A CLOAK FOR BRIDES

Something entirely new for the bride is a cape of hazy pink baronet satin with lined peonies under its draped bolter collar.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Crouch-Trentowsky.
A wedding of much interest to friends in this city was solemnized on Saturday, at the residence of E. L. Tuck, Dayton, Ohio, when Miss Elsie Arnold Trentowsky, of this city, was united in marriage to Winifred Lee Crouch, Dayton, Ohio. The bride was becomingly gowned in a traveling suit of brown with a French model hat to match and carried a bouquet of violets. The flower girl for the occasion was Miss Dorothy Tuck. The groom is a representative of the Laygett & Myers tobacco firm at Dayton. Following the wedding ceremonies Mr. and Mrs. Crouch left by automobile for Pennsylvania, where they will spend their honeymoon. Previous to her departure from this city for Dayton, Mrs. Crouch was made the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts from the teachers of the various kindergartens in the city. She was for some time a teacher in St. Paul's private kindergarten. She is a daughter of Ottomian Trentowsky, 18 Garden street, who is a member of T. McAvity's clerical staff, and Mrs. Trentowsky. While at Dayton the bride was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Tuck.

Messrs. Graham.

Miss Emma Graham and Calvin Lawrence Messer, both of this city, were married on Saturday. The ceremony was performed at 19 Douglas avenue by Rev. W. H. Spencer.

RECENT DEATHS

Sheriff H. A. P. Smith.

H. A. P. Smith, sheriff of Digby county, N. S., and one of the best-known officials in the Maritime Provinces, died here yesterday morning as he was being transferred to the ambulance from his room in the Victoria Hotel. The late Sheriff Smith's illness was of about four days duration and during that time he was confined to his room in the hotel. He became rapidly worse early on Sunday morning and was taken to the Victoria Hotel and his removal to the General Public Hospital was ordered. It was while being conveyed to the ambulance at about 8 o'clock yesterday morning that the sheriff died. One son, residing in Moncton, survives.

Sheriff Smith arrived from Digby a week ago last Thursday on one of his customary official trips to the city. He left for Fredericton the next day and returned on Saturday. He announced he would remain in the city on Monday and return to Digby on Tuesday. On Monday night, however, he changed his mind and decided to remain over until Wednesday morning. Mrs. Smith accompanied her husband on this last trip and has been with him during his illness.

Arrangements were completed last night to have the body taken to Digby on the steamer Empress this morning.

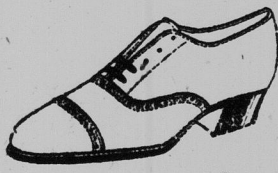

Miss Susan L. Orchard.

Many will regret to learn of the death of Susan L. Orchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Orchard, of White's Cove, Queen's county, which occurred at the St. John Infirmary on Sunday after an illness of seven weeks duration. Miss Orchard was eighteen years of age and was possessed of a sweet and lovable disposition which made her a general favorite. Heartfelt sympathy has gone out to her bereaved parents and relatives. Her mother and her aunt, Mrs. Durston, were with her at the time of her death. Besides her parents, she is survived by two sisters, Mabel and Edith, and one brother, Frank, all at home. The body will be taken to White's Cove for interment and the funeral probably will be on Wednesday.

Mrs. Patrick Britt.

The death of Mrs. Patrick Britt occurred yesterday at her home, Little street, where she had been ill a few days and her death came as a shock to her many friends. She is survived by her husband, four sons, John and Frank, of Boston; and Vincent and Daniel, at home; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Love, Wellington Row, and Mrs. S. Annie Patterson.

The death of Mrs. S. Annie Patterson, widow of Alexander Patterson, of Douglas, Scotland, and daughter of the late William G. Brown, Indian town, occurred on Saturday evening last at 11:40 o'clock at her late residence, 22 Main street. She leaves on son, James Patterson, of this city; one brother, William A. Brown, Morristown, and two sisters, Mrs. F. M. Bailey, of this city, and Mrs. B. McLean, New York. The funeral will be held from her late residence on Tuesday at 8:30 p. m.

