

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET
Quotations furnished by private wire of
J. M. Robinson & Sons, St. John, N.B.
Wednesday, Oct. 27, 1915.

	Previous Closing	Up Down
Am Car & Fdy	87 1/2	88
Am Locomotive	117 1/2	117 1/2
Am Beet Sugar	65	65
Studebaker	185 1/2	186 1/2
Am Sugar	111 1/2	111 1/2
Am Steel Fdries	70 1/2	70 1/2
Am Smelters	98	98
Am Tel & Tel	194 1/2	194 1/2
Am Cotton Oil	62	62
Anacosta Mining	76 1/2	76 1/2
At. T. & S. Fe.	107 1/2	107 1/2
Brooklyn R. Tran.	88 1/2	88 1/2
Balt. & Ohio	83	83
Canadian Pacific	173 1/2	173 1/2
Cent Leather	37 1/2	37 1/2
Crescent Steel	80	80
Chino Copper	80 1/2	80 1/2
Che. & Ohio	58 1/2	58 1/2
Col. Fuel Iron	88 1/2	88 1/2
Con Gas	141 1/2	141 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	180	180
Del. and Hudson	146 1/2	146 1/2
Distillers Securities	47 1/2	47 1/2
Erie	40 1/2	40 1/2
Erie 1st Pfd	80 1/2	80 1/2
Gen Electric	179	179
Gr Northern Pfd	122 1/2	122 1/2
Hide & Leather Pfd	57 1/2	57 1/2
Inspiration	44 1/2	44 1/2
Lehigh Valley	78 1/2	78 1/2
Missouri Pacific	4 1/2	4 1/2
National Lead	97	97
N. Y. Central	100 1/2	100 1/2
Northern Pacific	112 1/2	112 1/2
Pennsylvania	88 1/2	88 1/2
Pressed Steel Car	71 1/2	71 1/2
Reading	79 1/2	79 1/2
Republic I. & S.	54	54
Rock Island Old	17 1/2	17 1/2
So. Railway	121 1/2	121 1/2
Southern Pacific	98 1/2	98 1/2
St. Paul	86 1/2	86 1/2
Sloss Sheffield	60 1/2	60 1/2
Southern Rail	32 1/2	32 1/2
Texas Pacific	18 1/2	18 1/2
Union Pacific	135 1/2	135 1/2
U. S. Rubber	53 1/2	53 1/2
U. S. Steel	80 1/2	80 1/2
U. S. Steel Pfd	115 1/2	115 1/2
Utah Copper	70 1/2	70 1/2
Vir. Car Chem.	60	60
Westing Electric	78 1/2	78 1/2
Western Union	78 1/2	78 1/2
Mex. Petroleum	89	89
Sales—Eleven o'clock, 286,900.

LOCAL NEWS

Messrs. William Thomson Company, local agents of the Head Line, announced yesterday that they have arranged to provide a regular service between this port and Avonmouth during the winter season. Two steamers will leave semi-monthly, the Ramore Head sailing in December and the Torr Head early in January. The regular sailings to Dublin and Belfast will also be continued.

One more day of sale of special curtain marquette at Daniel's. Very fine silk finish with drawn work border, white, cream and coral, regular 50c to 45c goods, sale price 27c a yard.

Experienced She-Can you manage a typewriter? He-No; I married one.

MAY BE BATTALION FROM THE WEST

Rumor Regarding Troops to Winter From Here—Officers For Siege Battery Announced—Recruits For 104th

It is now said in military circles that the battalion coming here for the winter may be one from Fort Arthur, Ont. The suggestion is that they can use both the exhibition buildings and the armory.

The honor roll of the 104th was signed yesterday by Arnold and Edward Cave, Little River; James Goldie, Milford, N. B.; Joseph Wood, Newcastle, Eng.; James McDonough, Chipman; Alex. Babin, Arichat, N. S.; Wm. S. Gray, St. John; W. K. Routman, Darwin, Eng.; Lee Francis Duffy, St. John, and Martin E. Robins, Bath, N. B.

Officers for the siege battery were announced yesterday to be Major L. W. Barker, O.C., with Capt. R. A. Ring, Lieutenants, W. Gordon Kerr, J. Adams, Bruce and G. B. Wetmore.

