

DIED. CHEEVERS—At Buffalo, N.Y. on Jan. 21st, 1901, Patrick Cheevers aged 87 years, father of Mat. Cheevers, place from the G.T.E. station on the arrival of the 10:30 train Wednesday morning to the Church of Our Lady. Friends will please accept this intimation.

HOCKEY STICKS, Fine Assortment Extra Low Price at DAY'S.

R.E. Nelson's Half-Yearly Half-Price Hat - Sale.

Wednesday Morning, Jan. 16th, Every Hard and Soft Colored Hat in stock at exactly Half Price STRICTLY CASH. R. E. NELSON, 99 Wyndham Street.

BRAINS WIN BATTLES THE ROYAL CITY Business College Of Guelph, Ont. Can develop yours for the Battle of Life. EVENING CLASS—Sundays and Thursdays. J. W. WIGGINS, Prin. Traders' Bank Building, Guelph, Ont.

WHITE BEANS Crop of 1900 Fresh & Good 8 lbs for 25c or 4c a lb. Geo. J. Thorp Wholesale and Retail Store, Market Square and Macdonnell St.

Something New We are manufacturers of something a little different in the way of confectionery, which we call Silver Kisses, the regular selling price will be 25c a lb. but to introduce them we will sell them at 15c a lb. Saturday Bargain.

The Kandy Kitchen. The Wellington Mutual Fire Insurance Company. The Annual Meeting of the Wellington Mutual Fire Insurance Company will be held in the Company's office on Wednesday, the 13th day of February next.

Fountain Pens For $1.50... By buying in extra large quantities I can sell you a really good Fountain Pen for the above price. G. D. PRINGLE.

Traders' Bank of Canada. Capital Paid up $1,000,000. Assets over $8,000,000. Guelph Branch. NEXT DOOR TO POST OFFICE, WYNDHAM ST. A general banking business transacted.

Sickroom Goods. We have about everything that has been invented to lessen the suffering of the sick. Invalid Couches, Hot Water Bottles, Fountain Syringes, Atomizers, Lints, Cottons, Gauzes, and all sorts of hospital and sickroom supplies.

IMPROVER WANTED. WANTED—At once, an improver. Must have had at least one year's experience. A good opportunity to learn the Typograph. Apply Herald Office.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework in small family, good wages to competent person. Apply at Herald Office.

FOR SALE. FOR SALE—Leslie's Corner, a large house and barn and 5 acres, Erasmus road. For terms apply to Miss Leslie on the premises or R. L. MacKinnon, solicitor, Guelph.

NOTICE. I desire to thank my many customers for their generous patronage during the past year and respectfully request those indebted to me to settle their accounts on or before the 20th inst., by so doing they will greatly oblige and enable me to close my books. Yours respectfully, JAMES MILLIS, President.

FOR SALE WEEKLY PAYMENTS. Ranges for Coal and Wood, Coal Stoves and Hot Air Stoves, and our price is lowest. Over 2000 in stock. Come quick and have your choice. After 5 p.m. customers will please call at house and Stewart Street, Guelph, Ont.

"Grip Sufferers" always need some tonic, when they are about well again in order to prevent a recurrence of their sickness. What better medicine can be taken than a bottle of "Our Emulsion," which strengthens and builds up the system.

WALTER HEROD, Dentist. Dr. Fred T. Coghlan, Dentist. OFFICE AND RESIDENCE: Cor. of Woodlark and Cardigan Sts., opp. Opera House, residence of the late Dr. Herod. Tel. 228.

GHAS. L. NELLES Annual January Sale. Wall Paper Half price For this month.

ALL OUR LOVELY Stock except ingrain Is offered at Exactly 50 per cent Discount.

TERMS STRICTLY CASH. 1-2 Price Sale. Four or Five Years ago "Hockey" was Practically Unknown in Ontario.

