

MAC'S
BAKING POWDER

MADE IN CANADA

Pure—Wholesome—Economical

It is used by all the large Bakers and Caterers, as well as by the best home bakers and cooks. Food products that are produced in clean factories are best.

E. W. GILLET CO. LTD.
TORONTO, ONT.

The Perfume Store

Just Received

A new stock of the latest and best New York PERFUMES and SACHETS.

We invite you to call and sample them, as they comprise the very sweetest odours.

BARDLEY'S PHARMACY,
109 Brussels St.

Just One More Week
—OF—
Special Reductions
—IN—JEWELRY
—AND—SILVERWARE

The past week's selling has made considerable difference in our stock but some excellent money-saving values still await those who will come now, as after Tuesday next we will start arranging for our spring trade and your chance to purchase at a saving will have gone.

A. Poyas,
WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER,
16 Mill Street.

Overcoats

Big Reductions in the price of all Overcoats at our new store.

15 Mill Street.

Opposite Rankins, Fraser, Fraser & Co.

TEA

TIGER

TEA

R

IS PURE

MARRIED.

Bradley-Fairweather.—On Tuesday, 10th inst., at the residence of the parents of the bride, by the Rev. G. A. Kurling, John C. G. Bradley of Richmond, Va., to Margaret Winifred, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Ernest Fairweather.

DIED.

Lawlor.—At her late residence, 253 Main street, on the 10th inst., Mrs. Margaret Lawlor, aged 59 years, leaving one daughter to mourn her sad loss.

Funeral on Thursday the 12th inst., from her late residence. Service at 2:30 p. m. Friends are invited to attend.

Blake.—On the 11th inst., at his late residence, 55 Winter St., Edward Blake.

Funeral on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

That tired feeling which many eyes experience after a few minutes of reading, is caused by a strain on the accommodation of the eye, which can only be relieved by properly fitted glasses. Our optical facilities are complete. Satisfaction guaranteed.

D. SOYANER, Optician, 38 Dock St.

ONLY SEVEN JURORS CHOSEN YESTERDAY

Judge McKeown Disallows Motion to Quash Indictment of Unlawful Assembly—New Panel Summoned

In the case of the young men alleged to be concerned in the New Year's eve riots and who were sent up for trial in the supreme court, the trial of yesterday's session was occupied in selecting a jury. When the first panel had been exhausted, only seven jurors had been secured, and an adjournment was taken until this morning, a new panel being summoned in the meantime.

Recorder Baxter K. C. appeared for the Crown and Daniel Mullin, K. C., for the defence. Mr. Mullin also appeared for the Canadian Club, Bishop Richardson, many city clergymen, and officers of various public institutions. The hall was prettily decorated, and the platform was provided with the stage effects which are always in evidence when the Women's Canadian Club are entertaining an audience.

While waiting for the speaker a business meeting was held, the reports of the secretary and treasurer for the past month being received, and adopted, and a number of names being proposed for membership.

In introducing the speaker of the afternoon, the president made one of her characteristic speeches. She had, she said, known Canon Scott for some time, and she was sure she was a young girl. She was sure she had always loved his poems as far back as she could remember.

Mr. Scott was one of Canada's most distinguished poets, and it was a great honor to have him address the club. Perhaps like the prophets of old, he had been a wanderer in the country as he ought to be, but he was growing in the estimation of his countrymen, and a great English statesman had said that his poems were a certain historic occasion.

Continuing, she spoke in glowing terms of Mr. Scott's poetry, and pointed out that it was characterized by a note of lofty Canadianism.

Canon Scott's Address.

On rising, Mr. Scott said his introduction left him at a loss for words. He said he had accepted the invitation to address the club with some trepidation, because it was reported that the trains to St. John were always late, but happily he had chosen poetry as a vehicle of expression.

Continuing the speaker said the growth of the Women's Canadian Club movement meant a great deal for the nation. The club broadened the horizons of the activities of women, and exercised an influence for good. The remedy for the materialization of national life lay in the hands of the women. Man should not be recognized as merely a provider of city entertainment for women; women should take an interest in the intellectual life of men, and become companions of men in the pursuit of knowledge.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Poetry had its roots in the very conception of man's nature. Man's body had been made for the struggle of building up his physical body through the night of history. So in his intellectual life there were traces of the previous experience of the race. The far-off emotions which stirred at the sight of the beautiful colors of a sunset, the hearing of nature's music, had their roots in the primeval experience of man.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

WOMEN HEAR CANON SCOTT

Canadian Songster Speaks on "Poetry as Vehicle of Emotion"—Has Left Impress on World's History

A very interesting lecture on the "nobility of art that dignifies and exalts men" was delivered by Rev. Canon Scott, of Quebec, before a meeting of the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon in the Keith Assembly Rooms. Mrs. E. A. Smith presided acceptably, and there was a large attendance of members of the club, and invited guests, including President Agar, of the Canadian Club, Bishop Richardson, many city clergymen, and officers of various public institutions.