FUNERALS

The funeral of Mrs. Silas McDiarmid took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 23 Goodrich street. Rev. Dr. S. S. Foote conducted the service, which was held at 2:30 o'clock. The pall bearers were W. H. Hayward, D. Armstrong, H. W. Rising, F. S. Smith, Kenneth A. Wilson and L. A. Titus. A large number of friends and relatives attended. Interment was made in Fernhill cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Tait took place yesterday afternoon at 10 o'clock from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. V. Wright, 387 Lancaster street, w. e. Rev. Dr. S. S. Foote conducted the service. Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

YESTERDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

The final session of Waterloo street Baptist church Bible class, for this season, was held yesterday. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Harry Marley, re-elected; first vice-president, Mrs. George Brown; second vice-president, Miss Florence Kierstead; assistant secretary, Mrs. J. H. Hamilton; treasurer, Mrs. John Frodsham. The pastor, Rev. J. A. Swetnam, referred to the fact that Mr. McIntyre, one of the energetic members of the class, was leaving soon for the United States where he was to reside at his home, and on behalf of the class he presented to Mr. McIntyre a gold watch. Mr. McIntyre made a fitting reply and cordially thanked the members.

The monthly pulpit interchange arranged by the Methodist ministers of the city was carried out at the morning service in the churches yesterday. Rev. H. E. Thomas, of Exmouth street, exchanged with Rev. R. G. Fulton, of Centenary. Rev. Neil MacLellan, of the Queen Square church, exchanged with Rev. H. B. Clarke, of the Port Christian church. Rev. J. M. Rice, of Fairville, exchanged with Rev. F. T. Bennett, of Cadogan. Rev. E. E. Boyd, of Carmichael street, exchanged with Rev. J. K. King, of Zion church. The Methodist exchange service on the last Sunday of each month from September to May, inclusive.

Rev. J. A. MacFarlane, M. A., Grand Organizer of the Loyal Orange Association of Quebec, delivered forceful addresses in city churches yesterday. In the morning he was the preacher at the services in the Ludlow street Baptist church and in the evening he delivered the sermon at Centenary church when his subject was "The Keys of the Kingdom."

The congregation of the German street Baptist church greatly enjoyed the special solo given at the evening service by Miss Lydia A. Procter of Halifax. Miss Procter has a particularly pleasing and sympathetic soprano voice and she sang with fine effect, "Come Unto Me," by Eliza Dunn. For the morning service yesterday a pulpit exchange was made by Rev. George E. Knight of the Coburg street Christian church and Rev. Isaac Brindley of the Edith Avenue Hall. Rev. William Phillips of the Douglass avenue church described the observance of the Lord's Day in St. John to his congregation at the services last evening. He said that the keeping of the Sabbath was marked by peace and quietness practically the same as he had found in Australia some twenty-seven years ago when he first visited that country. However, a more recent visit to Australia disclosed conditions altogether different. The people had become what they termed "Americanized." He rejoiced to find St. John as he had found Australia twenty-seven years ago.

Rev. W. D. Noyes, chief interdenominational worker among the Chinese, is in the city for a general conference with those interested in the local missionary. He spoke to the Central Baptist and Trinity Episcopal Chinese classes yesterday and will hold other meetings this week. In his remarks yesterday Rev. Mr. Noyes said that there was no Oriental menace. He said that they were generally law-abiding citizens. He urged against their exclusion and added that he hoped to see a Chinese clergyman in St. John before long.

Rev. J. V. Young and Rev. F. B. Lindsay officiated at the services yesterday at the Mission Church of St. John the Baptist. The nineteenth anniversary of the Oxford Movement was fittingly observed.

Rev. James Dunlop, the scholarly preacher in Central Baptist church, concluded a series of sermons on the theme of the great work, the Psychology of the great work, the Psychology of Retribution.

Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong made a strong plea for the cause of the Young Women's Christian Association at the morning service at the church yesterday. He brought the coming drive for funds by the association before the congregation and spoke of the great work which it is doing. He said that the past support had been meagre enough. He urged all to assist to their fullest capacity in the coming drive.

An inspiring recital was given by Alexander Crookshank, organist, assisted by Mrs. V. R. Henderson and the choir of the First Presbyterian church yesterday. A large congregation was present and the music was much appreciated. After the recital, Rev. J. A. Morrison, the pastor, spoke with much appreciation of the music which had been so well rendered.

FRANCE MAY CLASH WITH THE TURKS

Will Send Two More Army Divisions to Syria—Will Have 46,000 Men There.

Paris, April 30.—As a precaution against what is regarded as the threatening attitude of the Turks in concert with twenty thousand troops along the northern border of Syria, the French Government has decided to reinforce its own military strength in the mandated territory by two divisions. The reinforcement of the French army in Syria and head of the French delegation at the Lausanne conference.

