Animal Rescue Society Holds
Annual Meeting and Elects

In November a large and delightful bridge was given at the Admiral Beatty Hotel. The month just passed, January, saw our second pantry sale of the year.

In July we held a tag day. In spite of insufficient workers, the tag day was fairly successful, but midsummer is not the best season for one.

League at its annual meeting held last aight in the Admiral Beatty Hotel. Other officers elected were as follows:

Nico-presidents, first, Mrs. G. Walford Campbell; second, Mrs. C. J. Costar; third, Mrs. Joseph Murdoch; recording secretary, Mrs. C. S. Pushle; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. S. Pushle; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. S. Pushle; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. S. Pushle; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. S. Pushle; corresponding secretary from a merciful release. Some few, cats, were boarded, but the larger portion were waifs whose removal from a iserable existence was the removal of a menace to health.

It is only by repeated reiterations hat it seems possible to make the public understand that our A. R. L. is not a sentimental, but practical work. It is not a nursery, attempting the impossible, but a clearing house, where the flotsam and jetsam of animal life buried through. In other words, the The exhibition, which comprises some proportion was asked to take both recording secretary, and Miss Prances Stetson and Miss Prances Stetson and Miss Prances Travers.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

Mrs. Gribble's report, the 13th annual bef the league, was as follows:

Hazen resigned as cercording secretary, and corresponding secretary.

From the standpoint of humanity the A. R. L. has not lagged. One thousand animals passed through our hands this last year. Some were old or sick pets, cats, were boarded, but the larger portion were waifs whose removal from a merciful release. Some few, cats, were boarded, but the larger portion were waifs whose removal from a merciful release. Some few, cats, were cedure. The lax business methods and haphasard management were corrected by Mrs. Peck's firm parliamentary hand, and a strong executive began and has maintained a vigorous campaign along the lines of publicity, fund saling and repairs to the premises.

Although heavy mortgages burden us, the feeling that we are independent of the caprices of a landlord gives us securiti for improvements, and on brige to greater efforts.

Therefore, in this connection, I may mention that by no means the least of the year's echievements was the building of an important retaining wall, seement, pitch lined, between the shelter and the adjoining property, thus preventing the continual drainage of water across the room where animals are chloroformed. It was an expensive but necessary improvements adding the state of the proposed of the property of the control of the continual drainage of water across the room where animals are chloroformed. Besides the wall, the society has a society

Besides the wall, the society has improved the house by the addition of a side porch, and the building of a fence enclosing what this summer is to be a garden of flowers and shrubbery.

FINANCIAL.

Beginning in June we were able to give Mrs. Daley a modest monthly salary for her invaluable services, which up to this time had been rewarded by nothing more than the rent of the dwelling.

has so small a stock of affection it is all needed for home consumption; or he is the odd one out of every thousand who does not love animals.

A city the slee of Saint John should have a better A. R. L., have greater facilities for work, and a more active interest among its citizens. In this year of 1926 will you not wisit the leaves see what we do. othing more than the rent of the welling.

These expenditures have been met by the society during and become one of us?
