XV.—And be it further enacted, that all Penalties and Forfeitures recovered under this Act shall be divided, paid and applied as follows, that is to say—after deducting the charges of Prosecution and Sale from the produce thereof, one third part of the net produce shall be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the Colony, to be applied as the Legislature shall direct—one third part to the person who shall inform for the same—and the other third part to the Officer who shall seize and sue for the same. Penalties.

XVI.—And be it further enacted, that all Yachts sailing under warrant of the Lords of the Admiralty, as belonging to the Royal Yacht Club, be exempted, on view of the said warrant, from the payment of all local dues whatever, and that it shall and may be lawful for the said vessels, or any of them, to enter the several Ports in this Colony and depart therefrom, without obtaining an entrance or clearance at the Custom House. Vessels belonging to the Royal Yacht Club exempted from the payment of local dues, &c.

XVII.—And be it further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs to take such samples of any Goods as shall be necessary for ascertaining the amount of any duties payable on the same; and that all such samples, whether taken under the authority of this Act or of any former Act, shall be disposed of and accounted for in such manner as the Governor or Person administering the Government of this Island for the time being, shall, with the advice of Her Majesty's Council, direct. Samples of Goods liable to duty may be taken by Officers of Customs.

XVIII.—And be it further enacted, that this Act shall be in force from and after the Thirtieth day of June, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-One, for and during the period of one year, and no longer. Limitation.
