POOR DOCUMENT

The serve as a far part

London, Feb. 3 .- The body of the late Queen Victoria has been protected by at Windsor since it was deposited there resterday. The officials of the roya cusehold at Windsor Castle visited the chapel today, as well as a number of The interment at Frogmore to morow will be at 3 o'clock p.

borses which will rehearse in the morning

The guard of honor will be the late

Queen's company of the Grenadier Guards

the regimental band accompanying the

The coffin will be convey ed on a gun carriage drawn by artillery

nen in the Albert Memorial Chapel

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N.B., FEBRUARY 6, 1901.

NEWS OF THE WORLD. THE HAPPENINGS OF THE friends and admired the great display of WEEK IN BRIEF. Despatches from points of Interest in different parts of the World-Domestic and Foreign events-The Dark and Sunny Side of Life.

s not injected.

page sea Sued. Such IT page sea Sued. SunH IT with this usin the sea substantial sates 'arganut supports out to the -puodestica using using a page start of the -puodestica using using a support Berlin, Jan. 31--The municipality yester-day paid to Orez & Co., bankers, about $2,600,000 for the purchase of the Siemens-Hulde a shorting transays, the most im-Halske electric tramways, the most important in Berlin.

Vienna, Jan. 31.-The Klinische Wochen schrift ascribes to a physician named Jaz the discovery of an anti-enteric serum; which has been applied successfully in 50 cases. The patient drinks the serum. It

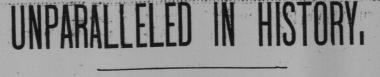

Berlin, Jan. 31.-The British ambassa Berin, Jan. 31.—Ine Brutsh ambassa-dör here, Sir Frederick C. Lascelles, has suddenly gone to England in obedience to a telegraphic order. It is believed here that the ambassador's departure has poli-

Cardiff, Feb: 3:-A Cardiff workman has been attacked by a disease which is diag-nosed as the bubonic plague. Havana, Feb. 3.-The military govern-ment will demand a cash bond from C. F. W. Neely, the alleged defaulter. What ment will demand a cash bond from C. F. W. Neely, the alleged defaulter. What the amount will be had not been stated, as Neely's lawyer absolutely refused to deposit cash, fearing that it would be seized and the government does not care to show its hand by regulating the amount of bail until forced to do so. The charges will aggregate an embezzlement of over $100,-000.

Bangor, Me., Feb. 2—Patrick Cassidy, of Houlton, is in Bangor in jail, charged with smuggling cats over the boundary from New Brunswick into Maine. He was arrested by United States Deputy Marshal Norton, in Patten, and brought to Bangor where, be-fore Commissioner Hamilin he, was held in $300 for the United States district court. He was committed in default of bail. This is Cassidy's second offence, and it is the sec-ond arrest within a few days for smuggling on the Arcostock border. Washington Ech. 1—A netition was fraudulent entry of Chinese into the Oni-ted States. The shipping bill was kept steadily at the front in the senate. A spirited discussion was precipitated by an smoother to ffered by Mr. Clay, of Many Royalties in Mourning Line-The Scene Described As the Royal Dead Was Borne to Windsor-Incidents of the Day.

gave builliant coloring to the scene. The chief mourner himself, with his field marshal's uniform, surounded by his corps, helped to leaven the symbols of mourning

Never in English history has a sovereign been borne to the grave attended by so many distinguished mourners. The gathering of crowned heads far surpassed those who rode in the jubilee procession, and all

The people fought for hours for a glimpse of the coffin and the kings and others following it. They saw a long proession of soldiers, a passing show of daz-ling regalia, with a hundred royalties

Europe has seen grander royal funerals ears of reign, but no episode in the Vic-marking the coute.

their wearers are lionized.

The hospitals cared for 1,300 persons who were injured in the crowd. Of this number, however, only 60 were seriously The Archibishop of York, the Bishop of hurt, including several policemen and Winchester and the Dean of Windsor will soldiers and a number of women suffering from broken limbs.

> the great officers of state participated. The display of the naval and military forces reached the great total of 35,000 Already the political phases of the oc-casion are being discussed. The remark-able predominance of Germans and German influence is noteworthy. Emperor William's officers, soldiers and sailors were more conspicuous in all the ceremonies than were those of all the other nations together. This has had the effect of popularizing Germany with the people, who re-cently regarded her as their most menac-crowding after them and then dispersed, while all the church chimes of the city ing enemy. It is evident that Englishmen realize that King Edward's reign begins were ringing and muffled dirges were playconfronted by a commercial crisis and political dangers which give a shadow of anxiety to their mourning for the Queen. than the Queen's and had a more gorge-ous spectacle in the celebration of her 60 torian era will live so deeply impressed on the memories of those who witnessed it or participated in the ceremonies. The day

Horses Nearly Cause Sad Disaster.