At Lorneville

A successful recruiting meeting was held last night in Lorneville, when Sgt. Norman Knight gave one of his spirited addresses, and H. A. Powell, K.C., spoke on the need for men. Rev. G. Langlois, Presbyterian minister, occupied the chair, and Walter Pidgeon sang a solo. Several from St. John went out to attend the meeting. Sgt. Knight has returned from Halifax for a series of recruiting meetings here.

Members of the 64th battalion who have been on duty here for the last two months, Privates Wm. McClain, Martin Ward and Fred Tomlin, all of Halifax, were the recipients of five dollars each yesterday from the local recruiting executive. The presentations were made in recognition of their excellent assistance given in local recruiting. Privates Ward and Tomlin will leave for Sussex tonight, but Private McClain will remain here for a while longer to assist Privates Walter and Fred Shaw.

A letter received by Mrs. Gilbert Wayne of Tower street, West St. John, yesterday from her son, Harvey, in France with the 20th battalion, spoke of the going of that unit into the trenches and paid tribute to the heroism of many St. John boys "doing their bit" at the front.

AUTOMOBILE EXPORT TRADE OF UNITED STATES DOUBLED

Washington, Oct. 27.—Foreign countries took more than $74,000,000 worth of American automobiles and parts thereof in the last fiscal year. This was an increase of more than $36,000,000 over the previous year. Prospects are that the exports in the calendar year will exceed $120,000,000.

European countries are largest purchasers of American motor trucks. Increased sales are being made, however, to countries far removed from the war zone.

The export trade for the year is made up as follows:

Commercial automobiles, $30,140,652; passenger automobiles, $21,118,958; auto-

THE BIG DRIVE OF SEPTEMBER 25 AND AFTER

London, Oct. 27.—The Daily Chronicle publishes this despatch from the British headquarters in France, written by its correspondent, Philip Gibbs:

"There is, I think, a sense of perplexity in the minds of people at home as to the exact meaning of what is happening and of what is falling to happen here on the western front since the great attack of September 26. Exaggerating hopes of the end of trench warfare and of a continuous advance over the German positions have led to the inevitable disappointment and despondency which finds expression in newspapers and speeches and the gossip of clubs."

"Part of that disappointment is justified; if all the elements had been with us, if we had been able to bring up more forces against the enemy's lines at the crucial moment, there is no doubt that we should have gained more ground and better ground than is now ours."

"But, whatever hopes we had of doing more, the enemy has been rudely shocked and seriously disturbed in all his plans of our success. It is not a mere journalistic phrase to say that a sense of panic was created in the German command when, on the morning of September 26, the news came to it that the 104th had fallen; that our men were sweeping up Hill 70; and we were forcing our way from Hulluch and the French were storming the heights of Vimy."

"They were already heavily engaged by the great French offensive in Champagne, and the success of the British at the same time on their right, put an enormous strain upon their offensive organization. What hurt them most was that the initiative had fallen into our hands, thereby upsetting all their plans and internal disposition of troops."

"Yet it is well that people at home should look at all the facts without flinching, and realize that, even when no great actions are in progress, the waiting of our troops goes on increasingly, and our very success is a source of most terrible toll in life."

"The positions we have to maintain along the new lines of Hill 70 and the chalk pit to the Hohenzollern redoubt are under continual shell fire. The enemy's artillery is formidable and he supplies of every kind of ammunition apparently inexhaustible."

Fifty grand prizes in the patriotic drawings.

A Bangor, Me., man who went to Lewiston in his automobile had trouble with his lights when it grew dark. He overtook two men on a motorcycle, and they had them light the way back to Bangor.

Have you got your tickets for the patriotic drawing yet?

THE BAPTIST MINISTERS

(Maritime Baptist)

Rev. A. J. Prosser, formerly of North Vancouver, B. C., has accepted a call and is now settled with the First Cornwallis Baptist church.

Rev. Edwin Crutwell is now settled in his old home in Yarmouth.

After serving three years as the Port La Tour and Port Clyde churches, Rev. H. Barber has accepted a call to the Third Yarmouth field.

Rev. G. M. Wilson has commenced pastoral labors in the Port La Tour field, after some months of rest and recuperation.

Rev. J. E. Gossline, with Mrs. Gossline, has been enjoying a few weeks of rest, spending the time chiefly at Sussex and Newmarket. At the latter place his parents are still living aged eighty-seven and eighty-six years. He is at work again, occupying his pulpit at Grand Harbor on last Sunday.

