LOCAL NEWS

The Millidgeville Summer Club held an enjoyable dance in the city on Tuesday evening. Miss Olivia Gregory was convener. For those who did not wish to dance, ten tables of bridge were played. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

Large crowds enjoyed the excellent ice on the South End rink last night. The music was furnished by Stewart's colored band. This was the first band night for the South End rink this year, and those in charge hope that the record crowd of last night will "come again" often during the winter.

Andrew Fraser Mitchell, who made an effort yesterday to interest the Provincial Government in a colonization scheme, said last evening that he had been promised a reply in a few days. He will leave for Moncton tonight.

The Doorkeepers' Circle of the King's Daughters met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Lively with Mrs. C. P. Sanford presiding. The circle is doing a great deal of sewing for the poor. Mrs. Sanford gave an excellent exposition of some parts of the Bible.

Officers were installed Monday evening in the Ladies' Auxiliary A. O. H. Fairville Division No. 2 in St. Rosa hall by Mrs. William Gillen, county president. The officers are: President, Miss Mary Ryan; vice-president, Miss Blanche O'Brien; recording secretary, Miss Irene Malloy; financial secretary, Miss Dorothy Barry; chaplain, Mrs. Louise Cody; treasurer, Miss Agnes Calman; sentinel, Miss Blanche Hanlon; mistress-at-arms, Miss Frances Murphy. Supper was served by Miss Ryan, Miss Malloy and Miss O'Brien. Mrs. Gillen was the guest of honor.

Reports of one of the most enjoyable Christmas parties held in the city this season were submitted at a meeting of the Seven Seas Chapter, I. O. D. E., held last evening at the residence of Miss Dorothy Lee and presided over by Miss Mildred Wilson. The chapter had entertained a party of between fifty and sixty on the Friday before New Year's Day, the party consisting of mothers of children who are receiving milk from the local Council of Women. So successful was the affair this year that it was decided to make the affair an annual one.
