

Calendar

Wednesday, June 15

Marlene Tibbs discusses methods of birth control, Malton library, 2 p.m., and there are stories for preschoolers at the same time.

Mississauga Recreation and Parks Department is offering fine art instruction for children.

The participants spend one day per week on a field trip exploring the aesthetics of local points of interest and the other day in-class developing and building upon the work done outdoors. Drawing materials are supplied.

Classes are being held at Malton Community Centre with "in-class days" on Mondays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and field trips on Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to noon, July 4 to 25.

At Burnhamthorpe Community Centre, classes are also Mondays and Wednesdays, July 4 to 25, with a field trip day Monday, 9:30 a.m. to noon and class day on Wednesday, 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Lorne Park Hall holds class day on Tuesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. and field trip days on Thursdays from 9:30 a.m. to noon, July 5 to 26.

The fee is $18 for four weeks (eight classes) and the ages are from 10 to 14.

Register in person or by mail at The City of Mississauga Recreation and Parks Department, 55 City Centre Drive, UNIVAC Building, 8th Floor, Mississauga or call 279-7600, extension 209 for further information.

Emily Martin tells how to entertain with Australian wine, Burnhamthorpe library, 2:15 p.m.

After-school films at Woodlands library include Georgie to the Rescue, Little Mermaid and Hercules, 4 p.m.

Bookworm International Club meets at Burnhamthorpe library, 4 p.m.

Guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities is John Morrhouse, director of Etobicoke Education Clinic for Children with Specific Learning Disabilities. The meeting is at 8 p.m. at Sheridan Villa drop-in centre, 2460 Truscott Dr. Child-assessment programs will be discussed. Everyone welcome.

Cloverleaf Garden Club holds a meeting today at Mineola Public School, 8:15 p.m. The film, A Sense of Humus, will be shown. Al Veri is moderator. There will also be a talk on Conditioning Flowers for a Home Show by Mrs. C. P. Mentis. In addition, there will be a flower show. Everyone is welcome.

Thursday, June 16

Joan Rollings of Credit Valley Conservation Authority discusses her work, Woodlands library, 10 a.m.

Douglas G. Hunter of Oakville demonstrates the art of jewelry-making, Malton library, 10:30 a.m.

Port Credit library's Moppet Club meets at 10:30 a.m., and there's a coffee session for adults at the same time.

Stories for preschoolers, are told at Lakeview library, 10:30 a.m.

Emily Martin tells how to entertain with Australian wine, Burnhamthorpe library, 2:15 p.m.

Family films at Burnhamthorpe library, 7:15 p.m., include Crunchbird, and Musie.

Friday, June 17

Pine Plus has framed mirrors, tiffany lamps and other items on display at Central library, to July 8.

Family films at Central library, 8 p.m., include A Walk in the Forest, An Old Box, Kontiki Kids, and Rosie's Walk.

Mississauga Lioness Club members start their annual food booth at Square One Shopping Centre in conjunction with the farmers' market. The market is open every Friday until the end of October from noon to 9:30 p.m. Food booth opens today at 3 p.m.

Kiwanis Club of Mississauga is holding a white elephant sale today and tomorrow at Applewood Plaza. For pickup of any sale items, call 277-1348, 277-0283 or 277-4486.

A coffee session is held every Friday evening at the Ecumenical Centre, Square One Shopping Centre, and features gospel group.

Sunday, June 19

Peel Museum and Art Gallery, 7 Wellington St. in Brampton, presents a demonstration of quilting techniques by Malton Craft Guild from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Participants can also view the usual art and artifacts on display in the museum. There is parking behind the building.

Saturday, June 18

Kids' Time takes place at Woodlands library, 10 a.m.

The Point is on screen at Burnhamthorpe library, 10:30 a.m., for youngsters.

Rookie of the Year is on screen for youngsters at Central library, 10:30 a.m.

Lakeview library has fun for youngsters, 10:30 a.m.

Members of the Christina Pora Classical School of Ballet perform tonight at Port Credit Secondary School at 8 p.m. Guest artist is Nancy Wittewall, a former student of the ballet school and now a member of the National Ballet.

Britannia Fair is being held today at Britannia School House on Highway 10, just north of Eglinton Avenue. It will open with a bake sale at 11 a.m., followed by a country auction, 1 p.m. New and used items will be featured. There are snacks, plant tables, crafts, fish pond and pony rides. All welcome.

