One night he was exceedingly late and his wife, after fretting herself into a temper, went to bed, determined to give her husband a lesson. And down the window went with ten minutes she heard a knock. Putting her head out of the window, she said: "If that you, Tom?" "Yes, Kate, come and open the door." "What has kept you so late?" asked his wife. "We have been discussing the great benefits of fresh air," was the reply. "Well," said his better half, "you can lecture tomorrow night from experience." And down the window went with
