

Social Notes of the Week

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, April 12.—The long expected variety show and musical given by the I. O. O. F. was put on Thursday and Friday evenings and was played to packed houses. From the moment the curtain went up until it fell at the finale one and all were most enthusiastic, apparently enjoying every moment of the performance.

Fredericton has always been noted for its pretty girls, and certainly this fact was verified during the specialties. "Flowerland" was first presented and it made one long just to stay by the flowers always. Miss Phyllis Lister was the soloist, and sang very prettily. Then came the "Good Old Fashioned Wife" and "The Little Old Lady" and the dear little old-fashioned wives were very sweet with their hooped skirts and little pants, and the pretty little girls falling over their ears made them indeed types of "ye olden days." Mrs. Nell MacCum was the soloist in this specialty, and was very quaint and attractive in her part. "Loveless" Miss Eva Bower sang, and was in very good voice; then came all the models, the bride's trousseau represented by different young ladies. Miss Dorothy Thompson presented the negligee; Miss Marion Crockett the morning costume; Miss Dora Thompson, the sport suit; Miss Jean Rodge, the afternoon street suit; Miss Kathleen Taylor the riding habit; Miss Mary O'Neill, the afternoon gown; Miss Pauline McLeod, the evening gown; and Miss Helen Richardson, the bathing suit. Then came the bride, who was Miss Jean VanBuskirk, her maid of honor and her twelve bridesmaids, all of whom looked very pretty in their white gowns and pretty hats (which by the way had all been loaned by the generosity of Miss Morgan). After this specialty, the "Aviation" dance and song was given which was most attractive. Miss Mary Penney dressed like an aviator, all ready for service, sang and was most winsome, asking all to come along for a swing with her, the wings being supported by ropes and "browsers" as she didged about in her green costume she was most attractive. Then came eight other girls dressed in white suits, leggins and caps, and capes lined with red. They danced and sang, and they carried on a pantomime about the woodland scene, which was very pretty. The minstrel show followed and was a scream from beginning to end. Mrs. Montgomery was especially good, singing "Ma Curly Headed Baby." Mrs. Neill MacCum was particularly funny both in appearance and manner, when she sang "Mammy's Little Coal Black Rose." Mrs. Eva Brewer sang "Kentucky Babe" like a real Southern and was assisted by the chorus. Dr. Dakin's whose singing is always such a treat, was no less a favorite singing in the minstrel, and took his part admirably all through the show. Mr. Fred Rogers sang "Then Come Along With Me," assisted by Miss Bower and company. It was very bright and made everybody sing as he went along. Mr. Dave Staples was a scream singing "They All Go Wild About Me," all of the girls joining in the chorus with him. The evening was a great success, dispelling the "blues" from anyone who was with them, and too much credit cannot be given by the young ladies who worked to make it a success, and all the gentlemen who assisted them.

Judge and Mrs. T. S. G. Armstrong, of St. John, were guests in the city this week. Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. C. H. Hetherington, of Codys, and Mrs. King, of Chipman, were here this week with their husbands. Mr. James MacMurray and Mr. J. M. Robinson, of St. John, were guests at the Barker House for a few days this week. Mrs. Stophard is visiting her sister, Mrs. Binney, in Moncton this week. At the Governor's reception this week he was attended by his private secretary, Mr. R. T. Barker. Mrs. Gilmour Brown received with Mrs. Pugsley, who looked very pretty in a gown of midnight blue. The tea room was decorated with yellow flowers and pretty yellow shades were on the lighted candles. Mrs. J. Roy Campbell and Mrs. J. N. Barry presided at the table, and were assisted by Misses Valice Steves, Vera Jorrie Murray, Captain and Mrs. Theodore R. MacNally entertained at a merry little dinner party eleven. Among the guests were Lord and Lady Ashburnham, Col. and Mrs. W. J. Osborne, Dr. Harry and McNally, Mrs. H. G. Clarke, Mrs. Warren and Mrs. James MacNally.

Another state dinner was given by His Honor and Mrs. Pugsley on Tuesday evening of this week.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, who has been Mrs. Pugsley's guest, returns home on Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Pugsley.

Lady Ashburnham was at home to a large number of her friends on last Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Pugsley and some of the members wives. The Countess received in an old gold Georgette crepe gown, looking particularly well. In the drawing room there were small vases of yellow daffodils, and in the tea room the color scheme was red. The tea table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth. In the centre was a large cut glass vase filled with red carnations.

time. Mrs. Albert Gregory presided over this table. Mrs. Harry Chestnut presided over the salads, and Mrs. H. G. Ketchum cut the loaves. The bright young ladies assisting with refreshments were Misses Molly and Rita Barry, Hilda Gregory, Helen Richardson and Grace Winslow. Among some of the ladies invited were Mrs. Pugsley, Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, Mrs. J. H. Barry, Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. O. S. Crockett, Mrs. Pierce Crockett, Mrs. Godenrath, Misses Steves, Miss Helen Hudson, Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mr. G. N. C. Hawkins, Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. W. J. Scott, Mrs. H. F. McLeod, Mrs. R. H. McGrath, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. A. J. Thompson, Mrs. J. Fraser Winslow, Mrs. Waycott, Mrs. Harold Babbitt, Mrs. Arthur Gibson, Miss Katherine Lynch, Miss Mattie McLaughlin and Mrs. Leo Babbitt.