Monday, June 20

Mississauga's Meals on Wheels volunteers are holding Out to Lunch today. Meals on Wheels is a support service providing hot meals to the elderly, chronically ill, handicapped and the convalescent. It's a non-profit service, with over 2,000 volunteers. This year certain members of the Canadian Restaurant Association will provide a set menu lunch on June 20 for $3, with proceeds going to Meals on Wheels. Information for the names of participating restaurants and tickets are available by calling 961-3885.

Tuesday, June 21

Family Camping and Point Pelee are on screen at Woodlands library, 10 a.m.

The Family Prince, a film about Prince Charles, is on screen at Central library, 7:30 p.m.

Meadowvale West Preschool Association plans to raise funds for its fall activities through craft classes. The classes begin today and women will make one item to take home and one item to give to the Association for its craft sale in September. Classes are free and materials are sold at cost. Classes start at 9:30 a.m. at Blue State Development Centre on Copenhaven Road in Meadowvale and run every other Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. Babysitting is provided. For more information, phone Susan Roberts at 826-6693.

Wednesday, June 22

Parents who want to enrol their youngsters in storyhours for preschoolers in the fall at Burnhamthorpe library should make arrangements now at the children's department.

After-school films at Woodlands library includes March of the Wooden Soldiers, 4 p.m.

Bookworm International Club meets at Burnhamthorpe library, 4 p.m.

There's a general meeting of the Meadowvale West Preschoolers Association at Meadowvale West Pavilion, Mississauga Road, 8 p.m.

Clubs and events

Single parents—The Sherway chapter of One Parent Families Association of Canada will have a family picnic at Bronte Provincial Park on June 19 and goes to Metro Caravan on June 17. There's a Spring Fever Dance at the new Olympium on June 18. Any single parents interested in joining the association should call 255-1014. There are also chapters in Oakville (844-9134), and Brampton (453-9637).

Lions barbeque—Streetsville Lions Club holds its annual steak barbeque June 18.

Citizenship—The Mobile Unit for the Court of Canadian Citizenship plans to take applications for citizenship at Square One Shopping Centre in Mississauga on June 22. All applications may be made by appointment only. Phone 966-8001 between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. for an appointment.

Regatta—Mississauga Canoe Club holds its 18th annual regatta June 25 and 26 on the Credit River at Port Credit. There will be kayak, canoe and row-boat races. Some of the paddlers are Canadian champions, who have represented Canada in world events. Among them is Olympic Silver medalist John Wood. Action starts at 10 a.m.

Jubilee film—The King who Loved His Family is on the screen at Central library at 7:30 p.m., June 28. It's part of a series about the Royal Family to mark the Queen's Jubilee.

Training course—Peel Region YMCA

the Brampton campus at 459-7533.

Volunteers needed—Volunteers are required to help in the Canadian Special Olympics for the Mentally Handicapped to be held at Oaklands Centre, in Oakville on June 16, 17 and 18. Volunteers are needed to set up equipment and to help transport athletes who will be coming to Oakville from all over Ontario. Transportation will be provided. For more information, phone 275-4299. Teenagers are welcome.

Gymnastics—Humber College is conducting gymnastics programs for those between the ages of eight and 17. Olympics-standard equipment will be used. The summer program begins on July 4. For more information, phone 252-5571.

Jewish communities—Humber College in co-operation with the Association of Jewish Senior Clubs is conducting a summer series of six discussions on Jewish Communities of the World: Past and Present. The series starts on July 6 and runs from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., Shaarei Shomayim Synagogue, Bathurst and Glencairn. Registration is $8. Phone 675-3111, extension 554 or 241 for information.

Mass Rally—African National Congress holds a mass rally and march at Queen's Park at 11 a.m. Saturday, June 18. There's a meeting for Women Against Apartheid at 7:30 p.m., June 20 at 33 St. George St., Toronto. June 26 is South Africa Freedom Day and there's a cultural performance at 7:30 p.m., St. Paul's Centre, 121 Avenue Rd., Toronto.

Churches

Celebration—Erindale United Church will hold its Centennial Summer Celebration on June 18 from 2 p.m. until midnight. Dress in the period costume of 1877. Admission is $15 for a family, $4 for adults, $2 for children. Afternoon events include a plant sale, pie-and bread-baking contest and white elephant sale. There will be concession booths, a fish pond, peanut scramble, pony rides, a band shell and horseshoe pit, hymn sing, barbeque and dancing.

