

we praise God that during the past thirty-five years, such ministry has always been possible; our God has supplied all our need, and has withheld no good thing.

All the expenses of the Mission at home and abroad are met by voluntary contributions, sent to the officers of the Mission without personal solicitation by those who wish to aid in this effort to spread the knowledge of the Gospel throughout China.

Some of the missionaries having private property have gone out at their own expense, and do not take anything from the Mission funds.

Three hundred and ninety-four stations and out-stations have been opened and occupied either by missionaries or native labourers. Since 1865, 12,964 converts have been baptized; and there are now (1900) 8,557 communicants in fellowship. Current information may be obtained from our monthly paper, China's Millions, the North American edition of which can be had from the Offices of the Mission, 507 Church Street, Toronto, Canada.

A public prayer meeting for the work in China is held every Friday from 8 to 9.30 p. m. at the Mission Home, 507 Church Street, Toronto. All friends are cordially invited to attend this meeting and to help us in prayer and otherwise.