The hall was prettily decorated, and the platform was provided with the stage effects which are always in evidence when the Women's Canadian Club are entertaining an audience.

While waiting for the speaker a business meeting was held, the reports of the secretary and treasurer for the past month being received, and adopted, and a number of names being proposed for membership.

In introducing the speaker of the afternoon, the president made one of her characteristic speeches. She had, she said, known Canon Scott for some time, and she was sure she was a young girl. She was sure she had always loved his poems as far back as she could remember.

Mr. Scott was one of Canada's most distinguished poets, and it was a great honor to have him address the club. Perhaps like the prophets of old, he had been a wanderer in the country as he ought to be, but he was growing in the estimation of his countrymen, and a great English statesman had said that his poems were a certain historic occasion.

Continuing, she spoke in glowing terms of Mr. Scott's poetry, and pointed out that it was characterized by a note of lofty Canadianism.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

CHIEF HUGHES HERE FROM CAMPBELLTON

Says There is No Suffering and Only Demand on Relief Committee from Certain Class—Illegal Liquor Selling

Charles H. Hughes, formerly a popular member of the local police force, but who has been chief of police in Campbellton since November, arrived in the city yesterday and will leave this morning to visit his home in Queens county, returning from there to Campbellton.

Chief Hughes brings good news from the stricken North Shore town. There is no suffering, he says, and the people have not felt the rigors of the winter to any extent as there are abundant supplies of coal. Those upon whom the fire bore most heavily were the people living in rented houses who lost their furniture and had no money to build homes for themselves. The only way to help them was to let them have the coal.

To continue those thoughts along other lines. Go into the great cities of Christian civilization, where education, refinement, wealth and culture predominate, and you will find extremes where ignorance, vice, crime, immorality and destitution of the worst and most degrading kind exist, equal to anything found in the most heathen places on the surface of the globe, without any organized effort to educate or teach them better.

Referring to police duty, Chief Hughes said there was no lawlessness and his chief trouble was to prevent the sale of liquor. Apparently he is doing good work in this line, as he has had eight cases during the two days of his engagement as chief of police, and managed to secure seven convictions.

In the case of the man Graves, who was held by the local police a few days ago on a charge of stealing, he was afterwards allowed to go, also on his instructions. Mr. Hughes said that the theft had left Campbellton being wanted by the police for illegal liquor selling and as there was no one to proceed against Graves, he was liberated, no action being taken in the direction of his return.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Red Rose Tea is so popular because "it's good tea" and because when you buy a package you have the comfortable feeling you're getting an article fully worth every cent you pay for it.

RED ROSE
TEA

"is good tea"

Prices: 30c., 35c., 40c., 50c. and 60c.

A BIBLE STUDENT
LOOKING FOR TRUTH

Japanese Writer Holds That Christian Civilization Shows No Traces of Divinity—Not Qualified to Teach Heathens

Letter II.

To continue those thoughts along other lines. Go into the great cities of Christian civilization, where education, refinement, wealth and culture predominate, and you will find extremes where ignorance, vice, crime, immorality and destitution of the worst and most degrading kind exist, equal to anything found in the most heathen places on the surface of the globe, without any organized effort to educate or teach them better.

Referring to police duty, Chief Hughes said there was no lawlessness and his chief trouble was to prevent the sale of liquor. Apparently he is doing good work in this line, as he has had eight cases during the two days of his engagement as chief of police, and managed to secure seven convictions.

In the case of the man Graves, who was held by the local police a few days ago on a charge of stealing, he was afterwards allowed to go, also on his instructions. Mr. Hughes said that the theft had left Campbellton being wanted by the police for illegal liquor selling and as there was no one to proceed against Graves, he was liberated, no action being taken in the direction of his return.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

NOVA SCOTIA CAPTAIN CAUGHT IN HURRICANE

Windsor Barkentine Malina Has Topmasts Carried Away and Sails Split in West India Blow

A passage of unusual severity was completed Monday by the Windsor, N. S. barkentine Malina, which arrived at Boston from Bonaire with a cargo of salt. Capt. Calhoun says the vessel was caught in a hurricane which blew her many miles off her course, carrying away the foremast and mainmast and damaging the step of the foremost so that the head-rigging slackened up and several sails were burst.

