Clean Hair!

How alluring it is after a

7 Sutherland 7 Sisters' Shampoo

A clean and delightful shampoo is Seven Sutherland Sisters' Scalp Cleaner. If you are troubled with dandruff or with defective scalp circulation, you are on the path to baldness. You should begin at once—TODAY—to cleanse your hair and scalp with this scientific preparation. Delay means increasing danger of permanent injury to the delicate hair follicles.

Thousands of women all over America whose hair has been saved and beautified by the use of this preparation, testify to its merits.

Used with Hair Grower
"I find the Seven Sutherland Sisters' Hair and Scalp Cleaner the most delightful of all shampoos," writes a woman whose abundant, lustrous hair is the envy of her friends. "I have used it for years in conjunction with the Sutherland Hair Grower. An occasional treatment with the shampoo keeps my hair in perfect condition, soft and clean."

APPIN

An exciting game of ball was played here on Monday afternoon between Newbury and Appin. The score was 6-5 in favor of the local team.

While cranking a car last Wednesday, Miss Gertrude Lotan had the misfortune to break her right arm. The community players presented their play, "Fanchon the Cricket," at Alderton last Wednesday evening, and had a very pleasant and profitable time. They also went to Melbourne on Friday night. A good crowd was in attendance and a splendid time was had, the players being entertained at the home of Mr. Sparrow.

Rev. M. C. Parr is attending Conference this week in London. Miss Mary Long, of London, spent Sunday with friends in Appin. Miss Velma Harris, of London, spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Macfie spent the 24th with their daughters at Alton College, St. Thomas. Mrs. Gast has returned home from Milwaukee, Ind., where she attended the funeral of her father.

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on the park grounds on Friday afternoon, June 2, at 3 o'clock. Members are requested to be present as important items of business have to be attended to—disposing of the library, plans regarding the school fair before school closes, and to make arrangements for a playground at the park.

Dread of Asthma makes countless thousands miserable. Night after night the attacks return and even when brief respite is given the mind is still in torment from continual anticipation. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy changes all this. Relief comes, and at once, while future attacks are ward off, leaving the afflicted one in a state of peace and happiness he once believed he could never enjoy. Inexpensive and sold almost everywhere.

CASHMERE

Basil Stiller, of Bothwell, was with his brother Calvin for a few days last week.

The Ladies' Aid have set the date of their lawn social for June 9, and it will be held on Hugh Taylor's lawn.

STRATHBURN

Lorenzo Siddall has torn down the old blacksmith shop and is busy putting in a cement foundation for a new shop.

Nat Currie has completed a fine up-to-date booth, and is getting everything in good shape for tourists.

Mrs. Andrew Fleming returned this week to St. Thomas after visiting friends in this vicinity.

There is no truth in the report of Mrs. McRae having been held up by road thugs the night of the Daughters of the Empire garden party.

Say it in The Transcript.

MOSA
