FULL PROGRAM TO-NIGHT'S BOUTS

Everything is on edge for to-night's battles at St. Mary's Hall, and here we have the program in tabloid form:

Catch Weights Jack Jarvis "The New York Sensation" vs. Fred Crompton

6 Rds. Semi Finals

Wolf Mason vs. Harry Wills 6 Rds.

Kid Whitney vx Young Martin

Kid Curtis—Walter FeRay
Exhibition
The Gillette Midgets

And if that's not a high class card, we don't want to see another.
Crompton arrived at the 'American Illot!' last night, and says he feels as fit as a fiddle, and expects to win, depending on his "heavy artillery" to stop Jarvis, but Jack also is in line shape too, and going as fast bit going to make Crompton "eat his left hand." Both men confident, we should see a good 30-minutes' a heart of ice but the figure and beauty of a goddess, Alice Joyce has a splendid role in "The Spark Divine" showing at Allen this weekend. It is a splendid society feature and though far from being a sermon, there is a good lesson contained that love is worth much more than money.

Alice Joyce as "Marcia Delans is the daughter of the new-rich and through her parent's folly grows up a human icicle, full of bitterness against her parents for killing her natural warm-heartedness and impulsiveness. To save her parents from bankruptey she reluctantly weds a rich mine-owner, but one of the wholesome kind who has not been spoiled with riches. He believes that she is all right at heart if he can only arouse the "Spark Divine".
