Happenings of the Week

The Greater St. John Exhibition, which was opened last Saturday night, was largely attended. Much regret was expressed at the absence of the President, Mr. A. O. Skinner, whose illness prevented him being present. Mr. C. B. Allan, vice-president of the Exhibition Association, presided, and after an eloquent address introduced the other speakers. Among those on the platform were His Honor Lieut.-Governor Wood, Mrs. James H. Frink and Miss Frink, Judge Forbes, Senator and Mrs. J. W. Daniel, Commissioner and Mrs. H. B. Schofield, Mr. C. B. Lockhart, M.P.P., and Mrs. Lockhart, Col. J. B. M. Baxter and Mrs. Baxter, Mr. R. B. Emerson and Mrs. Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. Sproul, Dr. Thomas Walker, Dr. James Christie, Hon. Robert Maxwell and many others. The exhibition with its attendant crowds has certainly been the feature of St. John's life during the present week. The sun has favored us, and altogether the days have been most enjoyable to those interested in the many pleasing features of the exhibition, to the ladies on shopping bent, or the visiting gentlemen golfers from the Maritime Provinces, who have chosen this week for a trial of their skill on our local links. Monday, Labor Day, was an ideal one for sight-seeing and taking in the various attractions provided by an energetic committee for exhibition week. The grounds were crowded with some twenty thousand happy, expectant men, women and children—all good natured and evidently pleased with the sights and sounds provided by the great spectacular exhibit. The parachute and balloon ascent was watched with intent eagerness and many sighs of relief were audible when the clever manipulator of the frail parachute regained terra-firma. But the aeroplane and its occupant was even more thrilling and as the winged thing, with its tiny occupant, eddied and circled over the buildings and grounds, all eyes were strained and various exclamations of wonder and awe were heard on every side. The clever "Japs" in their robes of oriental splendor delighted the grand stand, while the excellent display of fireworks far surpassed the expectations of the most sanguine onlooker. The beautifully lighted grounds with lights of various colors, the cannonading of the splendidly arranged fireworks scenes, the strains from our excellent bands and pleased faces, furnished an evening most gratifying to all who were interested in the Greater St. John Exhibition of 1912.

A FASHION HINT

One of the first considerations of the looking-well question, this time of the year, is the outdoor wrap. The model pictured, which combines good lines with the new loose-coat style, is made of tan covert. It measures only twenty inches in front and tapers to forty-two inches in the back, which is straight and seamless, and cut with the new extended shoulder.

The style is particularly useful, as it may be worn for ordinary evening occasions, over a delicate evening waist without much fear of crushing it. The broad collar revers extend to the waist line and the sleeves are cut three-quarter length.

Labor Day was an ideal holiday, many taking advantage of the charming weather left by boat and automobiles. Among those at the Wayside Inn, Hampton, were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tennant, Miss Tennant and Master Tennant, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Haley, Mrs. Mollison, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Harding, Mrs. Gordon Sancton, Mrs. J. F. FALL EXCURSIONS TO MONTREAL

Montreal is always a city of interest, and especially so in early autumn, when the weather is enjoyable, the many stores crowded with seasonable novelties, and the places of amusement in full swing. A visit there at this time of year cannot be otherwise than enjoyable, and with the very low rate prevailing on the Intercolonial Railway in connection with the annual Fall Excursions, the round trip can be made more cheaply than at any other time. On September 12, 13 and 14, the round trip fare from St. John will be only $12.00, tickets good for return September 30. On September 26, 27 and 28, the same rates will prevail with the return limit October 14th. Travellers from the Maritime Provinces have the choice of two of the finest through trains on the continent, the Ocean Limited and the Maritime Express, both renowned for the excellence of their sleeping and dining car service.

SUMMER COMPLAINTS KILL LITTLE ONES

At first signs of illness during the hot weather give the little ones Baby's Own Tablets, or in a few hours he may be beyond cure. These Tablets will prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to the well child and will promptly cure these troubles if they come on suddenly. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in every home where there are young children. There is no other medicine so good and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that they are absolutely safe. Mrs. Chas. Laprierre, Les Boules, Que., says—"Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine a mother can give her little ones and I always keep them in the house." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Chicago Is Making a Fight Against a Plague of "Mashers"

Campaign Starts After a Mother and a Telephone Operator Write Letters Complaining of Conditions and Asking That Evil Be Corrected.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 6.—Chicago is overrun with "mashers." No girl, no middle aged woman even, is immune from their insults and advances. The loop district is the principal scene of these moral lepers' activities, says the Record-Herald.

These decisions came after a careful investigation following the receipt of two letters by that newspaper, one from a distracted mother; the other from a telephone girl.

A careful inquiry into the basis for these two indictments against Chicago's honor revealed these facts:

The loop district is infested daily by hundreds of "mashers," who approach girl workers and women shoppers.

