Ottawa, August 12th, 1913.

Sir,-

136

Referring to your letter of the 31st October last relative to the children of the Indian woman of Assabasca Band who was drowned in the Rainy River, I beg to state that the two older children who are already in Treaty may be sent to the Elkhorn Industrial School if they are Protestant or Pagan, and the illegitimate children who are being cared for by relatives may be admitted to Treaty but without arrears of annuity.

Your obedient servant,

 Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

R. S. McKenzie, Esq.,
 Indian Agent,
 Kenora, Ont.
