LOCAL NEWS

Funerals line steamship Bappahannock sailed at noon today for Halifax and London.

The members of the 62nd band will meet this evening for practice instead of a march out.

A wagon owned by Mr. Mason of Fairville broke down yesterday morning in Mill street and a little damage was done to the vehicle.

The catch basin at the fountain in King Square became clogged up today and the water overflowed on the lower side of the font.

Policeman McCole reports that there is a dead dog lying in Mill street. A suit case found some time ago in Main street was an overcoat in a central police station.

The suit case and trunk found yesterday in the harbor by Otty Wilson were identified by John R. Day and John Chitwick of Brown's Place, and Mr. Wilson has returned the goods to them. There was about $100 worth in the articles. They had come from the dredge which sank yesterday.

In view of the fact that disagreeable odors are apt to arise from the ruins of last night's fire in John Hannak's barn, Magazine road, efforts will be made immediately to have the carcasses of the cattle removed. It is not yet known what course will be pursued but it is probable that they will be covered with quicklime and perhaps a few taken away. An inspector of the board of health will visit the place today.

It is just eleven years ago today that so many families in Indiantown were burnt out of their homes by the disastrous fire which occurred on May 25, 1899, starting at 1.10 p.m. in some ways the fire has been looked upon as a blessing as it rid the place of a number of disagreeable spots. The sections of the ruins have been built up again, and better, roomier, and finer houses have replaced those destroyed.

Plans for the smoker to be held tomorrow night by the A. O. H. will be under way, and a good time is assured all who attend. It is not known definitely yet whether or not Matthew Cummings of Boston, will be in the city for the affair. The presentation of the president's chair to John Lanney, of the P. M. A., will take place. This is the chair won by Mr. Lanney in the contest for the most popular president at the fair held this spring by the A. O. H.

Owing to a weakness of the old cribwalk along Union street west, the sidewalk is gradually settling. Engineer Murdoch said he had a report on the matter and will submit an estimate of the cost of repairs at the next session of the board of works. The cribwalk has bulged out and it will be necessary to renew and strengthen a portion of it. There is no danger at present, the engineer thinks, but he is having the place watched. The sidewalk has gone down in some places about a foot.

POLICE COURT TODAY

Several prisoners appeared before Judge Ritchie this morning in the police court, the main offence being drunkenness. Two of the men were arrested yesterday. Daniel Fitz was remanded on a charge of drunkenness. His Honor reminded him that he had been released from jail only last week, and he was now liable to be sentenced under the Dominion Act to six months in jail. David Hennessey was remanded on a drunkenness charge and fined $8 for profanity. Edward Nicholson and Benjamin Doyle were fined $8 on a charge of being drunk. Carl Johnson pleaded guilty to fighting in Union street, west side, on Monday night, and was fined $20 or two months jail. He struck a sailor friend named John Abbas, the latter retaliated with another blow, and both were arrested. Abbas was allowed out on deposit. Albert Doherty was remanded on a charge of using abusive language to his brother, Frank, in Main street, as his brother did not appear against him. John McDonald, arrested yesterday on a charge of vagrancy, told the court that he had been in Canada about three years, and in St. John two weeks. He came here from Galway. He was ordered to the Municipal Home for three months. Mrs. Mary Neagle, a woman aged seventy years, was cautioned not to repeat the offence of trespassing on I. C. R. property by walking along the railroad track and endangering her life. She was told she was liable to a heavy fine.

PLAYGROUNDS IN GARLETON

The question of having the market square in the west end converted into a public playground will be taken up in earnest this week or early next week when the committee appointed to deal with the matter will meet to discuss the project. It is proposed to ask the common council to place the square at the disposal of the committee and to put it in shape for use as a playground for the children.

HAZEN NOT ON HAND; EXPENSE IS PILED UP

Neither Attorney-General Nor Solicitor-General in County Court This Morning to Attend to Criminal Business
Attorney General Hazen has cost the municipality a needless expenditure of money on account of his absence from his duty as crown prosecutor in the county court this morning.

When the court opened at 11 o'clock D. King Hazen, son of the attorney general, on behalf of his father, asked to have the criminal business stopped till June 15 next. Although the motion was opposed by counsel for two of the prisoners, his honor allowed the motion. The municipality has to bear the expense of a petit jury and other fees which could be saved had the cases been proceeded with. Attorney General Hazen is in Boston where he addressed a meeting of the Intercolonial Club. Hon. H. P. McLeod, solicitor general and the next crown lawyer, was not in court.

OFF TO SEE WORLD; TRIP ENDS HERE

Three Kings County Lads Run Away From Home; Are Caught on Eastern S. S. Company's Wharf

The lure of the city proved too strong for three young lads of Kings county this week, and, tired of mothers' cooking and of the peaceful quietude and surroundings of their native village of Haydock, they wandered last being strong within them, they determined to seek their fortunes in other climes. They are Frank Mullins, Frank Ryder, and Herbert Coates, all about fifteen years old and all of respectable families in Kings county. Before leaving home young Coates it is said replenished his finances by helping himself to $15 from his mother, Mrs. J. K. Coates and she, on learning of the boys' disappearance and the money being missing, telephoned to police headquarters here, with the result that Sergt. Hastings at 7.30 this morning located the runaway trio on the Eastern S. S. Company's wharf and took Coates to the police station, the other lads following.
