Resolutions of Condolence.

At the last legular meeting of Branch No. 130, C. M. B. A., Bathurst, N. B., held on Tuesday, 2nd July inst., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas an irreparable loss has befallen our esteemed Brother, Senior Chancellor P. J. Burns, in the deeply to be regretted death of his brother, the Honorable Senator R. F. Burns, a loss which will be felt not only by Brother Burns and the other members of the family of the deceased, but also by the Catholics of the county of Gloucester and of the Province of New Brunswick generally;

Resolved that we tender to Brother Burns, and to the other sorrowing members of the family, our deepest sympathy, and pray that Divine Providence will console and comfort them in their affliction.

We take this opportunity also to express our sincere appreciation of the worth of the late lamented Senator. We recognize the fact that during all the time he was in public life he was one of the foremost in and fought to a successful issue all movements which involved principles near and dear to the hearts of all Catholics. And feeling thus, we, as a branch of a Catholic association think that we would be remiss in our duty should we neglect to pay him this last tribute of respect and to state that we consider that we have lost a friend whose work in life entitled him to our continuous praise and whose name and good services can never be forgotten by us.

Also resolved that these resolutions be entered in the minutes of the branch and published in the press and that copies of the same be given to Brother Burns and the family of deceased.

At a regular meeting of Branch 149, C. M. B. A., La Salette, held on July 6, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas the members of this branch have heard with regret of the loss sustained by our esteemed Brother, D. Foley, by the death of his eldest son, an exceedingly bright and promising boy of eleven years,

Resolved that we extend to Brother Foley and his family our sincere sympathy in this

Resolved that we extend to Brother Foley and his family our sincers sympathy in this their time of sad affliction and we humbly pray that God will comfort them in their bereavement. And be it further Resolved that this resolution be entered in the minutes of this meeting, and that a copy be presented to Brother Foley also that copies be sent to The Canadian, CATHOLIC RECORD and Delhi Reporter for publication.

At the last regular meeting of St. Paul's Branch, No. 8, Toronto, the following resolutions of condolence were uranimously adopted:

That whereas it has pleased Almighty God to call from our midst Mrs. Annie Hurley, mother of our highly esteemed Brothers, Patrick and Edward Hurley, and whereas by her death our Brothers have sustained the loss of a fond and affectionate mother, and owing to the affection and esteem in which the above named Brothers have been held for the past fourteen years we cannot let pass this opportunity of showing the sympathy which we in brotherly and grateful love deem due to them for their ever constant and ready zeal in aiding our order and working hard for its welfare We earnestly pray God to give them grace to bear with Christian fortitude the sad loss they have sustained. Be it further Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be published in the CATHOLIC RECORD and Register, and a copy presented to Brother Patrick and Edward Hurley.

The following letters were recently received by Mr. W. T. J. Lee, of Toronto, who has been elected Provincial High Chief Ranger of the Catholic Order of Foresters. While Mr. Lee holds the chief part in the organization we doubt not its best interests will be safeguarded in a conscientious as well as pradential manner:

Pembroke, June 18, 1895.
W. T. J. Lee, P. H. C. Ranger, C. O. F., Ontario:

W. T. J. Lee, P. H. C. Ranger, C. O. F., Ontario:

Dear Sir—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your kind favor of the 14th instant.
Please accept my sincere felicitations on the occasion of your promotion to the honorable position of Provincial High Chief Ranger of the Catholic Order of Foresters for Ontario.

The fact that I have been instrumental in the organization in Pembroke of a branch of the order is a sufficient proof of my strong approval of it, and that I consider it very appropriate to promote the material, moral and religious interests of our Catholic people.

Very respectfully,
Your devoted servant in Christ,

St. Peter's Cathedral,

Peterborough, Ont., July 3, 1895.

W. T. J. Lee, Esq., Prov. High Chief
Ranger of the C. O. F., Ontario:
Dear Sir — I congratulate you on your election as chief offiser in Ontario of the C. O. F. As the order is in conformity with the discipline of the Church, it deserves to be encouraged amongst Catholics, who will find in its membership a great means of help in sickness or death, as well as an aid to the practice of their religious duties. By having efficient officers in each court to properly enforce the rules and carry out the objects of the society, the members will quickly recognize the many advantages to be derived from mutual assistance and counsel. I would like to see established in every parish a Catholic society like yours, to unite more closely our Catholic men for their temporal and spiritual welfare.