Tonight the Queen's body lies in the Albert chapel at Windsor, guarded faiththat the ambeasedor's departure has poli-tical significance. Madrid, Jan.J—There were stormy scene at the first performance of Electra, by Aca which was a violent oilburst against cler-generative at the scatter at prisesentatives. The charges are made by Geo. D. Gear of Hawaii, who which was a violent statismet there services and the white samples which was a violent statismet at prisesentatives. The charges are endly he stort himself through the temple with a revolver. He leaves a widow and passed the through the temple with a view to preventing the steadily at the front in the senance the steadily at the front in the senance the vieted men in the Besseniter murder case. Normandy and the Charge service, King Edward and the are vieted service. King Edward and the are vieted service the service the function was a specified to the origination of the steadily at the front in the senance the steadily at the front in the senance the vieted men in the Besseniter murder case. The special privates and the careful to make the service the special privates and the careful to make the the privates and the careful to make the through the temple with a view to preventing the special private the special the special to the function was a specified to the offer the function was a transe of the senance the special privates prescribed relating to the regin the with beautiful effect. The flip inter with senantic and pathetic interest. The shippen the special privates prescribed relating to the regin the with senantic and pathetic meres struggle in the transe and the careful to make the special to make the special to make the special to the the special to make the special to the the the special to the the the special the the the the thread the the thread the th fully, awaiting the last rites. Within, the castle is brilliantly lighted. Three kings

The music of the bands playing could be heard, first faintly and their nearer and nearer until the majestic roll of the funeral march penetrated every corner of the chapel. For 15 minutes the congregation miforms were covered with long dark loaks. Then came a group of magnifi-ently attired horsemen with sparkling ets and coats, mounted on beautiful thargers. Enormous crowds waited the passage of the contege before Buckingham Palace, the the contege before Buckingham Palace, the I Am the Resurrection was suns I Am the Resurrection was suns istened to the military bands outside. At Tords in waiting and physicians. All the tribute. At the junction of the Mall and Marl-borough House the cortege was viewed by unst and Woolwich and members of the lonse of Lords and House of Commons Piceadilly the b adiers carried the coffin. Walking together, came the King, Em-peror William and the Duke of Con-naught. Behind them were the King of the Belgians, the King of Greece and the King of Portugal and after them came the royal princes, who filled the chancel and aisle and whose suites crowded into the mye ocupied special stands. At the bottom of Piceadilly the boys of the training ship vitania were stationed.

For an hour before the arrival of the nave. The evening dress, entered with the procession and sat in the corner near the master of ceremonies. The choir having passed to their positions in the costumes, the ambassadors, minister and representatives of every civilized country on the globe. Mingled with the

and the diplomats followed suit

the highest officers of the crown. All were engaged in the work prepartory to the departure for Windsor. Among them, directly before the coffin. On his left was the Bishop of Winchester, c'ad in scarlet robes, who read the regular lesson for the dead. The Duke of Cambridge had to be conspicuous because of the absence of adhelped to a stall, being unable to stand any longer. As the benediction was pro-nounced the King and all present bent ent, was the American ambassador. After the departure of the ambassadors a small company was admitted to the sta-tion and hurried across to the opposite their heads low.

An impressive fea was the pro platform where the royal train was in waitnouncement by the king-at-arms of the titles of the deceased. Standing before ing. It was precisely 12.20 p. m. when the Standing before guards lining the platform came to a sharp the altar he went through the old formula, ending up with "God Save the King," de-livered so forcefully and dramatically that "attention" and with solemn tread the head of the procession entered the buildin.g For half an hour all was hushed save the occasional clatter of horses hoofs his hearers started, stung into a realization of the change of regime which had so as the Hussars and Lancers trotted into view of the rattle of the heavy gun car-riages as they lumbered by. Then there suddenly come about. At 4 o'clock the service was over. The was a break in the procession and through the archway came the royal bier, followed Archbishop of Canterbury buried his on the altar and prayed and the kings and princes passed to the left of the altar, leaving the coffin and the catafalque, and by the mounted representatives of royalty. passing into the castle

