

HON. MR. PELLETIER

WILL NOT REIRE

Postmaster General's Plain Statement at Levis.

GUEST OF HONOR AT NOTABLE FUNCTION.

"I Will Stay at My Post and Continue My Work," is His Unqualified Answer to Newspaper Rumors.

Quebec, Sept. 15.—The banquet given to Hon. L. P. Pelletier, Postmaster General, by the Mayor of Levis and the Conservatives of the county, on Saturday night was one of the most successful given a public man in this district. The banquet was attended by some 275 guests. Two of the Postmaster General's fellow cabinet members were present, Hon. Dr. Reid and Hon. J. D. Hazen. The banquet was presided over by Mayor Bernier of Levis.

Mayor Bernier in proposing the health of the guest of the evening paid him a high tribute. The reception, he said, which had been tendered to Messrs. Borden and Pelletier by the citizens of Quebec had been continued at other points until Ottawa had been reached. It was now the turn of Levis to offer a reception to the minister of the district of Quebec, and his honorable colleagues. The banquet was a desire to show their confidence in Mr. Pelletier, who had rightly won his place in the Borden cabinet, not alone by his talents, but by his past arduous work for the party.

Mr. Pelletier was in fine form and spoke in his old time vigor. He referred to his trip to Europe with the premier. He had admired Mr. Borden before he had left for Europe but his admiration had greatly increased through his association with him on the other side.

Will Not Retire.

Turning to newspaper predictions, Mr. Pelletier said some of them had been busy with his political disposition, even going so far as to prophesy his political death or resignation. Hon. Mr. Borden had refused to accept his resignation, even going so far as to offer to administer the post office department himself.

"Providence has given me a renewal of my health," said Mr. Pelletier, "and I will stay at my post and continue my work." Mr. Pelletier went on to describe the work done in the interests of his department while abroad, including his efforts to reduce the cable rates, which he said, was the beginning of more extended success. He hoped to secure a reduction in postal charges between France and Canada.

The defence of Canada and the Empire was a duty for Canada, but a plan to carry out that duty must be formulated and this the government is endeavoring to do.

The Levis Dry Dock.

"There are many in this district," said Mr. Pelletier, "who say the government is not proceeding fast enough with public works in completion for Quebec, but those who say so are really the people who have not done, or tried to do, anything for Quebec during the 15 years they held office." In regard to the dry dock he announced: "I have already said to a delegation who met from the north shore, that I was in favor of the dock being located on the north side of the St. Charles river, but added, that if the engineers refused to locate it on the site discussed, it would be at Levis, and if the cabinet decides that the dock should be built at Levis, I will not interfere. I will abide by the decision on the interests of the public and the welfare of the shipping as the question is not a partisan one."

Harbor works, the Transcontinental railway and other matters were dealt with and Mr. Pelletier concluded with an appeal for the unification of the races in Canada.

Hon. Dr. Reid, Hon. J. D. Hazen, Dr. Faquet, M.P., and A. Sevigny, M.P., responded to the toast of Canada, prepared by Hon. E. J. Flynn. The Province of Quebec brought a response from Hon. T. Chapin.

LABOR MEN PROPOSE SOME RADICAL LEGISLATION

Want Government Pensions for Widows, Deserted Wives and Wives of Prisoners.

Suggest that Grants Now Paid to Alms Houses and Similar Institutions Should be Devoted to Keeping Dependent Women and Children in their Own Homes.

Radical resolution proposed by Delegates Baneroff and Waters was carried unanimously amid cheers.

Montreal, Sept. 15.—In a resolution presented by Delegate J. J. Baneroff, of the Dominion and provincial governments will be asked to institute the necessary legal machinery for the administration of the marriage contract by any justice of the peace, magistrate or other proper officer in right of his place in the Borden governments. The executive will take action to secure an eight hour day and minimum wage of fifty cents per hour on the Quebec bridge.

Debate Hoover, of Vancouver, urged the congress to take a resolution compelling street railway companies to give their employees at least eight hours' relief in every 24 hours and not to work their men more than 16 hours on a stretch.

Debate Gibbons, Toronto, moved an amendment, substituting 12 hours for 8. On motion of Vice-president Baneroff, the question was referred to the provincial secretary of British Columbia, as such a law was already in effect in Ontario.

Radical resolution proposed by Delegates Baneroff and Waters was carried unanimously amid cheers. It provided that the federal government pass an act, to be later taken up by the provincial governments, and made adaptable to meet the conditions of their respective provinces, providing a pension for widows, deserted wives and also wives of prisoners. That the money now granted by the government to institutions with a suitable additional grant be given to mothers to enable them to stay in their own homes and keep their children with them, instead of as now separating them from one another and breaking up the homes and placing them in various institutions, according to age and rule, pay their board to their mothers instead of matrons and institutions.

The cheapest figure a child can be kept in institutions, according to reports is $12 to $15 per child. A mother with three or four children allowed $10 per child per month can bring her children up better and under more favorable humane conditions than can be done by institutions.

