RECENT DEATHS

After an illness of a few months, the death occurred on Oct. 31, at her home, 1 Alma street, this city, of Mrs. Mary J. Burpee, wife of T. N. Burpee, in the seventy-third year of her age. Besides her husband, five daughters and five sons are left to mourn the loss of a devoted mother. The daughters are Mrs. A. Williams, Sudbury (Ont.); Mrs. R. Staples, St. Mary's (N. B.); Mrs. Murray Long, St. John; Miss Minnie, Boston, and Miss Jennie, at home. The sons are Lockwood and Thomas, Boston; Frank, Moose Jaw; Harry, Calais, and Fred, St. John. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. George Howard, Hampton, and four brothers, Fred J. Foster, Moncton; George Foster, Majorville; Dr. B. C. and Rainford Foster, Fredericton.

The body will be taken on Monday to St. Mary's, where the funeral will be held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. E. Staples.

After an illness of about two weeks, Robert P. McNichol died yesterday of pneumonia at Moncton. Mr. McNichol was in his 72nd year. He leaves three daughters to mourn his loss. Mr. McNichol, formerly of St. John, was a Mason and belonged to the order of the Knights of Pythias. He had worked as a cabinet maker in the government shops at Moncton for about thirty years, and had retired. The funeral will take place in St. John from the residence of his brother, Andrew McNichol, 223 "ing street east, on Monday at 2:30 p. m.

STRUGGLE AGAINST POVERTY TOO MUCH FOR MOTHER

Maine Woman Sends Bullet Through
Body With Little Ones Around

Cherryfield, Maine, Nov. 1.—Alone with her four small children, in a small house on the Millbridge road, Mrs. Willis Willey, attempted suicide with a revolver. The bullet entered her breast, and, passing entirely through her body, came out near the shoulder blade. It is believed that there is at least an even chance for her recovery.

Mrs. Willey has lived alone with her four children for some time, her husband being employed at Sullivan. They were very poor and the struggle against poverty, which has been a hard one, is believed to have been the cause of Mrs. Willey's attempt on her life.

Neighbors heard the shot and her cries and hastened to the house. The children were terrified and she was lying with the blood streaming from the bullet wound. Doctor Moreau and Doctor Van Wart were summoned and worked over Mrs. Willey for some time and the neighbors are giving her the best of care. The children are dependent upon her and the case is a particularly pitiable one.

IN THE PATH OF DEVELOPMENT

Provided With a Freehold Rail Branch, Owing a Freehold Wharf Property at the Head of the Harbor, Controlling Immense Coal Areas in Queens Co. All Requisite For a Wholesale and Retail Coal Business.

Gibbons & Co's big coal depot at the Long Wharf was taken to make room for the I. C. R. terminals. The firm's big dock west the North Wharf was purchased to make room for the Dominion Coal Co. The 31,000 square feet of land with the elevator building on it now used at Gibbons & Co's, Marsh street branch, is said to be in the way of the approaches to the proposed union depot at Haymarket Square. The C. P. R. has made plans for a 600 foot berth running from North Wharf to York Point Slip, embracing the Lloyd Wharf property now owned by Gibbons & Co. and other properties adjoining, and Mr. Gustafson of the I. C. R. has recently stated to the Board of Trade and these valuable properties on the eastern side of the harbor are required by the I. C. R. and are needed for steamship facilities.

In connection with the development of the Queens County coal areas upon which it is stated the C. P. R., the G. T. P. and the Valley Railroad must largely depend for their coal supplies, Gibbons & Co's properties lie along both sides of the C. P. R. and G. T. P. and control the best harbor facilities on Grand Lake.

These are some of the reasons why the development of the coal areas of the I. C. R. is so important to the province.

HALLOWE'EN WAS CELEBRATED BUT QUIETLY HERE

The celebration of Hallowe'en by the youth about the city was a quiet one last evening, but there was much social activity and many enjoyable gatherings were held. As compared with other years the police had a particularly easy time of it, and there were hardly any telephone calls from victims of pranks played by the boys.