KNOW THYSELFI The Science of Life, or Self Preservation

t Medical Book for Every Man mbossed cloth, full gilt, elegan tion, ONLY $1.00. In paper c ONLY25c. Get gs, 125 prescription and the late Queen's pipers, following. A memorial service was held this morn ing in St. George's chapel, attended by King Edward, Qceen Alexandra, the victed men in the Besschieter murder case, who was yesterday taken to state prison, died today at his home in this city. Mr. Kerr was a stron gand robust man up to the time of his son's arrest. His health began to fail soon after the arrest and for a week past his life has been despaired of. Bombay, Feb. 1-Reports have arrived here of a sanguinary battle near Koweit, an the 'Persian Gulf, between the Sheikhs cf/Koweit, and Binrashid, who calls himself King of Anabia. Binrashid had 2,000 men, partially armed with rifles, while the Sheikhs had 10,000, all mounted and armed. Binrashid marched on Koweit and the Sheikhs advanced to meet Jim. The battle, which was fought by night, betted from senset until dawn. Binrashid Jim. The battle, which was fought by night, lasted from sunset until dawn. Binrashid charged repeatedly, but he was completely routed by the Sheikhs. Topeka, Kas. Feb. 1-Mrs. Carrie Nation

Topeka, Kas., Feb. L-Mrs. Carrie Nation today sent a personal letter to all saloon keepers in Topeka, warning them to stop their business. It was addressed to "My Dear Hell-bound Sinners." Mrs. Nation suggested in the letter that the joint keepers appoint a place of meeting with her in which the situation could be carefully convased.

carefully canvassed. of

St. Petersburg, Feb. 2-A man named Pav-loff, who had been condemned to banishment to the Archangel Government, yesterday fired twice at General Masloff, the chief of fired twice at General, Maston, use chief of direction of military sentences. The general, however, escaped uninjured. Pavloff has been hefe on two weeks' leave, visiting his invalid mother. He had unsuc-cessfully tried to persuade General Masloff to procure a mitigation of his sentence. imitation.

to procure a mitigation of his sentence. Bangor, Feb. 2-Saturday forencon, John R. Inman, doing a retail grocery business in Orono, made an assignment to George E. Thompson. The amount of assets and liabil-lities is not stated. Mr. Inman has been do-ing a good business, but the cause of his failure dates back to the failure of the Ban-gor Pulp & Paper Company, through which he lost several thousand dollars. It is thought that a gampromise can be made and that he can conlinue in business. Plattsburg, N. Y., Feb. 2-Edouard Gado-

Plattsburg, N. Y., Feb. 2-Edouard Gadofrom an invalid chair into a grate fire Plattsburg, N. Y., Feb. 2-Edouard Gadona, of Elizabeth street, Montreal, who was arrested by United States officers on January 22, near Chaplain, N. Y., charged with smuggling four Chinamen into the United States commissioner Woodward. The principal witness today was Thomas Stapleton, railway, agent and United States consul at Coteau, P. Q., who saw Gadona purchase five tickets for himself and the four Chinamen from Coteau, P. Q., to Henrysburg, P. Q., over the Canada Atlantic railway. Gadona was held for the United States grand jury which meets at Albany, N. Y., February 12. His bail was fixed at $800. and when found his bathrobe was in flames nd his head rested in the hot embers. His face and upper portion of his body had been shockingly burned and he died within five minutes, notwithstanding that several physicians were promptly summoned. Dr. Griggs was a native of Pomfret, Conn., and graduated from Brown University.

Berlin, Jan. 31 .- According to the Ber liner Post eight new German warships will be completed and placed in commission this year, including the battleship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, with a displacement of 11,152 tons, the twin vessels Kaiser Barbarossa and Kaiser Karl der Grosse, theoremiser Prinz Heinrich with a displace ment of 8,881 tons and four small cruisers, the Thetis, Ariadne, Medusa and Amazone, each of 2.660 tons. Five battleships, due aimored cruiser and one gunboat are being built, and two battleships, one armored cruiser and three protected cruisers will be p'aced under contract during the pres-

Pekin, Feb. 2-A number of Chinese res Pekin, Feb. 2-A number of Chinese resi-dents have presented Gen. Ohaffee with sev-eral umbrellas. Through an interpreter their spokesman seid the presentation was made en account of the Chinese regard for General Chaffee personally and for the troops under his command. They wished, the speaker as-serted, that others had been as considerate. The Obitiese had watched with great inter-cest the Ohristianity and civilization of the western powers:

set the Christianity and civilization of the "During the past few months," the speak-er continued, "the Chi-Li province has seen looting, outrages, vandalism, murder, butch-ery and unnecessary executions for the pur-pose of exterminating and spoilation, though the world recognizes China's right to retain her own customs and her own religion as at least equal and perhaps superior to those of foreigners."