Now Hockey is the leading winter sport. Hockey skates and sticks made specially for the game. We want to sell quickly a large assortment of sticks comprising the new well-known Dean "non-spliff" and a great many others of best make. Prices well reduced so that every boy may own a good stick. First lot, best choice and at the same time all our sticks are choice sticks.

John M. Bond & Co. Hardware. Retail Department.

A Welcome Treat is a box of our Delicious Confectionery. So many kinds and flavors here that something acceptable to young or old can be easily found. And the cost can be just according to your pocket book or your estimation of the recipient.

GEO. WILLIAMS, Alma Block. Phone 109.

Lines on the Death of Queen Victoria. As light, thrown off from some huge mirror rare, Beams forth and glitters with intense glare Nor knows abatement, nor consents to die.

Personal Paragraphs. Some Concern Herald Readers; All are of Interest.

Mr. W. E. Stewart left Monday night for Fort McLeod. Robert Owens, of the Detroit Casket Company, returned home yesterday, after visiting his friend, John Hughes, Green Street.

DEATH OF THE QUEEN. The weary vigil at Osborne House has ceased. Earthly royalty has yielded up its sceptre and passed into a higher Court. The longest and most illustrious reign in the world's history is at an end. The Queen is dead.

Surrounded by her loved children and devoted attendants, with her loyal subjects in every quarter of the globe watching in spirit a glorious, epoch-making transition, with the civilized world looking sympathetically on, loved and revered by her people, honored by sister nations, at peace with God, Queen Victoria departed this life at 6:30 p.m. to-day.

The watches by the Royal bedside have gone. Worn out nature craved rest and the dead Queen is alone. No one is left to pay her tribute to the angel of Faith. "I am the Resurrection and the Life," he says, and in the spirit of his utterance a sorrowing Empire kneels and prays for that righteousness that exalteth a nation.

How truly Victorian reigns in the hearts of her people, the profound sorrow that to-day fills every hamlet in the Empire eloquently attests. Her thousand claims to reverence, of which Thompson says "she has the right to be remembered," are now that the curtain has fallen on her illustrious life and reign. It is the universal experience of humanity that only when we have lost or are about to lose a benefactor or a friend, do his virtues and our obligations and causes for gratitude assume their proper perspective.

Contemporaneous opinion it is said is never just to a great figure in the drama of human affairs. When the storms of passion and prejudice have ceased to beat and the historian of another period takes up his pen then and then only, we are told, can the true measure of a great character be taken. For the record of Victoria's life we may confidently consult the annals of her time.

Her Majesty's Death Expected at any Moment. Coves, Jan. 22, (noon).—The news from Osborne House confirms the belief of every one that the death of Her Majesty is imminent and its announcement at any moment would not be a surprise. Beyond the newspaper correspondents few persons are about the gates of the royal residence. Mounted messengers from Osborne ride through Coves at intervals at breakneck speed sending all the latest tidings to officials and foreign courts.

HER CLOSING HOURS. The Morning's Bulletins From the Death Chamber. HER STRENGTH DIMINISHING. London, Jan. 22.—8:37 a.m.—An official bulletin, issued at Osborne House at 8 o'clock, says: "The Queen this morning shows signs of diminishing strength and Her Majesty's condition again assumes a more serious aspect."

THE BISHOP'S OPINION. Coves, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—Noon.—The Bishop of Winchester has just left Osborne House. He says the end is not immediately expected.

AN EMPIRE MOURNS ITS ILLUSTRIOUS RULER.

Her Majesty the Queen Passed Away at 6.30 To-Day.

THE GLORIOUS VICTORIAN ERA HAS AT LAST ENDED

Queen Said Affectionate Farewells to Her Children at Noon, Whispering a Few Words of Courage and Consolation to Each.

THE QUEEN IS DEAD. London, Jan. 22.—7:03 p.m.—A telegram from the Prince of Wales to the Lord Mayor is as follows:—"Osborne, 6:45 p.m.—My beloved mother has just passed away surrounded by her children and grandchildren. (Signed) ALBERT EDWARD."