Bazaar—St. Hugh and St. Edmund Anglican Church, Goreway Drive, Malton is holding an open house and bazaar on Saturday, June 25 from 10 a.m. There will be hand-made items, bake table, candy and a white elephant sale. Tea, coffee and sandwich plates will be available as a light lunch. Come and visit us in our new church.

Last Service—Members and friends of Sheridan United Church, 2501 Truscott Dr., are reminded that June 26 is the last service that the Rev. Donald Amos will be conducting at the Church. Many events have occurred in the 2½ years he has been with the church, including his work in overseeing the construction of the new building. The service begins at 11 a.m. and will be followed by a get-together.

Picnic—St. Peter's Church in Erindale is holding a parish picnic June 19 after the 10 a.m. service. The picnic will be behind the Springbank Community Centre and in the church hall. There will be food, prizes, races and games. The church will also hold a campout, June 24, 25 and 26 at Terra Cotta Conservation Area. Activities include singsongs, marshmallow roasts and baseball games. To reserve a camp spot, phone the church at 277-3251.

Marygrove Camp—Any girl nine to 14, wishing to go to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Marygrove Camp should contact her local parish or phone 461-1437.

Cobalt fund—Streetsville United Church is organizing the Cobalt Relief Fund to give assistance to the 400 people who were left homeless after the big fire last month. For every $1 raised, the government will give $4 toward rebuilding the town. Donations should be sent to the Cobalt Relief Fund, Streetsville United Church, 274 Queen Street S., Streetsville, L5M 1L8. Donations are income tax deductible, include your address for a receipt.

Take-a-Break—Rehobeth Christian Reformed Church, 800 Burnhamthorpe Rd., holds Take-a-Break sessions for women on Thursdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:15 a.m. The sessions include rhythmic, book discussions, coffee and Bible study. There is a children's program at the same time. No fee and everyone is welcome. For more information, phone 625-1794 or 622-0094.

Musicians needed—St. Christopher's Church is looking for more musicians for their 9 a.m. Folk Mass. Call 822-9909.

Picnic—St. Paul's Anglican Church will hold a picnic on June 26 at Shell House in Oakville at 11 a.m. The picnic will begin with an open-air service. Lunch is at 12:30 p.m., with games to follow.

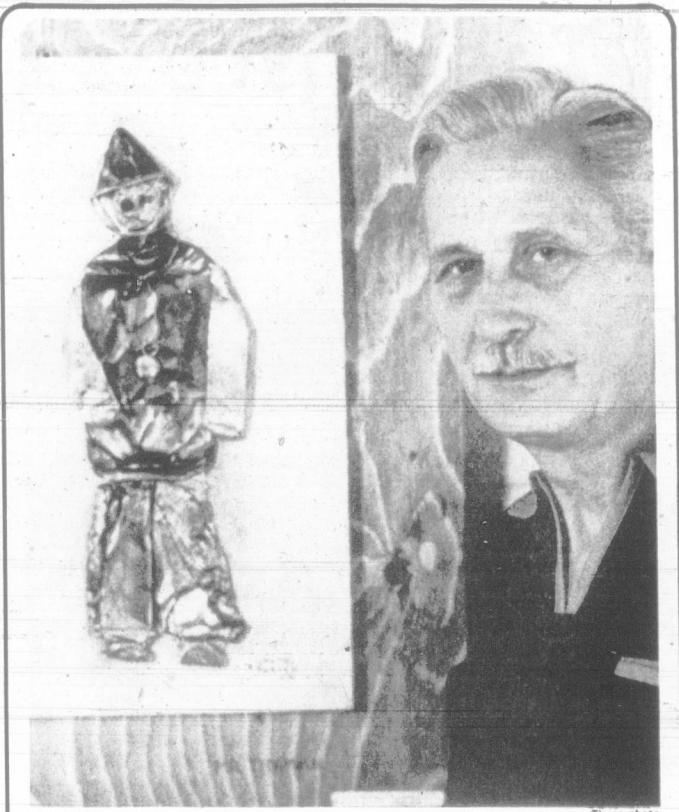

Induction—The induction of Rev. Earl Gerber by the Venerable T. A. Wilkinson will be held at Trinity Anglican Church tonight (June 15) at 8 p.m. Rev. Desmond Hunt will preach.

Bible school—The Church of St. Mark's Lutheran will hold a Vacation Bible School July 4 to 15, from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. each day. Classes are for three- to 13-year-olds. For information, phone 278-2122.

Outdoor Services—The Salvation Army Mississauga Temple holds outdoor services at Port Credit Memorial Park Sunday evenings, beginning June 19 at 7 p.m. Everyone is invited.