Havre, Feb. 2-The French torpedo boat, No. 24, sark last evening, within a mile of the harbor as the result of a boiler explo-sion. All the crew were lost with the exsion. All the crew were lost with the ex-ception of two. 'San Juan, De Porto Rico, Feb. 1.-The San Juay, he Forto Rico, Feb. 1.—The Porto Rivan as sombly adjourned today. River Point, R. I., Feb. 1.—Edward Murphy, a road house musician, and Maggie West, committed, suicide in a Jericho saloon this attenoon, by taking catholic acid. afternoon, by taking carbolic adid. Managua, Nic, via Gaiveston, Fair durituriere is no truth in the report that the Stearaduan troops controled Costa Rich and Captured Ta groups to the francisk. On the control, Nic-arcous to the francisk. On the control, Nic-arcous to the francisk. On the control, Nic-arcous a bada Gasta Rich are at pencent:

1 9

Georgia, proposing to link the Nicaragua canal bill with the shipping bill. The Kaiser Will Leave Tuesday. proposition was strongly opposed by 'Ir Emperor William will leave Windsor Frye and Mr. Chandler.

Frye and Mr. Chandler. Somersworth, N. H., Feb. 2-County Atty, W. S. Mathews, cf York county, Maine, as-sisted by Deputy Sheriffs Miles and Spencer, today completed the work of arranging the evidence which he will present in the Su-preme court at Saco next week at the trial of Edwin H. Knight, for the murder of Mrs. Annie Sprague at South Berwick, last May. Mr. Matthew expressed himself as confident that he will have sufficient evidence to con-vict Knight. Forty witnesses have been summoned and the trial will commence Tues-day morning at 9.30, before Judge Powers. It is expected the taking of evidence will occupy the greater part of the week. Wazhington, Feb. 2-It is stated at the war department that no immediate action will be taken on the provisions of the army re-organization bill, which permits the appoint-ment of Brigadier General William R. Shaft-er as a major general, and of Generals John Wilson and Fitzhugh Lee as brigadier gen-erals in the regular army and their retire-ment in the grades named. General Shafter holds the rank of major Tuesday, accompanied by King Edward, will take luncheon at Marlborough House, after which he will drive to Charing Cross station, where he will take the train for Port Victoria. He will follow the same route by which Lord Roberts entered London returning from South Africa and a great ovation is expected.

Mourners.

"London, Feb. 2-"It has been a great teign," spoke Mr. Balfour in his eulogy of fore the House of Commons "and it before the House of Commons, "and it has a happy ending."

erals in the grades named. General Shafter holds the rank of major general of volunteers, and Generals Wilson and Lee the grade of brigadier general of volunteers and the present purpose is to al-low them to continue to serve under their present commissions until about June 30 next, when all such commissions expire by lumitation All London, and thousabds from the remotest villages of the kingdom paid their final homage to the Queen today in her capital; and assuredly, as Mr. Bal-four said, the end of her reign, which is now passed into history, was happy. Deen solemnity filled all here to me had dealt kindly with their sovereign; that her passing had been as happy as her life was useful. They gathered to honor her memory rather than to mourn her loss. As a Queen she was an exemplar of the solid virtues and the aspirations and lives of the middle class of Englishmen, they, fittingly, seemed the most sincere mourners.

houses closing their doors during the day. The newspapers suspended publication, and life in London, like the rest of the empire, turned from its customary channels and New York, Feb. 1-Several thousand vacwas focussed upon three miles of west end street, where the coffin containing the New fork, Feb. 1-Several housand vac-cinations were made tonight in "Little Italy." Resistance was quite spirited in some cases. Nine new cases of smallpox were discovered tonight; one death today. Port of Spain, Trinidad, Feb. 1-The Venbody which was now merely a symbol of After Service the Coffin Was Conveyed from Victoria's self, whom, often before, Lon-doners had cheered, assembled as they were alsolvered tonight, one were calculated over the verezuelan government continues to maintain a defiant attitude toward the United States. The repert is now circulated that President Castro, having troops at his disposal in the eastern provinces since his viotory there over the insurgents, will send a regiment to dispossess the Americans at Pitch Lake. The Company will resist, but no doubt it will be ousted if the threatened attempt is made unless large reinforcements are received.