Wishing the Catholic Order of Foresters great success in the good work it is doing for religion and society.

Believe me, dear sir,
Yours very sincerely,
+IR.A. O'CONNOR,
Bishop of Peterborough.

St. Thomas, Ont.

On Tuesday, the 9th, at the A. O. H. regular meeting a most enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. Woodcock, a brother Hibernian from Ohio, was present and treated us to an elequent review of the workings of the order in his State. He spoke also in eulogistic terms of the members of this Division, for their kindness and courtesy to him. The President, Brother P. J. McManus, in response, dwelt at some length on the first link in the motto of the Order—Friendship. This brotherly friendship, he said, every Hibernian should extend to visiting members of the order, and he was glad to hear they had done so on this occasion, as it showed unmistakably the existence of the second link—Unity. A vote of thanks was tendered Bro. Woodcock for his friendly words and eloquent address. Short speeches were given by several members; songs were sung by Brothers John McCaffrey, sr., and L. Wad dick and a very interesting meeting was 'thus brought to a close.

ARCHIBALD MCDONNELL, BELLEVILLE
A Belleville correspondent informs us of the death of one of the oldest and most respected residents in the county of Hastings, Archibald McDonnell, which took place on the evening of July 2. He was born in the county Antrim, Ireland, 1815, emigrated to this country in 1844, and a few years later settled on a farm in Thurlow, in which township he resided until his death. He was married in 1856 to Miss Anastasia Fitzpatrick, sister of the late P. Fitzpatrick, of Belleville, Mr. McDonnell had many sterling qualities, and was highly respected among all classes of the community. By dint of hard labor he accumulated considerable of this world's goods. He leaves a widow, three sons and a daughter to mourn his demise. Two of the sons are farmers in Thurlow, and James is a student at Trinity Medical College, Toronto. The daughter, Jennie, is at home. The funeral took place from his late residence, 2nd concession, Thurlow, on Thursday, the 4th, to St. Michael's charch, where services were held and was very largely attended, show ing the high esteem in which he was held. Requiescat in pace. ARCHIBALD McDonnell, Belleville

JAMES KEOUGH, J. P., GUELPH.

JAMES KEOUGH, J. P., GUELPH.

Mr. James Keough died at his residence, the Wells homestead, this morning. For a long time Mr. Keough has been in the grasp of a disease which he knew could only be relin quished by death. He bore his sufferings with great patience and resignedly faced the impending dissolution. In the last days of his illness, his brother, Rev. Father Keough, was at his bedside, and all the consolutions that his holy religion could afford were vouchsafed him.

Mr. Keough was a native of Guelph township. For a number of years he kept hotel on the Waterloo road, and was engaged in farming operations at the same time. Afterwards, when he removed to the city, he embarked in the furniture business, with E. J. O'Brien. Mr. Keough sat in the City Council for many years as a representative of St. James' ward. He was also a member of the R. U. School Board. To the discharge of the duties of these offices he brought a ready faculty for the consideration of public questions. In the C. M. B. A. he was one of the pioneer members, and early rose to the highest position attainable in the local branch. He was several times a representative at the Grand Council.

Socially, Mr. Keough was a very fine man. He was of a quiet disposition, devoted to his family, and found his chief pleasure in home pursuits. He leaves a wife and grown up tamily to mourn a loss greater than which they could not sustain.—Herald, July 5.

