

SQUARE WORDS.

I.

1. Used to make bread.
2. Diminutive of Alice.
3. A tree.
4. An attack.
5. A doctrine.

II.

1. fur.
2. A notion.
3. Clean.
4. A name.

HAL.

HAL.

III.

1. The root of a tulip.
2. A town of Sweden.
3. A king mentioned by Shakspeare.
4. A farm outbuilding.

R. N. ROBINS.

IV.

1. A fragrant flower.
2. Compose an English forest.
3. A light leap or bound.
4. Signifies to discover.

JACOB BENEDICT.

ENIGMAS.

I am composed of eleven letters.

My 5, 2, 3, 7, has no place in a drawing room.

My 1, 2, 3, 4, 7 is that of which criminals always get the benefit.

My 8, 11, 6, 5 was the only vulnerable part of a hero.

My 9, 3, 1, 6, is what little boys are apt to be.

My 4, 11, 10, 6 is now an important article from which sugar is made.

My 7, 2, 3, 9, is a trip for pleasure.

My 7, 9, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10 is what Macbeth's witches increased twofold.

And my whole is a common figure among skaters.
BOX AND COX.

I am composed of ten letters.

My 10, 5, 4, 3, implies security.

My 2, 8, 6, is a personal pronoun.

My 1, 9, 3, 8, are found in the forest.

My 7, 3, 5, 1, is an article of food.

My whole keep the world from starvation.

A. C.

1. To become my whole one must be well—
2, 3, 10, 5, 6, 14, 12, 11.

2. The reward of his labors is sometimes a—
1, 2, 3, 6, 7.

3. An abomination from his creditors is a—11, 10, 13.

4. He is rather fond of—8, 9, 4, 1, 10, 7, 6, 13, 9, 8.

5. An unpleasant part of his labors is to—
3, 4, 8, 8, 12, 5, 14.

6. A pleasant part of his labors is to—8, 12, 7, 7
his companions.

7. His object is to obtain a thorough knowledge of—1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 4, 13, 12.

My whole is proverbially known as fond of practical jokes.

J. G. K.

ANSWERS TO DOUBLE ACROSTICS, CHARADES, &c., IN NO. 3 OF "STUDENTS' MONTHLY."

1. Double Acrostic:—Canada; Beaver. (Answered correctly by A. C. and Sapiens.)
2. Charades:—(1) Wantage.

(2) Padlock;

(3) Cartail;

(4) Gold dust;

(5) Peace.

(Correct answers received from Kate, A. C., and Sapiens.)

3. Enigma:—"Skating Carnivals." Solved by A. C., K. D., and Sapiens).

4. Square words:—

BEAST.

ELDER

ADIEU

SEEDS

TRUST

(Correct solution received from Hal. and Dick)

Q

The ele Society for the choice
President, sident, and meetings tended. 7
the debate.
cussed the advantage country?"
were the le brought for such as foll

Affirmati
tageously si preciated a influence de Public lect of various l
take place f
in a country opportunity college itel nent literary talent would attendant a apt to be so jection, "Th age at which him sufficient to be rakish foolishly die probably less visitants. H and with the circle of acqu
able to study own level in sions were m cause in town
the gentler se
in with such as
and the recre