Gen. Pelle has been assured by Ismet Pasha that the Turks were not concentrating their forces against France, but the Paris Government looks with disfavor on what it believes to be an effort by Ankara to exert pressure on France in the near East.

PASSENGER LINERS ARE DIVERTED HERE

Owing to the presence of a great quantity of ice in the Gulf of St. Lawrence the C. P. S. liners Montcalm and Metagama, both of which have sailed from the other side for Montreal, have been diverted to St. John. The Montcalm is due here this evening and the Metagama will probably be here on Wednesday. This means a considerable change in the plans of the company.

AFRICAN TRIBES REJECT WIFE-BUYING PRACTICE

British Authorities in Kenya Notified By Chiefs of Reform Pledge

London, April 30.—(By Mail).—In practically every Kenya tribe it is the custom for the young men to purchase their wives, the groom paying an agreed price to the father of the girl in cattle or goats. However, the Director of Education in Kenya has now received a document, to which are appended over ninety signatures, including that of some chiefs, in which the signatories state that, although they have themselves bought their wives, they realize the evils of such a custom, and pledge themselves not to sell their daughters in marriage, but to encourage unions based on mutual affection, says the Nairobi correspondent of "The London Times."

BANQUET FOR TRAIL RANGERS AND TUXIS BOYS

The final banquet for Trail Rangers and Tuxis Boys was held at the M. C. A. on Saturday evening. About 140 boys sat down to their own tables, which were decorated for the occasion by themselves.

After supper the judges presented the prizes for the best decorated Tuxis. The judges were Alexander Wilson, chairman of the Y. M. C. A. Boys' Work Board; Rev. A. J. Moffat, president of St. John Boys' Work Board and William J. Bowles, physical director of the Y. M. C. A. The prizes went to the Portland Methodist boys for the best decorated Tuxis table, with St. Luke's boys a close second, and last of the Portland Methodist boys for the best decorated Tuxis Ranger table.

A. M. Gregg, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., then led in the singing, after which R. G. Schofield presented the cups donated by him, which were won in the recent skating meet. Medals also were presented, which were donated by Royden Foley. Rev. H. B. Clarke, of Portland Methodist church next gave an inspiring address. Then came the stunts and Germain Street Baptist boys won both penants, one for Tuxis and one for Trail Rangers.

A feature of the evening was the presentation to Captain Bowie by the Portland Methodist Tuxis boys of the prize they had won, a five-pound box of chocolates. Captain Bowie is leaving St. John this year and regrets were expressed as, it was said, he had been a friend to all and had always been ready and willing to aid the Tuxis and Trail Rangers of the city in every way possible.

SUBURBAN SERVICE EARLY

The C. P. R. suburban service will begin on Tuesday. The line is making a new departure this year, and provided the full service will be in operation from tomorrow on, almost a month earlier than last year when the service began on May 22. The first train will leave the city for Welford at 9:15 a. m. The second will leave at 6:15 in the evening, and the last one will also run on Wednesdays and from July 1 it will be operated daily. When daylight saving time comes into effect the schedule will be changed to conform with it, so that the same times of arrival and departure will be observed.

Tailored Suits Easier to Own

RIGHT good news it is to hear that Tailored Suits are lower than in years. Just price some here or know the new things that go so well. How do the Camel Hair ones strike you? Or the Camelines—overplaids, the knotted Bannockburns, the colored pepper and salts, the points of design.

Of course you would expect to see a good number of Navy, Sand and various Tan Toggles and Poirot Twills, but you had better look at the Blacks—there's something about them that can't go down on paper without a lavishness of adjective. Quite as low as $25 you feel free in selecting. There are even Peppers and Suits in mingled tints together with Blues around $28.75.

The low notched collar (some have two notches) shaves with the high-cuts. Pastings vary; a few have just the linked button. Rows of tucks are also prominent trimmings.

The Camel Hair Suits at $54.75 stand by themselves in softness of color tone and fabric and the designing has had to be equally particular. A close competitor many warm up to is the jaunty Cameline at $49.75. A straight box Model with an overplaid, it makes you feel like a run out-of-doors, patch pocketed and leather buttoned.

Beside the Bannockburns are Heather Tweeds with linked buttons and Satin linings at $44.75. The Bannockburns show their strength in a knotty weave—shades are Tans, Greys and Blues. Like a few others in the tailored mode, this one is belted, the pockets are set in on the skirt as well. $49.75.

Take a trot over to Daniel's second floor and glance round—everything is there, and lately the accommodation has been expanded, more mirrors and more dressing rooms.
