FARM LABORERS LEAVE FOR WESTERN POINTS

Two Train Loads Take Away More than 2,500 for Harvest Work—An Orderly Lot of Men.

More than 2,500 farm laborers left on Saturday evening by the two harvesters' excursion trains bound for Winnipeg, at which point, as usual, the men will be distributed amongst different centres where the work of harvesting calls for their aid. The train leaving at 9.30 took away 872 and a second train, which left two hours later, had on board 884. At Fredericton there were picked up 185 more excursionists and at McAdam an additional 466, making a grand total of 2,506. Of this number nearly 700 came over on the Digby boat on Saturday. M. G. Murphy, D.P.A., reported to the C.P.R. authorities that the passengers were sent away without a hitch, and that there was no trouble with them at all such as has been experienced in previous years, for they were a distinctly orderly class of people. Another excursion will take place in about a fortnight's time.

PERSONAL.

H. G. Marr, of the Marr Millinery Co., and F. A. Marr, of Halifax, left Saturday night for Montreal, Toronto and New York to attend the millinery opening.

Miss Knox, principal of Haverhill College, spent Sunday in St. John, arriving by the Digby boat. Miss Knox has been visiting in Halifax and received much special attention. She leaves today for St. Andrews and will be accompanied by Mrs. Kühring.

Miss Margaret Beasley, daughter of Hon. R. G. Beasley, Halifax, is visiting Miss Ruby Lawlor, Brookville.

Mrs. T. B. and Miss M. B. of Charlottetown, South Carolina, are among the guests of Mrs. Wm. Fleming, Hazen street.

Mrs. Malcolm MacKay has left for England, where her husband is with the 104th Batt.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crosby, of 273 Main street, North End, left on Saturday evening for a short visit to Fredericton, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Percy Edgewood.

Mrs. W. G. Burrill and little daughter, Estelle, who have been visiting Mrs. Burrill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. McCafferty, King street east, have left for their home in Bangor, Me.

Miss Gladys M. Bailey and Miss Florence Gulliver, both of Gibson, N. B., are visiting Mrs. W. A. Curtis, Waterloo street.

Miss Ethel Gerow of Lynchburg, Virginia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Atchison Morrison.

Miss Robertson, secretary of the Associated Charities, left on Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Clauson, in Philadelphia.

Miss Margaret Pursley of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. G. L. Tapley, Douglas Avenue.

Rev. Charles O'Hara, C. S. R., of St. Patrick's church, Toronto, who made a ten days' retreat at St. Peter's church, has returned home. Rev. Father O'Hara is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. O'Hara, Douglas Avenue.

Mrs. George Hood of Houlton, Me., is spending a few days in the city as the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. McGlinley.

MARRIAGES.

Richard Drummond.
Newcastle, Aug. 12—Two young people of Chaplin Island Road, Miss Susanna M., daughter of Hugh Drummond and sister of three boys of the C. E. P. and Pte. Frank J. Richards of the 132nd were married by Rev. Dr. Charles W. Squires in the Methodist parsonage here last night. The bride was dressed in white. She was unattended.

Neilson-Coller.

Hampton, Aug. 12—A very pretty wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage this afternoon when Beatrice Collier of Birmingham, Eng., and Donald Stuart Neilson, of Fredericton, were united in marriage by Rev. J. F. Rowley, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride was dressed in white silk trimmed with georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The bride was attended by Mrs. J. F. Rowley, while the groom was supported by William Roberts of Little River. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Dorothy Brewster as the bride party entered the parlor, which was decorated with cut flowers. The happy couple will leave Monday for a trip to Canadian and American cities and on their return will reside on Dorchester street, St. John.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Charles D. Dunn took place on Saturday from 664 Main street, to St. Peter's church, where solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. D. J. McDougall, C. S. R.; Rev. J. H. Burgess, C. S. R., deacon; Rev. P. O'Hara, sub-deacon. Interment was made at the new Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Emily Simpson took place on Saturday from Prince street, West End. Services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Jenner, interment being in Cedar Hill cemetery.

The funeral of Miss Daisy Marguerite Barthelemy took place on Saturday from 17 Camden street. Services were conducted by Rev. Nell McLaughlin and interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Sullivan, who died in Moncton on August 11, and whose body was brought here for burial, took place on Saturday. Services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Jenner, interment being in Cedar Hill cemetery.

WHEN "GUM SHOE" FRANK WORE HEAVIER BOOTS

Another Carvell Story Which Proves that the Boy is Father of the Man—The Country School Bully of Years Ago is the Political Bully of Today.

Lakeville, Carleton County, N. B., August 11, 1916.

To the Editor of The Standard:

Sir—Your Woodstock correspondent has told the story of the silk hat. I would like to tell you another story concerning our illustrious Carvell.

The story is not a political one and is only of interest as a sidelight. True, it is a story of his boyhood days, but it is an old saying: "The boy is father to the man." I know of no one to whom this more truly applies than Frank Bradstreet Carvell.

Mr. Carvell was born hard by here, grew up among us and went to our public school. He was a stout, lusty, vigorous boy, large for his age and exceedingly muscular. Very early he realized these facts and some of us, his schoolmates, realized other characteristics. He was never chivalrous, always coarse, rough and smacking of the bully. His people were in very comfortable circumstances. He was kept in school longer than other boys of his age and was soon "the big boy" of the school. As soon as he realized he was "the big boy" he began to develop the bulldozing characteristics which have marked his public career in his manhood days.

