NEWS FROM THE CHURCHES.

ALEXANDRIA.—Two were baptized at Alexandria on the 5th inst., and there are others who will soon follow. C. E. BAKER.
ST. ANDREWS.—I have resigned the pastorate of the churches on the St. Andrews field, and it is needless that my place remain not long unoccupied. The field offers good opportunity for faithful work. One of the country churches was much strengthened by the blessing and good connection with Bro. McDonald's visit last year. The town interest is small, but it must be remembered that St. Andrews is no longer "dying." It is growing, and is destined, I believe, during the next eight years, to grow faster than any other town in these provinces. Did I not feel that my future usefulness depended, in no small degree, upon my spending the next five years upon a more competent field, I would not think of leaving here at present. I feel that I am leaving a field that promises more to-day than ever before. Any pastor who would think the work of Canada I doubt not, obtain any needed information by addressing Rev. A. Coburn, or Bro. J. B. Bradford, clerk of St. Andrews church. C. W. WILLIAMS.
BEDFORD AND TAYLOR, P. E. I.—At the close of a three years pastorate with the above named churches, I beg to refer in the highest terms to the kindness and good will of the people generally, both in the churches and outside. The hearty welcome to their hospitable homes on all occasions, their ready sympathy and co-operation, the promptness with which they have met their engagements in the many valuable donations outside of the salary, all combine to lay under lasting obligations to them. The Lord reward them a hundred fold for all their kindness to myself and family. With few exceptions, a good degree of unanimity of feeling and action has existed between us as a pastor and people, and now that the connection is dissolved by mutual consent, may the great head of the church guide us all as shall be most for his glory and the good of his cause, is my prayer. My address till further notice will be Tryon, P. E. I. J. J. SKIFFER.
CARLETON, N. B.—Four swift and joyous months have slipped away since we entered upon our work on the field. The change was made with many misgivings which, however, our experience, in no case, has justified. Hardly a day has been permitted to pass since coming here, without bringing with it fresh proofs of the warm-heartedness and sympathetic co-operation of the people. The congregation, largely of the best, has been gradually increasing. They listen to the gospel with an earnestness and attention that is inspiring; and the promptness with which they respond to the best thought of the pulpit, is, of itself, a stimulus to the latter to call forth his highest and best. As earnest and able volunteer workers have been employing themselves for some time in house to house visitation, thereby maintaining a warm current of sympathy between the church and its individual members. The spiritual condition of the church is in a happy and hopeful state. Prayers are going up for the unconverted. We visited the baptismal waters recently, where a very promising young man put on Christ. There are more to follow. On our return from a brief visit to our home in P. E. Island and also to mark our first attempt in the line of house-to-house visitation, a large number of our people collected at our new home, giving us a most agreeable surprise. During the evening a large assortment of useful and valuable articles were presented—many of the donors bringing silversware of various kinds, including several handsome and costly pieces of plate. Among the other gifts were a beautiful China tea-set, some fine articles in crystal, and a large parlor chair. Before the company retired, Rev. C. Goodspeed, on their behalf, presented the pastor with a very kind address, to which he made a fitting response. A few weeks previous Mrs. F. was presented by the ladies of the church with a fine crayon, entitled, "Wee 'Esie," the work of Mrs. C. Goodspeed. For all these tokens of kindness and affection we are deeply grateful, and above all do we prize the kindly and sympathetic spirit that marked the gift.

