MARKETS.

Produce Markets.

The English quotations at latest report showed a fall of 6d on flour; 1s on red, white and club wheat, and 1s 6d on corn. Montreal market very unsettled, and prices tending downwards. Chicago was rather higher than at the last market. New York market was slightly firmer. The Toronto market was very dull, and prices slightly weaker in consequence of the fall in England. No sales having been reported, the prices must be considered almost nominal, with a downward tendency.

Oats—The market for oats continues firm. Some lots were sold at 57c. on the track, and smaller lots as high as 65c., bagged and delivered.

Barley—Prices unchanged.

London, Ont. Market.

Receipts are as yet very light, and purchasers seem indifferent about buying any grain except oats, which are in active request for local consumption. Hay is in fair demand; prices for new, $8 to $10; for old, $12 to $14. White wheat, $2 to $2.10; red, $1.90 to $2. Spring wheat, $2.10 to $2.15. Barley, $1. Oats, $1.65 to $1.75. Feas, $1.15. Corn, $1.40. Eggs, 15c. to 16c. Butter—kg, 17c. to 19c.; rolls, 18c. to 22c. Cheese—dairy, 10c. to 11c. Oatmeal, per 100 lbs., $2.50 to $3. Potatoes—old, per 60 lbs., 80c.; new $1. Supplies of produce of every description are, as may be expected, very light, and prices variable and almost nominal. As yet we see not much prospect for high prices.

The reports of crops, as far as heard from, are encouraging, though in sections of the country where this great drought has prevailed, the potato crop will not be as heavy as was at one time anticipated.

Requires but two horse power; either horse or steam; and bales either hay or cotton without tramping or stopping. Thirty bales of hay per hour discharged without assistance. Twenty bales of cotton per hour, packed, or covered by the machine without assistance.

Cards inserted in this list for one dollar a line per year if paid in advance; $1.50 if in arrears.