Reaching Bermuda the Malina was repaired at a cost of $2,500, while 2,000 bushels of salt discharged during repairs were not reloaded. Mrs. Calhoun, wife of the captain, was with him during the storm, but left the Malina at Bermuda and took passage to New York on the steamship Bermuda. The vessel sailed from Bermuda Dec. 21 and had rough weather nearly all the way to Boston.

The Malina hails from Windsor, N. S., and is owned by F. C. Lockhart of New York. She was built in 1901 at Black River, N. S.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

EDWARD TERRY MEETS BISHOP AND CLERGY

Conference Held at Royal Hotel Yesterday With View of Establishing Branch Union of Actors' Church Union

His Lordship the Bishop of Fredericton, Rev. Dr. D. C. Macdonald, Archdeacon Forsyth, Canon Seales, Rev. W. B. Sisson and Rev. E. B. Hooper had a conference at the Royal Hotel yesterday afternoon with Mr. Edward Terry, the famous English actor, and as a result of that meeting, it is probable that the Actors' Church Union will have a representative in this city.

Mr. Terry, who is a vice-president of the union, takes a very active interest in its work. The object of the union is to assist members of the theatrical profession who are in need of advice or help while among strangers, and to this end it is felt that no person is better qualified to give such assistance as a representative of the church. For years it has flourished in Great Britain and has done much good there.

It is recognized and approved by the Canadian churches, and in England, many of whom are numbered in its membership. In fact Bishop Richardson was a member of the union while rector of Trinity church, and took a very lively interest in it.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

A BIBLE STUDENT
LOOKING FOR TRUTH

Japanese Writer Holds That Christian Civilization Shows No Traces of Divinity—Not Qualified to Teach Heathens

Letter II.

To continue those thoughts along other lines. Go into the great cities of Christian civilization, where education, refinement, wealth and culture predominate, and you will find extremes where ignorance, vice, crime, immorality and destitution of the worst and most degrading kind exist, equal to anything found in the most heathen places on the surface of the globe, without any organized effort to educate or teach them better.

Referring to police duty, Chief Hughes said there was no lawlessness and his chief trouble was to prevent the sale of liquor. Apparently he is doing good work in this line, as he has had eight cases during the two days of his engagement as chief of police, and managed to secure seven convictions.

In the case of the man Graves, who was held by the local police a few days ago on a charge of stealing, he was afterwards allowed to go, also on his instructions. Mr. Hughes said that the theft had left Campbellton being wanted by the police for illegal liquor selling and as there was no one to proceed against Graves, he was liberated, no action being taken in the direction of his return.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.

OXO

We invented OXO Cubes to make the Doctor's orders easy to carry out.

OXO Cubes are just the right size for a cup of delicious Beef Tea. You do not have to worry about the measuring spoon. Just drop an OXO Cube into a cup of hot water and stir. OXO Cubes contain nourishment as well as the rich, stimulating properties of Beef. They are not only handy but also better than the best Beef Tea.

Sold in Tins containing 4 and 10 Cubes. OXO is a registered trade mark for people who prefer it in food form.

OXO
CUBES

55 Lombard St., Toronto. 25 Cornwell St., Montreal. 11 WARD STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B.

TIZ

For tender feet, chilblains, frost bites, corns and bunions, sure relief, try a package, 25c a box at the

Park Drug Store,
312 Brussels St. Phone 2298

George, with whom he was in partnership, and by one sister, who he lived. His wife died some years ago.

WEDDINGS.

Gregg—Williams.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Luke's Church yesterday morning at 9:15 by the Rev. R. P. McKim. The principals were Edith A. Williams, daughter of Hiram C. Williams, and Walter L. Gregg, of this city. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a travelling costume of velvet, broadcloth, with pink fur, and black picture hat. Her bouquet was of purple violets. The happy couple left on the Boston train for a trip to Boston, New York, and Albany. On their return they will reside at 35 Leinster street for the winter months.

LONG REACH.

Long Reach, Jan. 10.—Miss Edith Pullerton and Zella White have returned at 6:15 by the Rev. R. P. McKim. The principals were Edith A. Williams, daughter of Hiram C. Williams, and Walter L. Gregg, of this city. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a travelling costume of velvet, broadcloth, with pink fur, and black picture hat. Her bouquet was of purple violets. The happy couple left on the Boston train for a trip to Boston, New York, and Albany. On their return they will reside at 35 Leinster street for the winter months.

Continuing, he said the world takes to its heart all the true songs ever sung, and he proposed to try to outline the place of poetry in the life of nations.