Mrs. Allen Grimmer entertained at two tables of bridge on Saturday afternoon, and invited some friends in at the tea hour.

Mrs. Fred Magee presided at the dainty arranged table which was laid in the lower dining room.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Harry Chestnut was hostess at bridge in honor of some of the visitors.

Colonel Osborne, A. D. C. to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, and Mrs. Osborne were hosts at a very delightful dinner party in honor of the Governor and Mrs. Pugsley. Covers were laid for fifteen. The drawing and dining rooms were artistically decorated with shaded lights and presented a most attractive appearance. Those who enjoyed Col. and Mrs. Osborne's hospitality were His Honor the Governor and Mrs. Pugsley, Judge and Mrs. Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. C. Hawkins, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Crockett, Dr. and Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Gilmour Brown, Mrs. Ketchum and Mr. R. T. Barker, private secretary to His Honor.

Judge and Mrs. Crockett were at home Sunday afternoon at the tea hour in honor of the Governor and Mrs. Pugsley.

Mrs. Oswald Crockett entertained last Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Pierce Crockett, who was her guest for a few days. Three tables of bridge were played. During the evening Mrs. Pierce Crockett sang for the ladies, which was much appreciated by all present.

Mrs. Roy Campbell (who is staying here during the session with her husband) made a very pleasing hostess last Saturday evening, when she entertained at dinner twelve ladies. After dinner bridge was enjoyed.

Mrs. W. E. Foster (wife of Premier Foster) is to hold a reception on Friday at the Queen Hotel.

HAMPTON

Hampton, April 12.—An enjoyable function of last week was the parlor recital given on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Flewelling by Miss Mauda Shipp of Woodstock. The spacious drawing rooms were lavishly decorated with potted plants and Miss Shipp by her varied selections rendered in a pleasing manner, delighted the audience. Miss Shipp was ably assisted in her programme by a soloist, Miss Eva Howard and a male quartette consisting of Messrs. S. Flewelling, R. G. Flewelling, M. Dunn and E. Fowler.

Rev. A. C. Wilson, Fredericton, was a visitor in Hampton on Tuesday and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. DeLong.

On Saturday afternoon the senior boys of the Hampton C.E.T. Club went to St. John and engaged in a friendly basketball match with the Loyalist class of the Y.M.C.A. The visitors were defeated with a score of 24-12.

The Hampton boys taking part in the game were A. Schofield, D. Humphrey, A. McGowan, J. Roy Chipman, J. Angovine, and Sydney Chipman. After the game the St. John boys entertained the visiting team at supper.

Mrs. J. E. Irvine left on Tuesday for Montreal where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Schofield.

Miss Katherine Robinson has returned to her home after spending the winter in St. John.

Mrs. Susie Black, Halifax, has arrived from Halifax to spend some time with Mrs. S. S. King.

ATTENTION! Sick Women

To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all run down and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without results, so decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I am keeping house since last April and doing all my housework, where before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine a woman can take when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. E. R. CHURCHILL, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

Lowell, Mich.—"I suffered from cramps and dragging down pains, was irregular and had female weakness and displacement. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which gave me relief at once and restored my health. I should like to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies to all suffering women who are troubled in a similar way."—Mrs. ELISE HARRIS, R. No. 6, Box 63, Lowell, Mich.

"Come What May They Will Not Break Through"

The present struggle on the Western front is known to the German people as "The Kaiser's Battle," according to the Washington Herald, and for this reason the higher powers realize that "it would hardly do to allow the Kaiser's name to be associated with a colossal military failure—as it would be if the present struggle were allowed to rest where it now stands." And so German legions desperately fight on in the hope of winning a decision. That their hopes are futile is the firm conviction of the Allied armies as evidenced by Premier Clemenceau's assertion that "come what may they will not break through," and the assurance of General Foch that "most glorious hopes are permissible." To these assurances is added the statement of Lloyd George that "the French and British are buoyed by the knowledge that the great Republic of the West will neglect no effort which can hasten its troops and ships to Europe."

Read in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week—April 13th issue—a sweeping review of the great struggle raging on the Western front, showing it from every angle.

Refute Idle Rumors With Facts from "The Digest"

These are days of rumors and reports that grow up overnight and unsettle the minds of patriotic citizens. Most of them are wholly false, many are due to enemy propaganda. The more alarming they are the more likely it is that their origin and purpose are Teutonic. To combat these stories of ships torpedoed and regiments destroyed you have only to know the facts, for truth, now as ever, is mighty and will prevail. To get these facts in concise and instantly accessible form, presented with out bias or partisanship, with no attempt to magnify or minimize the truth, you have merely to read THE LITERARY DIGEST. This greatest of news-weeklies keeps you accurately informed on all world events of interest in the fields of politics, art, literature, science, religion, social service, etc. It saves you the labor of reading a host of newspapers and magazines, giving you the cream of their contents in a concise form.