As stated, his people were in comfortable circumstances. In those days the greater number of the children went barefoot to school; but Frank's parents were able to keep him shod. Being "the big boy" of the school he felt he could do about as he pleased, and one of the things that he found a very pleasing form of amusement was stepping on the feet of smaller boys, who were barefoot. He continued this practice, taking particular delight in the tears of the smaller boy, until one day, a boy of his own size and weight appeared in the school. The first day he was there, he caught the joker practising his special sport. Being of a different type, he pulled off his coat, went into the bully and gave him the finest trimming a boy ever got, proving Frank, as all bullies are, a coward.

The years went by. Carvell was running an election. He called upon one of these boys upon whose feet he had frequently trod, soliciting his franchise, and was promptly refused. He expressed his surprise, as his people were all Liberals. But the answer he got was: "Frank, shall I take off my boots and show you the prints of the nails of your boots upon my feet? They are still there, and I will not vote for you."

Wherever he has dared, Carvell has been stepping on people's toes, and has delighted in inflicting pain. Never in all his history has he been known to do a chivalrous act. If the spirits of Drysdale, Appleby and other old-time Liberals, now passed away, could speak, they would tell how he walked rough-shod over them: friend and foe, it has been all the same when he served his purpose. Would that all the people of New Brunswick could hear Henry McCain, of Florenceville, tell his tale of woe, of how his toes were trodden upon in the South African war. With McCain it was a case of—falling out, when honest men got their dues. Poor old McCain's toes were badly lacerated and for several years were running sores, which Henry never lost an opportunity to exhibit, but they are healed now, and I wonder how many dollars were mixed with the salve which healed them. They are healed, but the scars are still there.

Up in Ottawa, he stepped on the toes of Dr. Edwards. The Doctor quickly invited him to step outside of the privileges of Parliament, where he is specially protected; and it is said that for weeks he dodged out side doors and down alleys, performing all sorts of stunts to avoid meeting the worthy Doctor, who was ready to punch him as thoroughly as his schoolmate did years ago. He undertook to tread upon the toes of the Grand Trunk Pacific. He threatened to resign if it did not come down the Valley. He made a speech against the cross country route; but Laurier doubled up his fist and Frankie cowed, and, like a little man, voted with his party. He undertook to put it over B. Frank Smith, but he has found Smith a tough nut to crack. Smith has chased him pretty well out of the public life of the county. He would have had him out long ago, but Carvell had too many friends with long purses. There were too many returning officers who were "blind in one eye, and couldn't see out of the other."

Every rule of the game, from start to finish, was violated by the mob who supported him, and, protected by two governments, he has not yet got his knock-out, but it's at hand. Carleton County is done with the man, who, on the floors of the House of Commons, insulted and slandered the Brighton Engineers, a company of men who have made their names famous on the battlefields of Europe.

I could overlook in a degree his statements made in the heat of debate concerning our splendid boys, if he had the decency to apologize for his slanders; but not one word of apology, not one word of regret, has fallen from his lips. They may not have been angry, few of us are; whatever may have been the faults of some of our boys, they have redeemed themselves, some of them with their own blood, all of them by their sacrifice, while this ex-captain of militia played the coward; true, he offered his services, but we of Carleton County don't want him to think that we are unmindful of the fact that his offer was made under conditions that no self-respecting Minister of War could accept. Why did he not say to Sir Sam, "Here am I, send me;" without conditions or requirements, as did the noble men of the Brighton Engineers.

But there, what's the use of wasting words? We are waiting, just waiting, for election day.

Paper for the Red Cross.

People saving paper for the Red Cross will please notify Miss Frances Stetson, Mount Pleasant, and the packages, if left on the door-step Tuesday morning will be called for. Bags for the collection of waste paper can be obtained at the Red Cross Depot. This conservation of paper is both a duty and a pleasure for it prevents waste and adds to Red Cross funds.

Fell Through Skylight.

The boy Murray McIntyre, who fell through a skylight above A. A. Powers' barber shop in Germain street, on Saturday morning, while engaged in carrying goods from Hecker's drug store, and was taken to the General Public Hospital, for treatment, is progressing favorably. It was stated early this morning by the hospital authorities that he is suffering principally from shock to the system, but his condition is not regarded as serious. His injuries include cuts about the head and back and an arm was also rather badly hurt.

DECORATION DAY OF THE 'PRENTICE BOYS

Graves of Deceased Members Visited by Comrades Yesterday—Large Number Attend Ceremony.

The Prentice Boys turned out in large numbers yesterday afternoon when the annual decoration of the graves of deceased members took place. About three hundred were present, John Carson acting as marshal assisted by Harry Sellen. Representatives of the following lodges were on hand: King Edward No. 30, Maple Leaf No. 40, Lorneville No. 34, and Grand Bay No. 51. An absent member much missed was Frank Thomas who has given his life on the field of battle.

The graves decorated numbered about twenty, most of which are at Cedar Hill. These latter include the resting places of George Cameron, William Rolston, Robert Currie, George Campbell, Israel Patchell, Leonard Smith, Harry Nice, James Munday, Charles McGlin, Fred, Carvell and William Davis. Representatives were present at each of the cemeteries where lie the bodies of comrades. Bunches of flowers were placed on each grave after a circle had been formed around it by the members, one of whom read the short service of the P. A. P. B.

The scene on these annual occasions is always impressive and the proceedings yesterday were marked by much earnest feeling. The Temple band headed the procession from the headquarters of Maple Leaf Lodge at Fairville to Cedar Hill cemetery.
