGES

Lieut. Col. Humphrey, successor to Col. White as D. O. C. for New Brunswick enters on his new duties today with considerable experience and a thorough knowledge of what is required of him. He does not intend to make any staff changes in the management of this district. While he is commanding the camp at Aldershot from Sept. 7 to 18, this district will be under control of Lieut. Col. Ogilvie who will leave today for his new field in P. E. Island and who will be succeeded here by Capt. F. W. L. Moore, R. O., as D. S. A. for this province. Owing to the latter's not assuming office for a short time it is probable that Captain Dudomane, R. C. E., will supply in his absence. Col. White will remain in the city for some weeks.

McDERMOTT BOYS SAVE LIFE AGAIN

Charles Bridges Overboard This Morning Rescued After Sinking Twice

Charles Bridges, of Germain street, nearly lost his life this morning by drowning. He was going along the face of Magee's wharf at Reid's Point, when he tripped over a rope and fell over the wharf into the harbor. His cry for help was heard by John and Gregory McDermott, who went to his rescue, and after a hard struggle they managed to get hold of the drowning man, who had sunk a second time.

THREE GARDEN PARTIES ATTRACT PEOPLE TODAY

Every Day Club Grounds, Silver Falls Methodist Grounds and Mrs. D. D. Robertson's, Rothersey

The Every Day Club garden party will be held on the club's grounds this afternoon and evening. A score or more of ladies will be in charge, with members of the club to assist. Supper will be served from 5 to 7 p. m. The grounds will be well lighted tonight and there will be music and numerous attractions.

There is a mysterious fortune teller, who will have a special booth, band and orchestra, will be present. There will be several guessing contests. The bright moonlight will aid in the evening's illumination. A garden party is to be held today at Silver Falls on the Methodist parsonage grounds and gives promise of being highly successful. A number of buses will filled with people left at 2.30 for the grounds. At 4.30 and 6.30 buses and bookboards will also leave. The committees in charge of the garden party are in part as follows: General committee—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hamilton, Thomas Shelington, Charles Bustin and J. E. Young. Both committee—Miss Hattie Clayton and Charles Bustin.

Supper tables in charge of Mrs. J. E. Young, Mrs. Charles Bustin and Mrs. William Knox. With such fine weather as is enjoyed to day large crowds should attend as an enjoyable outing is expected. On the grounds of Mrs. D. D. Robertson, at Rothersey a garden party is being held this afternoon by the Rothersey branch of the women's auxiliary. Those having charge of the party are, Mrs. F. Brock, Miss L. Fairweather, Mrs. D. Donville, Mrs. A. W. Daniel and Mrs. H. D. Robinson. Games will be played and supper served on the grounds and a delightful time is assured all who attend. The proceeds will be devoted to missionary work.

NEW Y. M. C. A. MAN HERE THIS WEEK

W. H. Moore Expected Tomorrow or Thursday to Take Up Work Among the Boys

W. H. Moore, the new Y. M. C. A. work secretary for St. John is expected to arrive tomorrow or Thursday and will enter upon his duties immediately. He comes here with a thorough knowledge of the requirements of his office, and has had considerable experience in the work among boys. He has just finished a special course of instruction at Silver Bay, where the different branches of boys' work in the Y. M. C. A. are taught and thoroughly explained to every student. In Toronto, where Mr. Moore has lived for a number of years, he has been prominent in Y. M. C. A. circles.

HARBOR BOARD AND HON. DR. PUGSLEY

The harbor board will meet Hon. Wm. Pugsley, minister of public works, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The recorder has the agreement for the west side transfer in readiness for the minister to look over. It will however, yet have to be ratified by the council.

THE VOLUNTEER ORGANIST

A play must be the real thing these days before a manager will deign or even dare to produce it. The days of unwholesome shows are past and any drama to be successful must be human as well as interesting. One play which can lay honest claims to being of the strictly wholesome type is "The Volunteer Organist," which is to be produced in the Opera House Labor Day afternoon and evening and the following two days.