Risen Christ—Risen Christ Lutheran Church holds a picnic on June 19 at Glen Hafley Park.

Special Supper—An anniversary supper will be held at Trinity United Church, Airport Road, Malton from 4:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Adults, $2.75 and children, $1.50.

Martin White-Beaven of Oakes Drive in Mississauga is exhibiting graphic and tin-sculpture art at the Valhalla Inn until July 5. White-Beaven, who studied graphic art in England, utilizes scrap metal in his art works.

Festival performers

The Mississauga Summer Arts and Crafts Festival, which takes place on Saturday, June 25 and Sunday, June 26 will feature an extensive program of music and dancing:

- The Syncona Steel Band offers calypso music on Saturday.
- Students from the Kelso Music Centre in Oakville will play chamber music on Sunday.
- La Belle Brass, a quartet of girls, will play traditional popular music on the saxophone, trombone and trumpet on Saturday.
- The Mississauga Chapter of the S.P.E.B.S.Q.A., comprising 20 members, will put on a program of barbershop singing on Saturday.
- The Canadian legion Branch 66 Pipe Band, under the direction of Pipe Major Angus MacRae, will entertain on Saturday.

- Dancers from the Ukrainian community in Toronto will put on a program both Saturday and Sunday.
- The McCuskey School of Irish Dancing on Sunday and the Mississauga Scottish Country Dancers on Saturday will provide Gaelic dancing.

Over 150 artists and craftspeople will be participating in the festival at Erindale Campus, 3359 Mississauga Road, north of Dundas Street.

Festival times: June 25, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.; June 26, noon to 6 p.m. Admission is $1 for adults, 25 cents for children.

For further information, phone 279-7600.

Performing arts

Symphony tickets—Subscriptions tickets are now available for the Mississauga Symphony's 1978 season. The series includes three concerts: Russian Idyll, Opera Highlights and the Musical Impressionists of France. The concerts will be given on Saturday nights and Sunday afternoons. For further information and order forms, phone the symphony at 274-1571.

Kelso camp—The Kelso Quartet Camp presents chamber music at Erindale College today (June 15) and June 20 at 7:30 p.m. Demonstrations will be given by the Vaghy Quartet at The Meeting Place, Erindale College, June 18 and June 26 at 8 p.m. For more information, phone 844-3543.

Seniors

Vacation—Cawthra Senior Citizens' Centre is organizing a five-day vacation to Cedar Glen Conference Centre from Aug. 21 to Aug. 26. The cost of $60 per person includes accommodation, meals and a special program. For applications, contact the centre at 274-2369. Reservations are limited.

Information—A 24-hour information service is available to seniors in this area by calling 451-0500. In addition, a free directory of services for seniors has been prepared. Copies are available at the Cawthra Senior Citizens' Centre. Call 274-2369 for more information.

Scouts, guides

Fund raising — The 1st Erindale Scouts are selling heavy-duty garbage bags to raise money to send representatives to Prince Edward Island for the National Jamboree. A package of 50 costs $5. For free delivery in the Woodlands area, phone 270-2770 or 279-7835 after 4 p.m. Meanwhile, Scouts in the Meadowvale area are raising funds for the P.E.I. trip by planting trees. For more information, phone 826-4872.

Openings — The Mississauga Summer Camp for Cubs and Scouts at Camp Ravasac near Orangeville still has a few openings. The camp features swimming, hiking, archery, crafts, as well as opportunities to work on badges. Tents are used for sleeping, but meals are served in a central dining hall. The fee of $55 per week includes transportation by bus from Mississauga to the camp and return. Camp periods begin and end on Mondays. For further information, contact the Mississauga Scout Office at 279-2729 between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. before June 25. After 25, call 274-4081.

Meeting, Dinner — The Annual General Meeting and Dinner for Scouting will be held at the Newport Towers on June 22. The dinner and meeting are open to any registered member of Boy Scouts of Canada in the Mississauga District. For more information, phone the Scout Office at 279-2729. Any Scouts who earned their Chief Scout Award between September, 1976 and May, 1977 are invited to be guests at the dinner. Their parents may also attend, but must pay $6 for dinner.

Leaders needed — The C.G.I.T. group at Clarkson Road Presbyterian Church is looking for leaders. Phone 822-8911 for more information.

Office to close — The Scout Office will close for the summer on June 21 and reopen on Sept. 6 at 1 p.m.

Fertilizer — In an attempt to raise funds, Scouts in Mississauga are selling organic fertilizer. For more information, phone 279-7369.

