SERGEANTS OF OVERSEAS UNIT ARE HONORED

Entertained by Fellow Sergeants of 55th Battalion at Sussex.

Sussex, N. B., June 17.—The sergeants of the overseas draft of the 55th New Brunswick Battalion were rendered a complimentary smoker in the sergeants' mess at Camp Sussex tonight. The officers of the regiment were present as well as civilian guests from the town. An elaborate programme was carried out and during the evening the Sussex Band rendered several selections.

Sergeant Major Ford presided and a series of toasts were honored. After refreshments had been served the toast to the King was honored. Q. M. Sergeant Richardson proposed a toast to the commanding officer and officers of the battalion. In reply Col. Kirkpatrick pointed out that the men were engaged on a serious business and he was not a temperance crank, but this conflict called for sober men and he warned the men of the battalion against the temptations, which they would meet. Major Jones referred to the men, who go overseas as the advance guard of the 55th and he felt they would uphold the honor gained by the Canadians so far in this great war. Lieutenant A. W. Gregory replied to the toast to the overseas detachment. He realized the seriousness of the business in hand and he expected the men of the 55th to uphold the honor of Canada.

There were several musical and vocal selections by members of the sergeants' mess and the gathering broke up shortly before midnight.

TY COBB REVIEWS THE LEAGUES

Tyrus Cobb, world's champion all-round ball player, in writing for the Boston Globe in a review of the outlook in the big baseball leagues has the following to say: "The Detroit club convinced of its ability to carry off this year's pennant honors, will keep a close eye on the results of the first invasion of the East by Western clubs of the American league. Of constant interest to Hugh Jennings and the rest of us is the outlook for the White Sox on their first long road jaunt. They who figure on form to prove our most dangerous rivals have not the reputation for doing their best work on the road."

WHO'S TO SUCCEED MRS. BRYAN

Who will fill the rôle of arbiter of social differences in officialdom now that Mrs. Bryan has retired to private life with her husband? Is the query given the rounds of Washington society. As the wife of the Secretary of State the ranking member of the Cabinet society second only to the wife of the President. She has been the second lady of the land.

Many troublesome episodes have fel to Mrs. Bryan since the death of Mr. Wilson. While it increased Mrs. Bryan's power it also increased her responsibilities, and not even Mr. Bryan, in his most earnest efforts on behalf of universal peace, excelled Mrs. Bryan's activities in promoting amity and good feeling among the various official set which to a degree hitherto unknown marked the capital at the advent of the democratic régime.

Mrs. Bryan's patience under any annoyance, except attack upon her husband or his policies, was imperturbable. On such occasions she made no effort to do more than smile.

CARING FOR THE WOUNDED AT THE DARDANELLES

The picture shows Australian wounded on board a native craft on their way to a hospital ship. Arrivings have been spread over the well of this little craft to protect the men from the sun. Each man is covered with a blanket and rests his head on a striped pillow.

TOWN OF MORI OCCUPIED BY ITALIAN FORCES

Udine, June 17, via Chiasso to Paris, June 18.—Italian outposts have arrived in sight of Trieste.

Rome, via Paris, June 18, (3.45 a. m.)—Continued general progress by the Italians, as the result of a number of successful actions, is reported in tonight's official statement. Sasso Di Stria and Albrego Di Falzarego, in the Costeana Valley, have been occupied, the hold of the Italians on the Montenero region has been still further strengthened, six hundred prisoners being taken there, and more headway has been made along the Isonzo, according to the statement. It adds that artillery is being used with great effect in Carnia and Gorizia.

AIR RAID.

Rome, via Paris, June 17, (10.30 p. m.)—An official communication issued by the Ministry of Marine tonight, says:

"The submarine Medusa, which had accomplished a useful and daring service of exploration, has been torpedoed by an enemy submarine. According to an Austrian official communication an officer and four men of the crew were saved and made prisoners."

"One of our dirigibles, flying over the entrenched camps of the enemy last night, let fall powerful bombs on the important railroad branch of Divaca, causing serious damage. The dirigible returned unharmed, despite a lively fire from the guns and quick-firers of the enemy."

OCCUPY TOWN OF MORI.

Verona, Italy, via Paris, June 17.—News received here from the front is to the effect that the Italians have virtually occupied the town of Mori, advancing from both the south and the east. Mori is about twenty miles from here and five miles from Rovereto.