Of the more public gatherings, the carnival at the Queen's rink was well attended, and many unusual costumes were worn, both among the skaters and spectators. The organization of the Automobile Social Club took the form of a Hallowe'en banquet, which was attended by about thirty persons. The winners of the prizes at the Queen's rink were: George Dupuis, cow-puncher; Charles Nickerson, Scotsman; McGregor; Miss Edna O'Leary, tambourine girl; and Miss Ellen Crawford, Indian princess.

In the Y. M. C. A., the Ladies' Auxiliary conducted a Hallowe'en tea which was much enjoyed by a large number of the members and their friends. At a banquet in the Edward Cafe last evening was formed the Automobile Social Club, composed of several of the younger car owners, drivers and dealers about the city. About thirty were present and all had a pleasant time. The motorists gathered at the offices of the Motor Sales Co., in Main street, attired in carnival costumes, and bearing large cars, made a tour about the city, afterwards going to the Edward to dine. An interesting programme was given, and a very pleasing menu enjoyed.

Unique souvenir menu cards were placed before each member on the back of which was printed the names of the members as follows: Arthur Alward, Albert Brown, Otty Benson, Guy Burrell, Harry Davis, Joseph Daley, Harry Gaynor, Robert Giddart, Gordon Gilbert, Charles Gorman, Percy Hamner, Holly Lounsbury, Charles Mahoney, Harold McGuire, Vincent McGraw, John McCall, Guy Merritt, Arthur Pitt, Perley Poor, Harold Prince, F. H. Quirt, George Saul, Archie Stout, Carl Schuman, Urban Sweeney, Stanley Taylor, Harold Thompson, William Walsh, Hugh Wetmore, B. Blakely, C. Jones and B. Moore.

The American schooner Theodore Roosevelt with a cargo of pickled fish for Gloucester went ashore yesterday about twelve miles west of Point Prim light, N. S. It was feared that she will be a total loss.

The topic at a recent banquet turned to the rising generation, when Gov. John M. Haines recalled how little Johnny rather ungraciously classified the guests of the Indian tribes.

The incident happened in a school one afternoon when the lesson was on the American Indians, and the teacher asked if any little boy or girl could tell her what the leaders of the various tribes were called.

"They are called chiefs," promptly answered a little girl in response to the question.

"Correct!" said the teacher, smiling approvingly. "Now, then, can any one of you tell me what the women of the Indian tribes are called?"

"Well, Johnny," said the teacher, "that are the women of the Indian tribes called?"

"Mink chiefs," promptly answered Johnny.

ST. LUKE'S MISSION
Last night at St. Luke's Mission, Rev. F. G. Newton took as his subject the "Doctrine of Assurance," basing his remarks on a part of the 12th verse of 2 Timothy, chapter one, "I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto him." This doctrine of assurance, he said, was set forth clearly in all the great hymns and if a man could not know that he was right with God and have full assurance of that fact, then most of these hymns were nonsense. Again the language of liturgy was the language of absolute assurance, for example, "I believe in the forgiveness of sins." "Give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness and put upon us the whole armor of light." These passages and many more like them from the prayer book, referred to an experience here and now, something of which people have definite knowledge. In the third place they had this assurance given in the Bible itself. The key word of the Epistle St. John was assurance. Paul's theology was full of this positive note, "I know and am

FOR HORSE EXPORTERS
The Department of Agriculture of Canada is in receipt of a new order issued by the Board of Agriculture in London, England, entitled "Horses, (Importation and Transit) Order of 1913." In Chapter 1 of this order it is provided that horses, asses and mules must be accompanied by a veterinary certificate of freedom from symptoms of glanders (including farcy), epizootic lymphangitis, ulcerative lymphangitis, dourine, horse-pox, sarcocystis, mange, influenza, ringworm or strangles, instead of, as at present, from symptoms of glanders (including farcy) only.

The provisions of Chapter 1 of the horses (importation and transit) order of 1912, which in effect required horses, asses or mules brought from abroad to be either accompanied by a license of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries or to be examined at a place of detention at the port of landing, are entirely withdrawn.

This order came into operation on October 1, 1913.