MR. ALEX. DOHERTY, LOGAN. It is with feelings of deep regret we this week record the death of Mr. Alex. Doberty, which took place at his residence, 9th Con. Logan, at 120 clock, on the 5th inst. Deceased leaves a wife and eleven children—eight daughters and three sons—to mourn his loss. which took place at his residence, 9th Con., Logan, at 12 o'clock, on the 5th inst. Deceased leaves a wife and eleven childrem—eight daughters and three sons—to mourn his loss. He was for several years a resident of the township of Caledon, where he was most highly respected. In 1876 he moved to Logan, where he resided until his death, at the age of seventy-three years. For the past few years his health has been failing, and in June his physician pronounced his case hopeless. His family, from Stratford, Chicago and Milwaukee, came to spend the last few weeks with him, and were all at his bedside when his soul calmly passed into the hands of his Maker. Every care was taken to prolong his life, but in vain. He bore his sufferings with great patience and resignation to the will of God, and died fortified by the rites of the Catholic Church, which were administered to him by Rev. Father O'Neill. Mr. Doherty was one of the best known and respected men by all classes in his own township, where he had endeared himself by his kind and genial disposition. Extremely upright in his dealings, he was regarded with feelings of friendship by all acquaintances, and they were numerous. By his death his wife loses a kind, loving husband: his children, an affectionate father, who for a number of years cared for and gave them all a good education. He was a model man, an upright citizen and a practical Catholic and as Holy Church placed about him her choicest blessings on his journey to the life beyond, may we not say she uttered the salutation "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, and was the largest witnessed in this parish for several years. The body was taken to the church; then, after the usual service, to St. Patrick's cemetery, Kukora, followed by a large concourse of sympathizing friends, where it was consigned to the grave. The large attendance gave unmistakable proof of the esteem that existed between the departed and his friends and noishbors. The floral tributes were bo

A caed mille failthe expresses the we'come of the hospitable Irishman, but a much stronger term would be required to express the welcome that awaited all those who were present at the Rev. Ph. Hauck's first Solemn Mass in the German church of Formosa on Sanday, July 7. Father Brohman, the parish priest, surpassed himself on this occasion as a prince of entertainers, while the newly-anoisted of the Lord, Rev. Ph. Hauck, almost rivelled his native pastor. For hours before the time of celebration the people from the neighboring country came crowding in; and, although the church is one of the largest in the country, standing room was at a premium when Mass began. At 10:30 a troop of little boys and girls in gala costumes bearing in their hands tiny banners emblematic of the occasion, headed by the parish choir chanting the Divine praises, escorted the celebrant and attendant priests to the church. After the Credo, a little niece of the celebrant, neatly attired in a bridal costume, advanced to the altar steps and presented him with a crown of immortelles. The ceremony, on the whole, was grand and imposing, every one, from the celebrant, Father Hauck, and Father Waschter—the orator of the day—down to the acolytes and children, in the sanctuary, performing their parts in a faultless manner. The choir was exceptionally good. After Mass the Rev. Ph. Hanck gave his blessing to the large congregation; and, despite the fact that this detained him about two hours, he looked fresh and cheerful, and will no doubt make a number one man in the arduous toil of mis sionary work. When Father Hauck had accomplished this labor of love, he, with his relatives, friends and attendant priests, adjourned to the rectory, where ample Justice was done to a magnificent repast. Shortly after dinner solemn Vespers and Henediction were given by the newly ordained priest, and then all repaired to the residence of Father Hauck's brother. The party broke up at 9 p. m., with best wishes for Rev. Fr. Hauck's success and with loud

When you came amongst us—nine years When you came amongst us—nine years ago—you found a church groaning under an immense debt. You also found a flock, as it were, without a shepherd, which is now changed, thanks to your untiring efforts in our behalf. We have now a church free from debt, and also a fine presbytery, built and paid by your own individual exertions. Your solicitious care for the spiritual welfare of the sick, together with the great interest you have taken in the religious training of our children, leave an impression which time cannot efface.

A STUDENT OF ST. JEROME'S COL LEGE DROWNED.

A very deplorable drowning accident occurred on July 2, at Teeswater, where Mr. Louis Zinger, a student of St. Jerome's College, Berlin, had been visiting. He had been visiting Teeswater and vicinity for a week, when his propensity to visit the river had become so unconquerable that his friends could not stay it. Obeying the voice which was hastening him to his eternal home, he set out, accompanied by two college friends, who little thought that they were about to be robbed of their comrade. After walking a mile down the river a place was reached which was considered suitable for bathing. Consequently, the three young men rid themselves of their wearing apparel, rested a short time, then drew to the water. The three swam across safely, rested on the opposite shore, passed a few remarks them resumed their return; but alas! Louis never again reached the shore alive. His comrades on gaining land saw that the water had seized him and conducted him to its bed. They immediately plunged in and put forth every endeavor, even holding friend; but all was without avail, for it was the will of God, the Omniscient, that he should no longer range in this world of corruption, but that he should breathe of that eternal bliss which "neither tofigue can describe, nor mind comprehend, nor all-the sphere of human knowledge can en-can describe, nor mind comprehent, all-the sphere of human knowledge can encompass."

