There is quite a boom in the quarrying business at Wallace this season, and the output of stone promises to be much larger than in any previous year. Mr. Campbell and Fulmore and others think there is a rich deposit there, and forth with have begun to excavate under the rock seeking for hidden treasure. Hants Journal. Very few people imagine the amount of money which there is in the banking of blueberries. The people living near Hoyt and Welford have some idea, however, as about $25,000 worth of berries have been shipped from these two stations during the past season. Mr. Howard, of Gaspeaux station, forwarded 12,500 crates, while Mr. Fulmore shipped about 30,000 crates. The yield this season has not been near so great as formerly, but prices are better. If we could look up the walk of the future we would see it crossed by pneumonias, and pleurisies, and consumptions, and colding rail trains, and runaway horses, and breaking bridges, and funeral processions.