As a surplus of $36,000,000 is reported from Ottawa, and as many of the representatives of the captains of industry are anxious that a large portion of this surplus should be used for naval defence, why not apply a little towards the protection of motherhood and childhood and the home? The convention turned down a proposal to change the date of Labor Day. Woman's suffrage propaganda was approved and after the usual vote of thanks, congress adjourned to meet in Montreal in 1913.

Special to The Standard. Yarmouth, N. S., Sept. 14.—The worst fire that Yarmouth has had for some time took place yesterday when Sanders' machine shop on Water street was almost destroyed. The fire was first in the attic used as a pattern room. This room was full of patterns made principally of pine and very dry. There was delay in getting on the water and the fire had a good hold before effective streams were available. As the burning building was alongside the railway and it was necessary to run the hose over it, the H. & S. W. train was held about three quarters of an hour past her scheduled time.

The building was badly damaged and there was no insurance. Mr. Sanders had $2,500 in E. K. Spibney's agencies on stock and machinery, but this will not compensate for the loss of valuable patterns of many years' accumulation.

Without any warning of its approach, the black funnel-shaped cloud first appeared near Long Branch, a pleasure resort, 10 miles from this city. There were about 400 persons there and panic reigned when building after building toppled over and two massive interurban trolley cars were hurled into a ditch. A number ran into the dance hall for safety, but this building was directly in the path of the storm and was demolished. Many persons were injured in it. The wind, thunder, lightning and rain were terrific.

Hayes, the police inspector who was recently placed on trial for making a statement, alleged to be false, reflecting on Police Commissioner Waldo, was found guilty of the charges today and dismissed from the department. First deputy commissioner McKay, who presided at the trial, announced his finding shortly after noon. The statement by Hayes which led to his trial was to the effect that Waldo had contained him from raising disorderly houses without express instructions. Hayes declared himself, no longer after the murder of Herman Rosenthal the gambler, at a time when there were inquiries about to determine what the police were doing to better conditions in the tenements.

AUSTRALIAN DEFEATS AMERICAN. Sydney, N.E.W., Sept. 14.—The Australian heavyweight boxer named Sanders, outpointed Jack Sullivan, an American pugilist in a scheduled 20 round contest at the stadium here today. Sullivan was being badly punished and the police stopped the bout in the 18th round.

GYP THE BLOOD AND LEFTY LOUIE CAUGHT

Sensational Capture of Gunmen by New York Police.

THEIR WIVES SUPPLIED CLUES WHICH GOT THEM

Had Been Living in Brooklyn Since Rosenthal Murder—All Men Wanted in Famous Case Now in Toils.

New York, Sept. 14.—"Gyp" the Blood and Lefty Louie, the missing gunmen indicted as two of the actual slayers of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, were found by the police tonight living with their wives in a flat in the Brownsville section of Brooklyn. They were arrested by Deputy Police Commissioner Doherty and a squad of detectives, who brought them to police headquarters and locked them up. They will be arraigned on Monday.

The two gunmen had been occupying the flat since August 15 alone until Tuesday when they were joined by their wives, through whom clues to their whereabouts were obtained by the police. The four were sitting at tea when Deputy Commissioner Doherty and his men burst open the door of their apartments and with revolvers drawn ordered them to hold up their hands. Neither of the gunmen made any show of resistance.

"Drop your guns. You've got us," said "Gyp" calmly. "Give us a little time to get dressed, will you?" said Lefty with equal composure. Scarcely another remark was made to the police by either man until they were examined at police headquarters later by Assistant District Attorney Weiss, acting for District Attorney Sprague, to take testimony of persons who talked to Sam Scheps, a witness in the case.

The arrest of "Gyp" and "Lefty" whose real names are Harry Horowitz and Louis Rosenfeld, means that all of the seven men accused of the murder of Rosenthal, of which Charles Becker is the alleged instigator are now in custody. The capture of the two men was the fruit of unbroken surveillance of the wives and relatives of the men since their disappearance on the day of the murder, July 16. This surveillance was maintained by sixty detectives, working in relays who kept Deputy Commissioner Doherty constantly in touch with what was going on where they went. The final clue came as the result of putting together a number of conversations overheard by detectives and reported to the commissioner at different times.

Special to The Standard. Belfast, Ireland, Sept. 15.—A fierce fight was waged in the Celtic park football ground this afternoon in which sixty persons were severely injured, two of them being in a critical condition. Five of the injured are suffering from shot wounds.

The fight took place at half time in a game in the league series between the Belfast Celtic team and a team representing Linfield. The Linfields were leading by a score of 1 to 0, some Celtic supporters unfurled a green and white flag and started to parade. Linfield partisans displayed a Union Jack, immediately stones, bricks and clinkers were hurled through the air. The police were powerless. Men were seen falling bleeding in all directions. The opposing mobs, thousands strong, surged towards the playing patch where a regular battle was fought in full view of the spectators of the grand stand.

The report of a revolver being fired, a hull and many left the grounds, but the stone throwing was soon resumed and both inside and outside the grounds. More revolver shots were fired, but police reinforcements arrived and separated the mobs.

Ambulances were summoned to remove the injured lying on the field, some of whom were in a shocking state, covered with blood. Altogether 25 persons were taken to the hospitals.