He had been a student at St. Jerome's College for the past two years, where he won the deep affection of his professors, and also by those noble attributes characteristic of a good Catholic Christian which ever hold esteem, he always held a high position in the minds of his fellow students, who now keenly suifer the loss. Great sympathy is felt for the bereft family. His remains were taken to his home, in New Germany. The funeral took place on July 5, when the body was laid to rest in the St. Boniface cemetery. The casket, covered with heautiful wreaths and bouquets, given by his many friends, was borne by six of his fellow students to the church, then to the place of burial, immediately after which a most solemn Requiem was sung for the repose of his soul. Rev. A. Weiler, C. R., Ph. D., Vice-President of the college, officiated as celebrant; while Rev. J. Haiter, C. R., M. A., Rector of Studies, took upon himself the duties of deacon, and Rev. H. Alyner, C. R., D. D., those of subdeacon. After the most solemn Mass Rev. J. Foerster, P. P., prached a very impressive sarmon—one of consolation to his many relatives and friends—dwelling restimulated many relatives and friends—dwelling restimulated many relatives and friends—dwelling restimulated many relatives. J. Foerster, P. P., preached a very impressive sermon — one of consolation to his many relatives and friends — dwelling particularly upon ever being prepared to meet death, knowing well that its dangers continually hang over us. He dwelt at length upon the virtuous manner in which the deceased had passed his years at the college as a most wholesome preparation to meet the Supreme Judge of the Universe.

Rev. A. Waschter, C. R., B. A., sang a Requiem in Formosa, on Thursday 11, for the repose of the departed soul.

From the Bowmanville News. The editor of the News, in company with Mr. Jury, of the well known firm of Stott & Jury, visited the home of Samuel Wood, in the township of Darlington, for the purpose of ascertaining the particulars of another of those re markable cures happily brought about by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It was Mrs. Wood who had thus been released from suffering, and when the newspaper man made known his mission she said, "Yes I can give you a bright testi-mony in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, for I believe that if they did not save my life, they at all events released me from untold misery. Some three years ago dyspepsia came upon me in a severe form. I doctored with one of the local doctors for more than a year, but all the time was growing steadily worse. The medicine I took cost me a dollar a bottle, and the expenditure was worse than useless, for it did me no good. Then my husband thought as I was growing worse ; it would be better to try something else, as they felt that unless a change soon came I was doomed to live through the Stayner, June 30, 1895.

DIOCESE OF PETERBOROUGH.

Address and Presentation to Rev. Father Collins, of the Cathedral Staff, Peterborough. The Catholic congregation of the Bowman ville mission presented Rev. Father Collins with the following address and a handsome testimonial on the occasion of his leaving here to take pastoral charge of the large joint parish of Brighton and Wooler:

The Catholic congregation of the Bowman ville mission presented Rev. Father Collins to the remarkable cures achieved by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I determined to give them a trial. I got a supply and before the second by was gone to the constant of the presented Rev. Father Collins to the remarkable cures achieved by Dr. to give them a trial. I got a supply and before the second box was gone I found myself getting better. I continued the use of the pills until I had taken eleven boxes, when I was fully recovered. This was a couple of years ago, and I have not now the least sign of dyspepsia." Mrs. Wood further said that her husband had been a victim of kidney trouble for a long time and had taken a great deal of medicine for its cure, but to no avail. When it was seen that Pink Pills were doing his wife so much good, Mr. Wood determined to try them, and they acted like a charm, as he is now entirely free from his complaint, and he attributed all to the use of Pink Pills, and would not be without them in the house.

Messrs. Stott & Jury informed the News that Pink Pills have an enormous sale. They have handled Pink Pills for years and say that they cannot recall a single instance in which a customer came back and said they were not perfectly satisfied with the results. This is certainly a remarkable record, but then Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is a remarkable medicine,
