MAINE NOT IN IT

With New Brunswick as a

Game Centre.

Brunswick is a richer game country than Maine. Its is a veritable sportsman's paradise."

The above observation was made to the Sun's correspondent a few days ago by H. G. Rowe of Medina, Ohio.

Mr. Rowe was one of a party of six which had just returned from the which had just returned from the Tamogouaps country after a very successful caribou hunt. Mr. Rowe, Dr. F. S. Jones and T. G. Rowe were guided by George McKay, and Congressman F. O. Phillips, George Boult and William Fraser were in the hands of Bill McKay. All the members of the martly belong to McKay the McKay of the martly belong the McKay of the martly belong the McKay of t partly belong to Medina. Although there were only four days of good hunting each member of the party brought down a caribou and besides

Mr. Rowe is a newspaper man. He was formerly of the Associated Press in Maine. At present he conducts a weekly in Medina. He knows the Maine woods thoroughly and declares they are not half so reliable as those two deer were shot. Brunswick game regions are becoming better known and more appreciated every year by American sportsmen and if it had not been election year there would be less moose and caribou roaming the woods at present. Mr. Rowe does not believe the license e for outsiders should be reduced. a few days sport are quite willing pay the fee exacted at present. Mr. we paid a high tribute to the ability, nswick guides. He stated that his trip that they intend to return next season in search of moose. Mr. Rowe sot a fine moose head here last sea-