The way between Mori and Rovereto is more difficult. Fortifications have been erected on virtually every commanding position in this district and to move forward out of Mori will necessitate the dismantling of many trenches.

Indeed, Chicago has always been considered a home team. Though bolstered by the great Eddie Collins, the team's traditional home strength and road weakness seems to have prevailed so far this season. Three-quarters of the White Sox victories that carried them into the lead after six weeks of battling were negotiated at home. There is little doubt in my mind, though, that the East is as far less formidable than it was a year ago. Then even the then trailing Yankees were possessed of such a wealth of pitching strength that almost every game was a battle to the death. They had not the offensive strength to score many runs, but it was mighty difficult to score runs against their stone wall defense. I can tell you, by a strange turn of the wheel of fortune, this year we find these same New Yorkers one of the real obstacles of the East.

Connie Mack and his men have floundered too long in the slough of despond to command particular respect. Washington, for some strange reason, seems to have lost its punch. New York and Boston, it would now appear, must shoulder the brunt of holding the Western teams in check.

The Red Sox, in spite of their pitching tribulations and possible internal dissension, are still to be reckoned a most dangerous factor—one that is more than likely at any moment to burst into such a winning streak at home as to upset the present club standings.

"I am just beginning to find myself in these new surroundings," Collins said to me a short time ago. "Years of association with Barry, Baker and McInnis created a confidence and assurance of defense that became second nature to us all. We worked in such absolute harmony that play became mechanical routine. Coming to Chicago among strange associates and

OFFICIAL REPORTS GERMANY

Berlin, June 17.—Today's official statement follows:

"Western theatre of war: "North of Belleward sections of a trench which we lost the day before yesterday were re-captured for the greater part."

"The British and French continued yesterday their attempts to break through our lines. North of La Basse canal the British overpowered by Westphalians and Saxons, after a hand-to-hand fight were forced to beat a speedy retreat into their positions. In the Lorette Hills the French demolished a trench which had been abandoned to them. South of Souchez they succeeded in penetrating into our positions, over a width of about 600 metres and obtained a foothold. Fighting still continues. At all other points they were repulsed."

"French attacks at Moulin-Touvent failed. We took five officers and 300 Frenchmen prisoners."

"In the Vosges lively battles occurred yesterday between the valleys of the Fecht and Lauch. With the exception of a small loss of territory northwest of Metzeler, we maintained all our positions. One hundred prisoners fell into our hands."

"Eastern theatre of war: Several Russian attacks were repulsed. Otherwise nothing of special importance occurred."

"Southeastern theatre: "North of Sienawa attacks by the Teutonic Allies forced the Russians to abandon their positions and retreat towards Tarnograd. The army under Gen. Von Mackensen followed in hot pursuit. Dachnow and Lubacow were taken by storm. The southern border of the Wyznia was cleared of all enemies. At Niemerow the resistance of the Russians quickly broke down, and the Niemerow and Jaworow rivers were crossed."

"The situation southeast of the Dniester is unchanged."

Cures Biliousness Prevents Bright's Disease

The Certified Statement of One Who has Proven the Efficiency of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Colin M. Kiel, Oriskany, Seneca county, Ontario, writes: "My mother and I have both used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with great satisfaction. We find that there is nothing to equal them as a prompt cure for torpid liver, biliousness and indigestion. Some years ago my mother came near to death from kidney trouble and has to be careful in preventing Bright's disease. By using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills she has been able to get up and yet accomplish good results. You are at liberty to use my letter."

This statement is endorsed by Mr. Marmaduke Cannon, Justice of the Peace, who writes: "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Mr. Colin M. Kiel and believe his statement regarding Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to be true and correct." If you are interested in this case, write to Mr. Kiel, enclosing stamp for reply, and he will verify his statement. We like to have people do this, for we are very careful to only use statements from responsible persons.

Should this case not be similar to yours, write to us for the statement of some one whose trouble was almost the same. We have thousands of letters to choose from. Or better still, get the Kidney-Liver Pills to the test right away. They will only cost you a quarter and a box lasts for some time.

As a means of expediting the action of liver, kidneys and bowels and thereby curing biliousness, indigestion, headache and kidney trouble, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills hold a unique position. By their combined action on these eliminating organs they prove effective in complicated ailments which defy ordinary treatment.