New CANAAN, QUEENS CO.—Rev. E. Alward came to this place in 1886 and engaged as pastor with us, intending to remain only one year, and then return to his home in Watkins, Canada. At the end of his year the people did not seem willing for him to leave, and so he was prevailed upon to remain another year. It seemed like home to him too, as this is his native place, but his father removed to the west with him when he was but an infant, so he could have no recollections of his father's land or people, only as related to him in after years. However, after being educated for the ministry, and feeling somewhat curious to see the place of his nativity, he visited this place eighteen years ago, preaching at Butternut Ridge and New Canaan. This his first visit was in 1870. The next one, two years ago, lasted till now, and to many of our people as short as the first one. As his work here has been much appreciated by relatives and friends, as well as strangers, on the eve of his departure a small gathering took place at Bro. Benjamin Kitch's, and after partaking of a hearty repast, provided by the sisters of New Canaan church, Deacon Allen McDonald called the meeting to order, when a very kind and appreciative address was presented to the late pastor, referring to the success which had attended his labors, and wishing him Godspeed. After a response from Bro. Alward, Bro. B. N. Hughes presented a purse of money in a happy address, and the gathering dispersed. COM.

PORT LORNE AND HAMPTON, ANAPOLIS CO., N. S.—Three months have passed away since we came here to labor for the Lord. He has blessed us. We have much to be thankful for. We have as much as we can do to preach three times every Sunday, visit the families, conduct meetings nearly every night in the week and find time for study, rest & recreation, besides organizing societies of Christian workers. But we are encouraged, for we have now four Sabbath schools, three sewing circles, adding during these months, over seventy good workers to our staff. The meetings of the ladies of the Port Lorne Sewing Circle ordered a church organ from Chute, Hall & Co., Yarmouth, which was paid for in a few weeks. The spiritual condition of the churches was low, but there is growing interest, which is spreading all over the field. We are looking and praying for a refreshing season from the Lord, and it is coming. We have been holding services at Hampton, and last Lord's day we received four happy converts into church fellowship through baptism. One of the sisters, while speaking up at the altar, waved her hand and shouted, "Praise the Lord for what he has done for me." Another sister came up rejoicing, saying, "Bless the Lord, oh my soul." We believe the only way to grow in grace is to work, and truly the work is delightful, for we are workers with Jesus Christ. We find that our system of monthly missionary collections works well up to the present, and we expect to raise a good round sum by the close of the year. Our salary comes in without trouble, which is a good sign. "The more Christians do the more they want to do, and when they do but little the less they are inclined to do." Oh, ye saints! arouse! be earnest! As ye would work while ye live, Ere the night of death o'ertake you! Strive for souls while yet you may! Oct. 8th. J. W.

TRACADIE, N. S.—Last Lord's day, Oct. 3rd, it was my happy privilege to baptize a rejoicing sister in the presence of a large concourse of people. The day was fair and the scene was very impressive and we felt that the Master was near. All who assembled at the river to witness the administration of the ordinance seemed to be pervaded with solemnity for which we felt thankful. The church is greatly revived, and we hope that many more may be brought by the teaching of the Divine Spirit to see the propriety of yielding to the requirements of the gospel. "O, let our humble worship be A grateful tribute, Lord, to thee; And may these hallowed accents of love Fit us for purer joys above." D. McLEOD.

BALLIE, N. B.—On the fourth Sunday in September it was my privilege to spend a part of the day in Ballie, where I baptized three young men, and on behalf of the church extended the hand of fellowship. Bro. H. DeWolfe, Lic., from St. Stephen, has been laboring there during his summer vacation. This people speak in highest praise of our brother's earnest efforts for their spiritual good. W. C. GORCHER.

LUNenburg.—It is our pleasing duty to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of $5 from Bro. H. E. Reid, M. D. of Halifax. In Bro. March's communication of the 3rd inst., a misunderstanding of mine makes him say that our average per member for local expenses for last year was $9.30, instead of $20, the true amount. We trust that it is the shadow of a great work which the Lord is about to accomplish for us, that has fallen on the hearts of the brethren who have responded to our appeal. We are imploring ask those whom the Lord has entrusted with the means, shall we be disappointed? Oct. 12. J. W. BROWN.

St. JOHN.—Some time ago the committee in charge of the City Missions invited the Rev. A. E. Ingram to labor here, and we are glad to say that Bro. Ingram has accepted the invitation and commenced his labors on the first Sunday in October. He expressed himself as being very much pleased with the field and the prospect of the work, which just now is very interesting, as there are inquiring ones who are asking us, What must we do to be saved? The prayers of the people of God are earnestly requested for our brother and his work here in this place, and that the kingdom of our Master may be built up and precious souls saved. F. W. WILMONS, Sec'y.

