

is the special property of its author, particularly that part which provides Insurance for the Estate of a deceased Member by the assessment of the Class rate upon the surviving Members, conjointly with an endowment for the existing Members at the close of the Class period, as already described.

---