MRS. ANGLIN WAS ST. JOHN NATIVE

Widow of Former Speaker of House of Commons - Dead in Ottawa.

Mrs. Timothy Warren Anglin, widow of Hon. Timothy Warren Anglin, who was a member of the House of Commons from 1867 until 1882, died in Ottawa last evening, aged 81 years. Mrs. Anglin was born in St. John, and lived in Toronto for a number of years before going to Ottawa. She leaves four sons, Mr. Justice Anglin, a very charming St. John girl, daughter of W. Anglin, K. C., Toronto; T. W. and B. H. Anglin of New York; also two daughters, Margaret Anglin, a Brookville actress, and Mrs. T. Hutchins, who resides in China. The funeral will take place Saturday, the body being sent to the family plot in Toronto.

Older citizens of St. John remember Mrs. Anglin as Miss McTavish, a very charming St. John girl, daughter of Alexander McTavish of the old dry goods firm of Doherty & McTavish. Their store was called the Commercial Palace, and was a building with brown stone front, standing in King street, where Humphrey's coffee store now stands. Among the clerks in this store in the sixties of the last century were William Mannary, Peter Mcweeney, John McWilliams and Francis McCafferty of the old St. John Dramatic Club. Alex. McTavish himself was a prominent citizen. He was the first president of the Victoria Rink Company. He was also a gifted singer and led a choir in St. Malachi's Hall. His home was in Queen Square, and Mrs. Anglin was born in a house that stood on the site of the present Sayre residence, built by the late Lieut. Gov. John Boyd.

She attended a private school and then received a convent education. Like her father, she was a gifted singer, and is described by old friends as a girl of very lovely disposition. She became the second wife of Timothy Warren Anglin, and they lived for many years in St. John, in a house on Waterloo street, just over the crest of the hill, which Mr. Anglin converted into a very charming residence.

Mrs. Anglin always kept up her intimacy with old St. John friends, and visited the city four or five years ago. She had two sisters, one of whom married Hugh Cullinan of St. Stephen, and now lives in Montreal; and the other married a merchant in Halifax named Dwyer. She had one brother, William, who married Miss McDonald, daughter of a merchant in Fredericton.

Mrs. Anglin's daughter, Ellen, married a son of the American Admiral Hutchins. Her husband is attached to the American Embassy in China, and they live in the city of Peking.

Mrs. Anglin was the mother of a very gifted family, of whom many citizens of St. John have cherished recollections.
