PERFORMS THE ANCIENT CEREMONY AT ST. JAMES. His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi Washes Feet of Canons of the Cathedral.

(Montreal Gazette, 28th.) The ceremony of the Washing of the Feet was performed yesterday, Holy Thursday, at St. James cathedral, by his grace Archbishop Bruchesi, who washed the feet of the canons of the cathedral, this being in commemoration of the example of Jesus Christ, who washed the feet of His apostles.

The ceremonies at the cathedral were conducted with all the impressiveness of the Roman ritual, and at their conclusion, the altar candles were extinguished and the tabernacle was thrown open. A procession being formed the Blessed Eucharist was removed to the repository. This ceremony was performed in all the other churches, and such altars were most elaborately decorated with flowers and offered contrast to the other altars draped in the trappings of mourning, emblematical of the season of penance.

At the cathedral the following musical programme was given: Cor Jesu (solo and chorus), Perosi, Ed. Lebel; Ave Verum (solo and chorus), Th. Dubois, A. Destroismans; O Cor Amoris (chorus), Riga.

Holy Thursday, also called Maundy Thursday, from Mandatum, the first word in one of the church services of the day in the Roman Catholic church, is especially designed as a commemoration of the Last Supper, and of the institution of the Eucharist. There are several other services annexed to the day, as the solemn consecration of the oil or chrism used in baptism, confirmation, orders and extreme unction, the washing of pilgrims' feet, and the tenebrae.

On Holy Saturday takes place the solemn blessing of fire, and of the water of the baptismal font. In early times this day was set apart for the baptism of catechumens, and for the ordination of candidates for the ecclesiastical ministry. From the fire solemnly blessed tomorrow is lighted the Paschal Light, which is regarded as a symbol of Christ risen from the dead. This symbolical light is kept burning during the reading of the gospel at mass throughout the interval between Easter and Pentecost.
