

SYNOPSIS.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE, }
26th May, 1856. }

A Special Meeting of the Executive Committee was held this day in the usual place.

An anonymous letter signed "A Son of Alma Mater," was laid upon the table by the Rev. Dr. George, copies of which, it appeared, had been sent to each member of the Board of Trustees, as well as the Ministers of the Church. Mr. H. J. Borthwick, Head master of Queen's College Preparatory School, having been called in, stated in reply to the questions of the Chairman, that he was the author of the letter; and further, that he was not at liberty to mention from whom he had received the information upon which the charges contained in the letter were grounded. Mr. Borthwick was then informed by the Chairman, that the letter would be laid before the General Meeting of Trustees, and also before the Synod.

The Committee appointed at last meeting to lay the Financial position of the College before the Synod, were charged with the refutation of Mr. Borthwick's letter.
