

Mr. John Wilson is fast recovering from his illness.

A blacksmithshop has been opened on Peter street by George Bradley, work performed by E. Obediah, a competent workman.

The proposed bonus for a bakery has again been laid aside. We regret this, and hope it may be reconsidered at an early date.

Well now! who would have thought. Is it possible! one could hardly think imagine that such a thing could ever happen! but it really is there, or at any rate, bills were out which read—'Bicycle races base ball and lacross matches to take place at Ohsweken, and a neat little prize is offered. This goes to show that there is life at the village of Ohsweken and only requires wakening up occasionally to make that place of amusement; no reason why it should not be so the villagers have the grounds and every possible accommodation for sportsman.

We are happy to state that our esteemed citizen John Wilson is now very near like himself again. He has had a long spell of illness.

A blacksmith shop has been opened up on Peters street by Geo. Bradley. Worked performed by E. Obediah a competent workman.

The application for a bonus for a bakery fitted by our city clerk again been postponed, owing to some misunderstanding in the purposed agreement. We regret to lose him and we think our council had better come to some conclusion at an early date.

Perhaps it would be well and advisable for our health officer to betake himself around the newly opened blacksmithshop and make a thorough inspection. There is a shelter there for a fourfooted beast, one that is very much given to grunting and not at all pleasant to be around that abode. We are of the opinion that an order for its removal would be issued immediately.

Labor day was duly observed by our citizens. Reports reached us that at Caledonia, the police had stop men at work and compel them to take a holiday in accordance with law, and intended for the laboring men. The sheriff and chief chief of police were around, but were unable to catch any one at work. Everything was quiet and everybody taking a holiday.

We were simply not in it at the base-ball matches the other day at Ohsweken. Our boys were too confident of an easy victory. There is another match to come off yet in which our team will contest and then our fate as base ball players will be finally decided.

There was a picnic, ball playing and a grand tea meeting at night held in our park several days ago, under the management of our base-ball team, and the committee in charge report it a success. There was a street procession, headed by the Victoria Brass Band, the route taken was from the park down Monture street, up Johnson street and back to the park by Tecumseh street. Everyone enjoyee themselves.

Will some one in charge of east ward see that the bridge at the foot of Johnson street be attended to; it is rather a risky bridge, and we are positive the ratepayers would object to paying damages for the negligence of city officials.

There was a very succesful bush prayer meeting held in our park, on Sunday the first inst, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Howard, of Hagersville, Rev. Mr. Stringfellow, New Credit, Rev. Wm. Walker, of Grand River and Joseph F. Monture. The meeting was largely attended.

We were informed that a party cyclists from Brantford made a visit to Ohsweken, and took several views. We have the promise of a visit also, at an early date.

Mr and Mrs James Martin were the guests of Mr J. C. Martin, on Sunday last.

Min. Wilson, of Moraviantown, is visiting his brother, Mr. John Wilson.

Our band marched the base-ball team into the grounds, at Ohsweken, where they went to play. Perhaps it was to give them courage. They were too confident and lost the game. They were only beaten by one score by one team and two scores by another team.

Many of our neighbors went up to attend the church services at St. John's on the 25th of August, they report large congregations at both morning and afternoon services, who came from all the Church of England mission stations on the Reserve. The object of the union services is to make the people feel that they are one in religious interests, although having different places of worship.

Some from here also attended the Union Church picnic, held by the same church at the Delaware picnic grounds on the 29th of the same month. The impression is that the proceedings are not quite up to the usual standing owing perhaps to some part of the arrangements failing to connect. It is expected that St. John's will be chosen next year as the place for the annual gathering.