NOTICES. The Ministerial Conference, Cam. Co., N. S., was postponed to the 23rd inst. at River Hebert, Oct. 23rd, at 2.30 p. m. Ministers and delegates take notice. L. W. PORTER, Sec'y. The Digby Co. Ministers Conference will meet at Freeport, on Wednesday, the 24th of Oct., at 10 a. m. Brethren who have subscriptions assigned them will be expected to present them. The chairman of the Association district will be present with plans for missionary meetings in all our churches. Westport, Oct. 10. J. H. SANDERS.

PERSONAL. Bro. M. W. Brown wishes his correspondence addressed to him at Oaslow, Col. Co., instead of to New Germany, Lun. Co., as formerly.

Marriages.

KINNEY, RICE.—At the Baptist church, Plympton, Digby Co., on the 2nd inst., by the Rev. P. R. Foster, assisted by L. A. Palmer, (Lic.) Frank W. Kinney, of Weymouth, and Laura Bell, only daughter of the late Wesley Rice, and step-daughter of Mrs. McDonald, Eq. of Plympton.

STEVENS, SETH.—At Salem, Albert Co., on the 11th inst., by Rev. W. Camp, Henry Bishop Stevens, Eq., to Miss Louisa Stevens, both of Hillsboro, N. B.

CHUTE-ALLEN.—At Hampton, on 23rd of June, by Rev. Josiah Webb, Mr. Ezekiel Chute, of Hampton, Annap. Co., N. S., and Miss Seretha Allen, of the same place.

SABER-BARDFOUR.—At Port Lorne, on 30th of Sept., Mr. Parker L. Sabar, of Port Lorne, Annap. Co., N. B., and Miss Minnie A. Bardfour, of the same place.

FANCY WALLACE.—At Lunenburg, Oct. 5th, by Rev. J. W. Brown, B. A., Mr. Obadiah Fancy, and Miss Lillian D. Wallace, both of Bridgewater, N. S.

HAWK-ALLEN.—At the residence of the bride's brother, the Range, Queens Co., on the 3rd ult., by the Rev. G. Corey, was appointed Baxter, of the Range, Queens Co., to Miss Emily Allen, of Chipman, Queens Co.

DIMOCK-SEAMAN.—At the Baptist parsonage, Oxford, on the 9th inst., by the Rev. T. M. Munroe, Mr. William R. Dimock, to Miss Hattie V. Seaman, both of Parrsboro, N. S.

Deaths.

BANKS.—At Cambridge, Mass., Joshua Banks, aged 27 years, leaving a widow and infant child. Interred at Port Lorne, Annap. Co., N. S., Oct. 6th.

COOK.—Isaac D. Cook was the son of the late Jos. Cook, of Port Lorne. He spent some time at Acadia College and then became a school teacher at Acadia Mines. Finally he became a stationer there and was appointed a justice of the peace. He early united with the Baptist church and when the church was organized at Acadia Mines became one of its deacons. While a Baptist, he was ready to help on every good cause, and was a warm and ardent friend of the Lord's people, and was an earnest leader in every movement for the progress of good morals among the people. About a year ago he decided to try a milder climate and went to Riverside in Southern California. His letters indicated that he was fast making friends in that far off country. About a fortnight before his death he indicated as health manifested themselves and a few days later he was laid aside. After lingering for some days his spirit took its flight on Monday, the 17th of September. His many friends in his native province will be glad to know that he died as he lived, in the faith of his Saviour. While waiting for the summons his voice was often uttered in praise in the words of some choice hymn. A few moments before he passed from earth he sang, "O sing to me of Heaven!" A letter addressed to the writer says, "There was something sweet and holy in his death. He passed away as a child falling asleep. There was not a sigh or a heavy breath. The only motion in any part of the body was the lifting of the eyebrows and a glad surprised look passing over his countenance while dying. The friends of the deceased church at Lunenburg like to send their acknowledgments of the kindness shown by the Christians of Riverside to their dear ones in that far-off country, and trust that He who takes notice of a cup of cold water given to a disciple will reward them abundantly in this world and that which is to come." B. F.