At the Vermont State Convention, Rev. Ralph M. Jones of Chester, read a paper on "Church Discipline in Vermont. Mr. Jones is a son of Prof. R. V. Jones of Wolfville.

Rev. J. B. Anderson, pastor of the United Baptist church at Liverpool, N. S., has joined a medical corps for overseas service and has been called to the colors.

A news item from Harland says that Rev. J. D. Wetmore has accepted a call to the Victoria-Waterville group of churches.

We regret to report the serious illness of Rev. A. E. Newcomb's only son. He has been suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia, but was somewhat better at the last report and good hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Rev. A. A. Rideout, pastor of the Blancy Street Memorial Baptist church, Dorchester, Mass., has completed five years of service with that church. To mark the fifth anniversary a reception was tendered by the church to the pastor and his wife.

We have received information that Rev. Lewis Wallace, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has accepted a call to the work at Annapolis Royal.

Those who believe in the importance and dignity of the Bible school will be interested in an announcement which has reached us from Dartmouth College at Hanover, N. H. The Church School (for by that title it is dignified) is given the best service of the professors and many strong optional courses are offered both for the community and the undergraduates. As superintendent of the school we are glad to see the name of Prof. E. Gordon Bill (Acadia '09).

The call of the Empire has been answered by several members of the graduating class of Acadia. To those whose standing has been satisfactory the faculty will grant degrees without further study. They will join the Fourth Universities Company now being formed in Montreal. Among those who have already joined the company are Max Saunders, eldest son of Rev. H. H. Saunders, the Glades; H. Burton Deane, eldest son of Rev. R. M. Deane, St. John's, whose name will be found among our list of localities.

AUCTIONS

POTTS

Ten shares Bank of Nova Scotia stock, 80 shares N. B. Telephone Co., 16 shares Ready's Breweries, Pfd. 25 of common.

BY AUCTION

I am instructed to sell at Chubb's Corner on Saturday morning, October 30th, at 12 o'clock noon, the above stock.

R. F. POTTS, Auctioneer.

10-30.

RAY STALLION

The Ray Stallion (Iowa Parole); also one Crotcher's Sleigh, Light Carriage, Express Wagon, Set of Harness, Robe, etc.

BY AUCTION

I have been instructed to sell the above mentioned at Short's Stable, 184 Prince street, Saturday morning, Oct. 30, at 10.45.

R. F. POTTS, Auctioneer.

Phone 775.

WEBBER

There will be sold at Public Auction at Chubb's Corner, on Saturday, the thirtieth day of October, at twelve o'clock noon, that Two-family House on leasehold lot No. 18, Morris street, together with the freehold lot adjoining, 31x100. The property is in good condition and repair. For further particulars, apply to

I. WEBBER, Auctioneer.

10-30.

DICKESON'S TEA

—stands pre-eminent for QUALITY and FLAVOR. You can be sure of a perfect cup of tea when you buy Dickeson's.

DICKESON'S TEA is the BEST TEA.

The Original Aluminum Packet

Agents: E. T. Sturges, St. John, N. B.

THE BAPTIST MINISTERS

(Maritime Baptist)

Rev. A. J. Prosser, formerly of North Vancouver, B. C., has accepted a call and is now settled with the First Cornwallis Baptist church.

Rev. Edwin Crutwell is now settled in his old home in Yarmouth.

After serving three years as the Port La Tour and Port Clyde churches, Rev. H. Barber has accepted a call to the Third Yarmouth field.

Rev. G. M. Wilson has commenced pastoral labors in the Port La Tour field, after some months of rest and recuperation.

Rev. J. E. Gossline, with Mrs. Gossline, has been enjoying a few weeks of rest, spending the time chiefly at Sussex and Newmarket. At the latter place his parents are still living aged eighty-seven and eighty-six years. He is at work again, occupying his pulpit at Grand Harbor on last Sunday.

At the Vermont State Convention, Rev. Ralph M. Jones of Chester, read a paper on "Church Discipline in Vermont. Mr. Jones is a son of Prof. R. V. Jones of Wolfville.

Rev. J. B. Anderson, pastor of the United Baptist church at Liverpool, N. S., has joined a medical corps for overseas service and has been called to the colors.

A news item from Harland says that Rev. J. D. Wetmore has accepted a call to the Victoria-Waterville group of churches.

