LATE LOCALS

The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Marks took place today from 230 City Road. Rev. Mr. Stachewicz officiated and interment was made in Cedar Hill.

The Calvin Austin, Capt. Pike, arrived this morning with 377 passengers. The St. Croix, Capt. Mitchell, arrived last night with 107 passengers.

A report from Lichfield is to the effect that raspberries, a quantity of which arrived today, were offering at 12 cents. This is a decline of 8 cents from yesterday's figures.

Another large crowd visited the roller rink last night. The City Opera Band was in attendance and gave a fine selection of music. This popular place of amusement is booming. Obliging officials are on hand to help patrons spend a pleasant evening.

A chance to get the newest style of double-breasted suit in any quality, color or grade at particularly low prices is being offered by J. N. Harvey, the Union street clothier. Read his ad., on the fourth page of today's Times.

The death of Miss Brown, daughter of Samuel Brown, occurred this morning at her home in Pokok. She had been ill for eight weeks, death having resulted from hemorrhage. Besides her father she leaves one brother, George, and a sister, Mrs. Allison Armstrong, of Pokok.

The first day's sale at the great mid-summer sale of the Union Clothing Co. was remarkable—everybody seemed more than satisfied with their purchases. The firm urge people to be on hand early today as big crowds are expected to attend this great sale. See ad., on page 5.

Arrangements have been made with Captain Porter to run the Springfield to Carter's Point on Sunday morning to give those wishing to go from the city to attend divine service an opportunity to be present. Service is held annually for those on the yacht cruise and the Springfield will leave Indiantown at 8:30 a. m. Sunday.

The New Brunswick Tourist Association have arranged with the C.N.R. for a series of excursions to be given at Rockwood Park on Saturday afternoons, the first of which takes place tomorrow. The band will be stationed in the vicinity of the chalet.

This will provide an incentive for citizens as well as tourists to visit Rockwood, and, as a choice programme is to be rendered, a large crowd is anticipated.

This morning, in the police court, Judge Ritchie made a few brief remarks relative to the deserting of revenue by police officers. His honor read a section of a statute passed some time ago which was still in force and which gave the police magistrates the power to dismiss any officer who took a reward. The judge also said that the officers who got a commission on reporting those who were not rate-payers and who did business in the city, were doing what was illegal.

Edward LePage, aged 20 years, and hailing from Montreal, was arrested this morning by Detective Kilien on suspicion of stealing a tin cash-box containing $22 from Laveno Lamont on June 17th last. The Times exclusively told the nature of the theft some time ago, which was the fact that LePage, Lamont and other Frenchmen were boarding at the Prince Royal Hotel, when the box disappeared. The detective was given the case, and this morning LePage was arrested in McCarthy's tailor shop, where he was employed. This morning the charge was read to the prisoner and he was remanded until Monday morning. The money was absent from the box which was found, but Detective Kilien states that LePage admitted the theft.

WOODSTOCK NEWS.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., July 20.—(Special.)—Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. James Morrisey of the death of their daughter, Alice, Mrs. N. J. Weiss, at the hospital in Portsmouth, N. H., this week, leaving a husband and two children. She was 38 years of age.

A wire was received this morning stating that Mrs. G. G. Godwin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hughes of this town, had died in Gosham, N. H. She was taken ill about ten days ago. Her mother went to Gosham, and was present when her daughter died. As Mrs. Mary Hughes she was very popular in her native town. A husband survives.

THE POLES MUST COME OFF STREET

MONTREAL, July 20.—(Special.)—Judgment has been rendered by Recorder Weir in the case of the city against the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Company in which the company was accused of unlawfully erecting poles for wires in one of the city streets in violation of the city by-laws and he has found the company guilty and imposed a fine of $25. This case was in effect a test one in view of the recent creation of a by-law looking to the enforcement of placing of the wires underground and one which has since led to a number of complications.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Herrmann the Great gave another exhibition of his wonderful powers last night in the Opera House. He is, without doubt, the master magician of the world and, aided by the propitiously Sa-Hera, presents an excellent performance.

Last evening Sa-Hera's work was marvellous. There will be another performance this evening, and all who have not seen Herrmann should be in attendance.

POLICE COURT

Various Prisoners Fined for Drunkenness—May Charge Vagrancy Against Sarah Dayton.

This morning in the police court Sarah Dayton was charged with drunkenness on Union street, and was fined $8 or two months in jail. Officer McNamara stated that he made the arrest principally because of the dilapidated condition of the woman's clothes. She had been in the company of men all afternoon and had been drinking.

Mrs. Fannie Wilkes was in court on account of having filthy premises, and the authorities were considering about charging her with keeping a disorderly house. She had a King's Daughters' badge on, and said that Mrs. Spellman was in her house now and was a "wolf in sheep's clothing." Asked about Mrs. Dwyer, she said that the Chief Forester was her brother, and he took her away. Sarah Dayton intervened with the remark, "I was staying in your house and the whole trouble was caused by you not doing any thing."

With a look of disdain and indignation, Mrs. Wilkes turned around and said: "You never lived in my house." Then an argument took place and the sergeant had to stop the scrap. Mrs. Wilkes also wanted a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Spellman for assault. The judge said, "Take Sarah below. She shouldn't talk to her employer like that," (referring to Mrs. Wilkes).

Cyril Rowe, the deserter from the bark Mortz, was remanded until the vessel sails on Tuesday or Wednesday.

James Sullivan was charged with keeping a dog, which bit a young fellow named Walter Armstrong. The owner named Walter Taylor, for drunkenness, was fined $4.

James McKinney was fined $2 for allowing his horse to wander about Riverview Park on Douglas Ave. Officer Coway and McKinney disagreed about a statement that ex-Atty. Hall made concerning the affair, and if McKinney is right the fine will not be collected.

Charles Loez pleaded guilty to stealing $50 from Albert Rasmussen, and was told that he was liable to five years in Dorchester. He was remanded. He stated that he had been drinking.

BAD BLAZE IN MONCTON

Fire This Morning Did Much Damage to a House -- Occupants Escape in Night Clothes.

MONCTON, July 20 (Special).—Fire early this morning did several hundred dollars damage to the residence of Jas. E. White, I. C. R. telegraph on Upper Riverview street. The fire was well under way in a back shed when discovered by trainmen on their way home, and when the family was aroused White's three children and the house-keeper were compelled to flee from the burning building in their night clothes. But for the discovery of the blaze at the time difficulty might have been experienced in getting the children out of the house. White was away from home at the time and the house-keeper and children were alone. The latter slept upstairs. White's oldest girl was first to be awakened and quickly aroused her two younger sisters, sleeping near getting them out in the nick of time to escape smothering by smoke. The fire occurred between two and three this morning and is supposed to have started from an ash-barrel at the rear of the house.
