

The second payment appears to have been made at Ottawa by Mrs Carson, and the next by the auctioneer, Mr G. J. Gale (since deceased) on behalf of Mrs Carson; and the last payment was re-mitted to the Indian Office Toronto by Mrs Carson in a letter dated April 1868.

Mr Plummer further reports that he is informed that George, the eldest son of Mrs Carson, does not appear to be a party to the document signed by the other members of the family consenting to the issue of Patent to their Mother; and he has been given to understand that the said

(3)