We regret to report the serious illness of Rev. A. E. Newcomb's only son. He has been suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia, but was somewhat better at the last report and good hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Rev. A. A. Rideout, pastor of the Blancy Street Memorial Baptist church, Dorchester, Mass., has completed five years of service with that church. To mark the fifth anniversary a reception was tendered by the church to the pastor and his wife.

We have received information that Rev. Lewis Wallace, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has accepted a call to the work at Annapolis Royal.

Those who believe in the importance and dignity of the Bible school will be interested in an announcement which has reached us from Dartmouth College at Hanover, N. H. The Church School (for by that title it is dignified) is given the best service of the professors and many strong optional courses are offered both for the community and the undergraduates. As superintendent of the school we are glad to see the name of Prof. E. Gordon Bill (Acadia '09).

The call of the Empire has been answered by several members of the graduating class of Acadia. To those whose standing has been satisfactory the faculty will grant degrees without further study. They will join the Fourth Universities Company now being formed in Montreal. Among those who have already joined the company are Max Saunders, eldest son of Rev. H. H. Saunders, the Glades; H. Burton Deane, eldest son of Rev. R. M. Deane, St. John's, whose name will be found among our list of localities.

AUCTIONS

POTTS

Ten shares Bank of Nova Scotia stock, 80 shares N. B. Telephone Co., 16 shares Ready's Breweries, Pfd. 25 of common.

BY AUCTION

I am instructed to sell at Chubb's Corner on Saturday morning, October 30th, at 12 o'clock noon, the above stock.

R. F. POTTS, Auctioneer.

10-30.

RAY STALLION

The Ray Stallion (Iowa Parole); also one Crotcher's Sleigh, Light Carriage, Express Wagon, Set of Harness, Robe, etc.

BY AUCTION

I have been instructed to sell the above mentioned at Short's Stable, 184 Prince street, Saturday morning, Oct. 30, at 10.45.

R. F. POTTS, Auctioneer.

Phone 775.

WEBBER

There will be sold at Public Auction at Chubb's Corner, on Saturday, the thirtieth day of October, at twelve o'clock noon, that Two-family House on leasehold lot No. 18, Morris street, together with the freehold lot adjoining, 31x100. The property is in good condition and repair. For further particulars, apply to

I. WEBBER, Auctioneer.

10-30.

100 MEN IN A NIGHT!

"Man to Man, Let Us Talk This Whole Thing Over Thursday Night!"

100 Men in a Night!

Lieut.-Colonel Geo. W. Fowler Invites
The Men of St. John to His Heart-to-Heart Meeting and Monster
Patriotic Demonstration
Queen's Rink 8 o'clock!

IT IS HOPED TO MAKE THE 104TH BATTALION THE FINEST BODY OF SOLDIERS ever organized in this section of the Dominion. It is being recruited quickly and enthusiastically. Pals in work and pals in household life are joining in squads. The officers being selected are popular and progressive, and everything points to a crackerjack crowd of fellows. The winter's training in Halifax—or St. John—will be pleasant work. All military details are now thoroughly systematized and the new unit will be established under the most favorable circumstances.

Sergt. Knight Will Also Address The Meeting!
A Rousing Response To The King's Appeal!

Follow The Band - Big Time!

OVERCOATS SUITS FURNISHINGS

Real Style for Real Men

Most every man in this town needs one of these suits and overcoats.

Most every man we can fit in five minutes.

Most every man will find here the exact color and pattern to suit his fancy.

Every man will like our way of handling lookers or buyers.

Suits, $12.50, $15, $18, $20 and $25.

Overcoats $12, $15, $18, $20 and up.

A GOOD PLACE TO BUY GOOD CLOTHES

GILMOUR'S, 68 King St.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache; no hawking, sniffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

Our Success

is due to the fact that we have won the confidence of our customers by always maintaining the highest standard in quality and being liberal in our policy.

Toric Spherical Lenses, mounted in 10c. Gold Mount for same price as charged elsewhere for Gold Filled.

We fit glasses as low as $2.00 and guarantee them.

K. W. EPSTEIN & CO.,
Optometrists and Opticians
Open Evening
193 Union St.

A Remedy For All Pain

"The efficiency of our 'grip' says Dr. G. F. Robbins, 'is known to us by the results we have been able to achieve by means of any of our remedies. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. And, as a matter of fact, it is the most often applied to us for, i. e. something to relieve the pain. If we can relieve this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-malaria