Grave complications, would inevitably ensue. Mr. Loomis, the United States minister, is trying to compose matters, but he is met in an unfriendly spirit by the government of Venzuela.
Paris, Feb. 4.-Le Rappel publishes a were today—but on occasions of rejoicing. To an American the ceremonials with all the theatrical trappings of royalty were not more impressive than the funeral of a chief magistrate, chosen by the people. The kings and princes beneath silver helmets and wearing gold braided coats were men, and wearing gold braned coats were men, but the sight of the King riding after the coffin of his mother and Queen, with four other kings and half a hundred of the highest royalties of European dynasties following, and the hereditary quaint at-taches of court, was one never to be for-sotten. The popular mourning was less general

Paris, Feb. 4.-Le Rappel publishes a descatch from Rome saying: "Agents of the Italian detective depart-ment in the United States report that Calcagno, an anarchist, has left for Euand ostentations than it would have been in the United States. The multitudes were remarkably orderly. The whole cere-Calcagno, an anarchist, has left for Eu-rope to make an attempt on the life of King Vactor Emmanuel and that he is acting under the orders of the Paterson anarchists. The Halian police are watch-ing the ports and frontier stations."

to a manual and a support of the later and the second and the seco substitute for them "jackies," who had come up from Portsmouth as guard of honor. This suggestion was quickly sanc-tioned and the last time Victoria's body was borne before her subjects as it was by her royal handy-men, who at an opporwas borne before her subjects as it was by her royal handy-men, who at an oppor-tune moment, saved the situation.

ther winte wands of onice, received the most distinguished personages and icon-ducted them to a little pavilion exected on the platform. The whole station by that time resembled the scene of a leves. The commander in chief of the forces, Field Marshal Barl Roberts, on a beau-Hitch at Windsor Ceremony. The other hitch occurred during the re-ligious part of the ceremony. The trembl-ing voice of the archbishop of Canterbury, who is almost blind, had scarcely ended the final benediction before he turned to the final benediction before he turned to tiful spirited brown mare, carrying his field marshal's baton, trotted into the sta-THE LONDON PROCESSION. Never Was a Sovereign Borne to the Grave Attended by So Many Distinguished Mourners. the final benediction before he turned to go up the altar. steps. His sight and strength failed him and he tottered, groped and was on the point of falling when the archbishop of York, who had been staud-ing some distance behind him, advanced and caught his hand and gently led the the final benediction before he turned to go up the altar. steps. His sight and strength failed him and he tottered, groped archbishop of York, who had been staud-ing some distance behind him, advanced and caught his hand and gently led the the princesses. They were the state carriages used on the occasion of the late Queen's jubilee, with beautiful gold-mount-ed harnesses and trappings. The horses were ridden by postilions in scarlet jackets venerable prelate to the holy table. Then purple altar cloth. While the archbishop prayed and the their arms as a mark of the great change.

their arms as a mark of the great change. The carriages were closed. Following the carriages and preceded by an officer came the little khaki-colored gun carriage which was to carry Queen Victoria's body from Victoria to Paddingtion station. The eight Hanoverian cream-colored horses which drove the late Queen on the occasion of device the late Queen on the occasion of next, when all such commissions expire 15 initiation. New York, Feb. 2.—Dr. Stephen Chand-ler Griggs, who for 35 years prior to his retirement, practiced medicine in Brook-ly, was burned to death last evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Jenning, in Nutley, N. J. The true cause of death was kept a secret, the fam-ily claiming that death was caused by paralysis. Today, however, it leaked out that Dr. Griggs, who was 82 years old, had fallen from an invalid chair into a grate fire H. Jenning, in Nutley, N. J. The true cause of death was kept a secret, the fam-ily claiming that death was caused by arrows as useful. They gathered to from an invalid chair into a grate fire H. Jenning, in Nutley, N. J. The true cause of death was kept a secret, the fam-ily claiming that death was caused by arrows as useful. They gathered to how passed into history, was happy. Today, however, it leaked out that Dr. from an invalid chair into a grate fire H. Jenning, in Nutley, N. J. The true cause of death was kept a secret, the fam-ily claiming that death was caused by paralysis. Today, however, it leaked out that Dr. from an invalid chair into a grate fire H. Jenning, in Nutley, N. J. The true from an invalid chair into a grate fire H. Jenning, in Nutley, N. J. The true from an invalid chair into a grate fire H. Jenning, in Nutley, N. J. The true that her passing had been as happy as hard meand been as happy as hard been as happy as hard meand been as happy as hard been as the solon carriage bearing the gate for the suites and ambassador. A minute ahead of time the train steam-dores the solon carriage bearing the gate for the s wheels, but this was the only alteration. A minute ahead of time the train steam-ed into the station. All heads were un-covered as the saloon carriage bearing the Queen's remains stopped exactly opposite the gun carriage, and King Edward, Queen Alexandra, Emperor William and others alighted. Then the bearer party advanced to the saloon carriage. With his hand on the salute and standing a little in advance of the others King Edward watched the painfully slow removal of the coffin to dors to go out by another door. The returning throng met those coming up almost at the coffin, well night causing a melee. Finally they reached the other door and the body of the Queen was left lone before the altar, save for the stern

