

"Form 6 Certificate for registration."

"Style of Court and cause."

"Date....."

"I certify that the above named Plaintiff has commenced an action in this above Court to enforce against the following land (describing it) a claim of mechanic's lien for $....."

"C'est encore le paragraphe 2, de l'art. 24, du chap. 153, du recueil des lois refondus de 1897, qui dit:

"Every lien which has been duly registered under the provisions of the Act shall absolutely cease to exist after the expiration of ninety days after the work or service has been completed or materials have been furnished or placed or the expiry of the period of credit, where such period is mentioned in the claim of lien registered, unless, in the mean time an action is commenced to realize the claim under the provisions of this Act, or an action is commenced in which the claim may be realized under the provisions of this Act, any certificate registered as required by the next preceeding section."

"Ainsi parle la section 23, du chap. 126 du recueil des lois refondues de 1887.

"Ainsi parle la section 20 du chap. 120 du recueil des lois refondues de 1877.

"La section 4, du chap. 27, de la loi de 1873, dit, à son tour: "Such lien shall absolutely cease to exist within ninety days after such work shall have been completed or material, or machinery furnished, or the expiry of the period of credit, unless in the mean time proceedings shall have been executed to realize such a claim under the provisions hereinafter contained, and a certificate of lis pendens thereof be registered in the proper registry office, which certificate may be granted by the Judge or Court before whom the proceedings are instituted."

De pareilles formalités, dit-on, n'existent pas dans