A TIME FOR SENIORS

Seniors Week — June 19 to 25 is Senior Citizens' Week. The theme is Festival of the Arts. Events include Mississauga Day at the Blue Jays game on June 19; a buffet and dance at the Cawthra Senior Citizens Centre on June 20; seniors' day at the movies at Square One Shopping Centre on June 22; an open house and demonstrations at the Cawthra centre on June 23; and a regional dance, and chicken barbeque in Malton on June 29. For further information, phone the Cawthra centre at 274-2369.

HARBORFRONT
The United Senior Citizens Clubs of Ontario have also organized a series of events at the Ice House, Toronto Harbourfront, York Quay:

- June 20-22—Art display.
- June 20, 2:30 p.m.—Square dancing.
- June 21, 11 a.m.—Cawthra Senior Citizens fitness demonstration.
- June 22, 11 a.m.—Woodgreen Community Centre, Tai Chi demonstration.
- June 23, 11 a.m.—Second Mile Club, Fitness Feat.
- June 21, 1 p.m.-4 p.m.—Mississauga seniors, crafts.
- June 22, 1 p.m.-4 p.m.—North York Centre, Woodgreen, Friendly Group, Wagman Centre, Sheppard Lodge, crafts.
- June 23, 1 p.m.-4 p.m.—Centre for Creative Living, St. Christopher House, crafts.
- June 21, 22, 23, 1:30 p.m.-2:30 p.m.—Special crafts demonstrations.
- June 21, 2:30 p.m.-3:30 p.m.—Cawthra Park Seniors Choir.
- June 22, 2:30 p.m.-3:30 p.m.—North York Centre for Seniors, music.
- June 23, 2:30 p.m.-3:30 p.m.—Centre for Creative Living, music.
- June 21, 7:30 p.m.—Settlement Dancers, folk dance demonstrations.
- June 21, 7:45 p.m.-11 p.m.—Folk dance participation.
- June 21, 7 p.m.—Poetry reading.
- June 21, 8:30 p.m.—Dorothy Livesay.
- June 24, 7:30 p.m.—Harborfront Square Dancing Association.

Here's a list of the blood clinics being held in Mississauga over the next few days:

Thursday, June 16—Clarkson Road Presbyterian Church, Clarkson Road North, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. to 8:15 p.m.

Monday, June 20—Port Credit Legion Hall, 35 Front St. N., 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. to 8:15 p.m.

Tuesday, June 21—Control Data Ltd., 1855 Minnesota Court, Streetsville, 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Wednesday, June 22—Toronto International Airport, Airport Road, Malton from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Friday, June 24—Dominion Court, Square One Shopping Centre, City Centre Drive, 1 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

YWCA will conduct a leadership training course for people 14 to 16 years of age as part of its summer day-camp program at the Kelso Conservation Area. The program has been designed to develop the participants' attitudes, skills, and insights in the area of working with younger children, as well as to increase their personal leadership and teaching skills. The program consists of two four-week sessions commencing July 4 and Aug. 1. The program will cover child behavior and development, first aid, life saving and working with groups. Registration for the program is limited. For further information, contact the Y at 451-1400.

Toy Chest—Humber College's Travelling Toy Chest will soon be on the road. This mobile toy-lending project for developmentally handicapped children is in need of toys for its visits in Peel Region. If you have any toys that are in reasonable condition and would like to donate them, contact the Humber Developmental Centre, North Campus, Etobicoke.

CN Tour—Single Parents Association of Etobicoke and Mississauga will tour the CN Tower on June 19. The group holds monthly meetings, dances, card parties and has bowling activities for the family. Any single parents interested in joining the organization should call 741-4636 or 678-2371.

Streetsville Lions—The new president of Streetsville Lions is Don Fogg. The Lions will hold a steak barbeque on June 18.

Camping Trip—The Sheridan College is offering a five-day environmental course and camping trip to Algonquin Park beginning June 22. The course is open to anyone and begins with a pre-trip class June 22 with films and discussions. Students will be expected to complete at least two separate readings on environmental topics. The trip to Algonquin Park is Sept. 6 to 10. Guides are Makela and Peter Ward of the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources. There will be visits to historic sites, a pioneer logging exhibit and a three-day canoe trip with instruction in orienteering and basic camping and cooking, as well as hiking, fishing and plant and animal studies. An essay of the experience is required following the trip. Cost is $25 for full-time Sheridan students and $60 for others. This includes transportation, cost of food and equipment. For more information, call