AT PORTSMOUTH.

Yacht to Train.

Portsmouth, Feb. 2.-Before nine o'clock this morning the remains of the Queen were taken from the royal yacht Alberta to a special carriage and conveyed to the King's train, which started for London at 8.53 a. m., amidst the boom of the guns at the fort. There was a short service on the yacht before the body was removed. The only mourning garb visible was in the dresses of the princesses. The firing of minute guns marked the passage of the coffin to the draped railroad train, to $.53 a. m., amidst the boom of the guns coffin to the draped railroad train, to which it was borne shoulder high by petty officers of the royal yachts, preceded by a clergyman. Immediately behind the coffin were carried the crown, the globe, the standard and a few choice wreaths.

King Edward and Emperor Wiliam, the Duke of Connaught and the Crown Prince and particle of the services and frontier stations.

 b. The control of the leader line of the services at line source of the services are lines at lines at lines and services at lines at lines and lines at lines at lines at lines at lines at lines at lin

Then came a score or more of attendants

The King and German Emperor alighted There was a man at every hon and a hand at every carriage door and as the music of the massed bands echoed throughout the station the pall was re moved from the coffin and the casket we deposited in the saloon carriage, which the Queen had so often occupied during her lifetime. King Edward, Queen Alexandra and th Duke of Connaught stood grouped togethe as the coffin was borne in and then the all took seats and the train started fo

ARRIVAL AT WINDSOR.

The Impressive Service at St. George's

Chapel Described.

large candelabra. The profusion of flowers which was dis-delicate green ferus were used for the

and in 1 a war is a stand of the stand of the Windsor at 1.30.

Chapel Described. Windsor, Feb. 2.—Great throngs of peo-ple assembled in the vicinity of the rail-road station to meet the coffin. At 2.30 the guns of a battery stationed on Castle Hill signalled the arrival of the funeral train. The great east window of St. George's dhapel with its faint stained figures threw a soft light over this burial and worship-ping place of kings. Before each oaken stall glimmered the waxen taper that burns when knights of the garter worship there. Above their heads, resting upon the carved subres of the stalls, were the the carved sabres of the stalls, were the special insignia of each knight, while hanging over this were the motionless banners Bone Grinders, Portable Forges, bearing the strange devices of the mem-bers of this most powerful order. On each side of the chancel flamed two rows of candles, causing the gold and red of the Drilling Machines, Fans, etc., made by the candles, causing the good and red of the knights to glitter. In sombre contrast with these rows of light and color sat the long line of princesses and ladies in waiting, making a foreground of deepest black. On the altar two tapers burned, but within the rail on each side stood two

JOSEPH THOMPSON MACHINE WORKS. 48-58, Smythe street, St. John, N. B. Tel. 968.

FOR SALE-Elias Harmer's Fine Busi-The profusion of flowers which was dis-played outside the chapel ceased within. On the chancel only a very few liles and delicate green ferns were used for the On the channel only a very lev lines the delicate green ferus were used for the altar decorations. There was no crepe any-where. Among the early arrivals were ministers and ex-ministers in full state uniform. All the members of the cabinet took their seats in a row. Lord Salisbury followed, wearing a velvet skull cap and wrapped in an ordinary black overcoat. When this was taken off it revealed a plain court Quebcc, Feb. 4-(Special)-J. Mathews, for many years local freight agent of the Grand Trunk Railway, has been appointed to a sim-ilar position on the Intercolonial at Quebcc.

. . .