When legislating the harbor into Commission, Parliament will, doubtless, provide the necessary measures for preventing the crimping of sailors and fraudulent conspirations of the preventing the crimping of sailors and fraudulent conspirations of the preventing our rapidly degenerating harbor to the Government, so that it may be dredged out, and otherwise in proved, is more important than any other question now before the people of St. John, and it is to be hoped that the Common Council will waive the petry patronage derived from its control, and act for the best interests of the port.

Change of Tune?

When two or three English Tory papers condemned Sir John A. Macdonald, the Toronto Globe and its echoes cried out lustily that the voice of the English press, even that of the Tory press, was against their enemies. But whap the Localon Libraging and approving of most of the things the Grits condemned, and using much harsher language to the Grits for uttering and reiterating false and shadown and and proved to be false—than to Sir John Macdonald for having raised and used an election fund, it aroused the wrath of the Globe and its echoes. They condemn the Liberal press, and the Gordon the Liberal press, they shake their first as the Liberal press, they shake their firsts at the Liberal press, they shake their firsts at the Liberal press, and its echoes.