WAITING FOR THE END. Her Majesty's Death Expected at any Moment.

Coves, Jan. 22, (noon).—The news from Osborne House confirms the belief of every one that the death of Her Majesty is imminent and its announcement at any moment would not be a surprise.

Coves, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—The Queen is said to have bid farewell at mid-day in a table assembled at her bedside.

HER BUSY LIFE. London Newspapers' Comments on the Dead Queen. London, Jan. 22.—The papers devote columns of space to historical and personal reminiscences and the scenes and incidents of the Queen's life.

STRICT SECRECY IMPOSED. Coves, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—With the members of the Royal family gathered at the Queen's bedside, the Bishop of Winchester and the rector of Whippingham read the prayers for those on extremity.

ANCIENT CEREMONIES. Preparations in London for the Proclamation of a New Monarch. London, Jan. 22.—At the offices of the Lord Chamberlain, St. James' Palace and of the City Remembrancer of the Guildhall, and at the College of Heralds the officials were busy preparing for the formalities which for the first time in a generation are to occur—the proclaiming of a new ruler of the United Kingdom and India.

THE MORN BULLETIN. London, Jan. 22.—1 p.m.—The official bulletin, issued at Osborne House at noon to-day, says there has been no change for the worse in the Queen's condition since this morning's bulletin.

THE END VERY NEAR. Coves, Jan. 22, 4 p.m.—The end is very near. The Prince of Wales has not left the vicinity of the Queen's bedroom since 9 a.m. Emperor William and all the Royal family are near Her Majesty's bedside.

QUEEN SLOWLY SINKING. London, Jan. 22.—4:21 p.m.—An official bulletin from Osborne, timed 4 p.m., says the Queen is slowly sinking.

THE LORD MAYOR APPRISED. London, Jan. 22, 4:35 p.m.—A bulletin posted at the Mansion House read as follows:—"Osborne, 4 p.m.—My painful duty obliges me to inform you that the life of Our Beloved Queen is the greatest danger. (Signed) POWELL."

MESSAGE FROM THE PHYSICIANS. Osborne House, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—6:45.—"Her Majesty the Queen breathed her last at 6:30 p.m., surrounded by her children and grandchildren." (Signed) JAMES REID, R. DOUGLAS POWELL, THOMAS BARLOW.

HER BUSY LIFE. London Newspapers' Comments on the Dead Queen. London, Jan. 22.—The papers devote columns of space to historical and personal reminiscences and the scenes and incidents of the Queen's life.

STRICT SECRECY IMPOSED. Coves, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—With the members of the Royal family gathered at the Queen's bedside, the Bishop of Winchester and the rector of Whippingham read the prayers for those on extremity.

ANCIENT CEREMONIES. Preparations in London for the Proclamation of a New Monarch. London, Jan. 22.—At the offices of the Lord Chamberlain, St. James' Palace and of the City Remembrancer of the Guildhall, and at the College of Heralds the officials were busy preparing for the formalities which for the first time in a generation are to occur—the proclaiming of a new ruler of the United Kingdom and India.

THE MORN BULLETIN. London, Jan. 22.—1 p.m.—The official bulletin, issued at Osborne House at noon to-day, says there has been no change for the worse in the Queen's condition since this morning's bulletin.

THE END VERY NEAR. Coves, Jan. 22, 4 p.m.—The end is very near. The Prince of Wales has not left the vicinity of the Queen's bedroom since 9 a.m. Emperor William and all the Royal family are near Her Majesty's bedside.

QUEEN SLOWLY SINKING. London, Jan. 22.—4:21 p.m.—An official bulletin from Osborne, timed 4 p.m., says the Queen is slowly sinking.

MESSAGE FROM THE PHYSICIANS. Osborne House, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—6:45.—"Her Majesty the Queen breathed her last at 6:30 p.m., surrounded by her children and grandchildren." (Signed) JAMES REID, R. DOUGLAS POWELL, THOMAS BARLOW.