STILES.—At Lunenburg, on the 10th ult. Margaret, beloved wife of David Stiles, and daughter of the late Peter McFarlan, of Dorchester, leaving a sorrowing husband, four daughters and three sons to mourn their sad loss. Our sister was 44 years of age, and has been a consistent member of the Baptist church at Lunenburg since she bore with remarkable resignation, and died in the triumph of faith. May the Lord sustain our dear brother in this the greatest trial of his life.

MORSE.—Suddenly, on the 4th inst. Wentworth S. Morse, aged 70 years, leaving a wife, three sons and two daughters to mourn their loss.

GRAVES.—At the residence of her son in law, Robert A. Smith, Esq., Newcastle Creek, on the 3rd inst. Mrs. Lucinda J. Graves, in the 66th year of her age, leaving three daughters and many friends to mourn the loss of one whose life was above reproach. She being published, a funeral service was conducted and a sermon preached by the former pastor, Rev. William P. Anderson.

CLARKE.—At Brooklyn, N. Y., on the 29th of Sept., Mary, beloved wife of John Clarke, aged 86 years. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Wm. O'Brien, of Yarmouth.

HAWK.—At Grand Lake, Queens Co., September 27, George, son of William Hawk, leaving a wife and four children to mourn their loss. Services held at the Range church.

HOLMES.—Drowned, on the 26th of Sept., Capt. Angus Holmes, aged 52 years, leaving a wife and five children to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. The deceased was highly respected as a strictly moral and upright citizen, and was very useful. He stayed lashed to the wreck until he saw his men all rescued, and thanked God, then cut himself loose. He attempted to go on a spar to where the heroic mate of the steamer was in position with life preserver to get him into the life boat, but a wave struck him back. His last words were, "Receive my soul." May a kind providence comfort his sorrowing wife and five children.

CAPERS.—At Grand Lake, Queens Co., Sept. 18, Adelaide, only daughter of Howard and Mrs. Capers. Her husband was in Ontario, her and passed. Years ago she was baptized by the Rev. D. P. Harris, and united with the Range church. Our loss is her gain.

SIMPSON.—At the residence of Rev. J. L. Brown, Digby, N. S., Aug. 29th, Elizabeth Simpson, a native of England, G. B., aged 70 years.

WHITMAN.—At Arcadia, Yarmouth Co., N. S., Sept. 13th, George Whitman, beloved wife of Thomas Whitman, aged 34 years. Her end was peace.

CLEVELAND.—At Arcadia, Oct. 8th, Mrs. E. Cleveland, widow of the late E. J. Cleveland, in the 70th year of her age. She was a mother in Israel.

COX.—Mrs. Ann Cox, widow of the late E. J. Cox, departed this life October 1st, in her 74th year. Though the call came suddenly, she was ready—the lamp trimmed and brightly burning. Mrs. Cox made no display of her piety, but her life and conversation were well seasoned with grace. She was a wise and kind mother, and in her home especially, she exercised a strong Christian influence. A proof of this was her family by a former husband consorted themselves to God's service. The writer, a friend of the family, attended the funeral and preached from the words of the dying Stephen: "I see the heavens opened, &c." Such was the character of our sister. May we all enjoy it. Mrs. Cox's first husband, Captain James Coffin, passed to his reward March 3rd, 1879 aged 65 years. He was a noble Christian gentleman, and did much to build up and establish religious influences in his neighborhood. So anxious was he to have his preaching of the gospel, that his own expense, he built a beautiful meetinghouse and threw it open for the worship of God. In the Coffin family we have an illustration of the Psalmist's words: "Happy is the man that has his quiver full of them," for they were sons and daughters to gladden his parents' heart. Out of the nine children only four remain. Of the four sons, two captains, three have entered into rest. Their memory is precious. May the Comforter enable the bereaved ones to patiently wait the glad reunion. COM.