The "mashers' " operations are not confined to night time, but, on the contrary, women are approached on their way to and from work in broad daylight, forced to listen to insults and laughed at if they threaten to call policemen.

Fully a dozen corners are the daily loafing places of these men, a majority of whom are "runners" for disorderly cafes.

The Wilson avenue, Thirty-first street and Sixty-third street districts are favorite haunts of these "mashers" as well as the loop district.

The letters appealing for aid in protecting Chicago's womanhood read:—

"Can't something be done to rid Chicago of the brutes of men who stop young girls and even grown women in the street and insult them?

"My little girl, who is eighteen years old, and works in a doctor's office downtown, has come home crying several nights and told me of awful things strange men have said to her.

"She almost runs from the building where she works to the street car every night to escape them. I am sure she is not the only girl who is so treated daily in Chicago's downtown streets.

"I know many mothers whose daughters have to stand insult almost daily will thank you for your efforts."

The other letter reads:

"I am a telephone operator in a downtown office and would like to ask if the Record-Herald can't do something for me as well as for hundreds of other working girls of the city.

"Every day when I go to and from work I and many other girls are compelled to stand for the insults of loafers, who approach us and use foul language. They stand at the street corners and make insulting remarks and even follow girls for blocks. It is not only young snobs who do this but old ones.

"These men congregate on the street corners in broad daylight as well as at night. I have had men force their attentions upon me and walk beside me for blocks, making insulting remarks. When I would say I would call a policeman they would laugh at me."

Chicago's amusement parks, and even the city parks, were found to be congested with "mashers." A majority of these are men without visible means of support.

The "mashing" is not directed at young girls only. These men mark middle aged women as well for their prey. At the recent National Educational Association Convention school teachers made frequent complaints.

One, a middle aged woman from down State, was "approached" on a street car by a man, who grabbed her by the arm and spoke insultingly to her. She was forced to use her handbag upon his head to release herself.

The nickel theatres in the loop are particular rendezvous for "mashers." Outside these picture places crowds of these men congregate and accost girls and women entering or leaving.

MRS. TOTH IS NOT HIS MISSING WIFE

Mr. Toth Read News Item That She and Children were off to Europe—Meets them at Pier.

New York, Sept. 6.—When Mrs. Toth and and Mr. Tooth faced each other on the deck of the Hamburg-American line steamship President Lincoln as that vessel was about to leave her Hoboken pier for Bremen the other day, a most extraordinary chapter of errors reached a dramatic but not unpleasant finale.

Mr. Tooth, who came from somewhere in New Jersey and declined to tell his full name or give any other information about himself, had been awaiting the arrival of Mrs. Toth on board the President Lincoln in the belief that Mrs. Toth was his wife and that she was running away to Europe with their three children. Brought face to face with Mrs. Toth he stared at her in amazement.

"Why, you are not my wife," was all he could say.

"Well, I think not, unless you have been dead for four years, as my husband has; and you don't look like him either," retorted Mrs. Toth.

Sorrowfully and still apparently dazed by the unexpected outcome of his search Mr. Tooth turned away to resume his hunt for his missing wife and three children, while Mrs. Toth and her three children waved the shores of America good-by.

It all resulted from the loss of little Irene Toth's tin horse, Mrs. Toth, who lives at No. 355 East Seventy-sixth street, left her home with her two sons and little daughter last Thursday to go on board the steamship Kaiserin Auguste Victoria. On the way downtown little Irene Toth began to cry because she had forgotten to bring her pet tin horse.

Mrs. Toth sent the little girl back home for it and told her to come to City Hall Park and rejoin the family. Miss Irene found the tin horse and with it clasped in her arms hastened to City Hall Park, but did not find her mother until a policeman escorted her to the Hamburg-American line pier too late to go on board.

News of the affair was published and attracted the attention and aroused the suspicions of Mr. Tooth.

Rivals Her Daughter In Youthful Beauty

(From Social Register.)

A well-known society matron whose youthful beauty is so well preserved that she is regarded as her daughter's rival in this respect—though she does not pose as such—attributes her girlish complexion chiefly to two things. She says:

"I am convinced that creams, by overloading the skin and pores, tend to age the complexion. Mercolized wax has just the opposite effect. It keeps the pores clean, permitting them to breathe, and removes dead particles of cuticle which are constantly appearing and which give the complexion that faded look. Whenever my skin begins to get the least bit off-color, I go to my druggist's for an ounce of mercolized wax; I apply this nightly, like cold cream, for a week or so, washing it off mornings. This is what keeps my complexion so fresh, white and velvety.

"The absence of wrinkles and flabbiness I owe to the use of a simple face bath prepared by dissolving one ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel. This keeps the skin 'tight' and firm."