ARCHIBALD.—At Athol, Oct. 8th, Rebecca J., wife of D. F. Archibald and only child of Edward and Rebecca Baker, aged 44, leaving a husband, four small children, an aged father and mother to mourn their loss. Mrs. Archibald never made a public profession of religion, but it was evident to many, from her daily deportment, that she felt its claims, and loved the Saviour. Her cause, of which she had the satisfactory evidence in her dying hour. Her funeral was largely attended. A sermon was preached by Rev. D. McKean, from Jer. 15 and middle clause of the 9th verse. Giles J. F. Miles, J. Murray and G. B. Giles (Wesleyan) were present and took part in the solemn services. K. M.

WRIGHT.—At Fredericton, Sept. 29, in the 15th year of his age, Willie Emerson, beloved son of Zebadiah Wright. While tending the circular saw in the planing mill, a flying board indicated the fatal blow, causing rupture of the bowels, ending in death after five days of suffering. Many expressions of faith in Jesus and love to his Saviour fell from his lips, for Willie was a true believer, and our sorrowing brother and sister have strong consolation in the sudden but triumphant death of their dear boy.

WIGGINS.—At Wiggins Cove, Sept. 27th, '88, of consumption, Gilbert Wiggins, in the 56th year of his age. Mr. Wiggins, for many years was a member of the Methodist church, but took a deep interest in the Baptist church of this place, and also in the building of the house of worship. He was a Christian gentleman who was highly respected by all who knew him, and his good friends and neighbors. A funeral sermon was preached by J. W. Harris to a large congregation who sympathized with the bereaved family. Rev. D. Harris was also present and took part in the service.

LADIES.—New York Domestic paper patterns are more dressy, better fitting, and more easily put together than any others. Send 50c. in stamps and I will mail to you catalogue (16 pages) of fall and winter styles. W. H. Bell, 25 King Street, Saint John, N. B.

Tackabury's New Map of the Dominion of Canada.

The Dominion is 21 years of age—has attained its majority, speaking after the manner of men—and yet there has been no good map showing the whole country. The Dominion Government has published a map of the Dominion, but this is of little service to the business man—who requires the detail. Maps of different Provinces have appeared from time to time but no publisher has heretofore ventured to undertake the preparation of such a map as is now in the hands of Mr. Tackabury—Canada's Pioneer Map Publisher. We cannot perhaps do better than to quote the following from the Ottawa Citizen: "It has been said that the best men in every branch of business, the highest intellects, the inventive genius, are all born to their calling. Mr. G. N. Tackabury must have been born for a map publisher, and he has filled his calling well. The first really good map that was ever published of this province was Tackabury's Topographical Map of Canada West, published by R. M. & G. N. Tackabury in 1862, and it has remained the standard map of his province, notwithstanding the many changes consequent on the rapid development of the country. We might speak of Tackabury's map of the British Provinces in North America, published in 1864, and Tackabury's Atlas of the Dominion, published in 1874, but our purpose is to speak of his new commercial, railroad and postal map of the Dominion, which is now going through the press. This new map will show the entire country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, on a convenient scale, and with far greater minuteness of detail than has ever before been attempted. It is coloured by counties and to resemble, and shows all the post-offices, designating money order offices and postal savings banks, telegraph stations, lakes, streams, rivers, harbours, railroad stations. The adjacent portion of the weight-bearing map is also shown, extending as far east as the City of New York, thus showing the railroad system of the north part of the American continent. To economize room that portion west of Manitoba is placed above, thus getting the whole on a sheet 8 1/2 in. x 6 1/2 in. On the right hand corner is a small map of the Dominion, reaching from the Atlantic to the Pacific at a single stretch, showing all the provinces and territories in proper geographical position.
