

owing n, and then carloads on the week, was more needed to supply the demand, especially following last week's heavy deliveries of cattle.

Prices were easier even than those paid at the Junction on Monday, as will be seen by reports of sales given below.
Exporters—Not many shipping cattle were on sale, and it was well that it was so, because the market for them was not nearly as good as at the Junction.
Prices ranged from $4.90 to $5.30, and $5.40 was reported for a few choice cattle, but no loads were reported at the latter price.

Butchers—Prices were decidedly lower all along the line. Picked lots $5 to $5.10, and lot of 4 choice cattle sold at $5.25; load of good, $4.60 to $4.90; medium, $4.40 to $4.55; cows, $3 to $4.30.

Milch Cows—Trade in milkers and Springers was fairly good, prices ranging from $35 to $60 each, and one choice cow was reported as being sold at $80.

Veal Calves—The run being large, prices were generally easy at $3 to $5.25 per cwt., with an odd choice quality calf at $6 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs—Export ewes sold at $6 to $6.50 per cwt; rams, $5 to $5.50; yearling lambs, $7.50 to $8 per cwt.; spring lambs, $3 to $7 each for the week, and a few picked heavy lambs at more money.

Hogs—The run was light. Mr. Harris quotes best at $6.75 per cwt. and selects at $6.50.

INTERESTING WILL CASE.

By the will of the late James Moir, of Osborne, he provided:—All residue of my property I give in equal shares to all my children except J., as she already had more than the others. Her share or a double share shall go to M." At the time of the making of the will, his children, eight in number, were all alive; thereafter, before his death his daughter M. died leaving issue. All the rest of the children survived him when he died in January, 1906. The executors moved for an order declaring the construction of the will, and at Toronto on Monday Jude Riddel held that the share that otherwise had gone to M. falls now to the other children, and six will share the residue equally.

tion at Mildmay.

When You Eat Too Fast—you have indigestion, perhaps cramps, or in any case the system is overloaded with matter that should be eliminated. Breath gets bad, eyes look dull, headaches are frequent.

Why not cleanse and purify the whole system, why not strengthen the stomach, enrich the blood and assist your overtaxed digestive organs? Easily done with Dr. Hamilton's Pills; their action is most gratifying. In every case they give the exact assistance the ailing organs require. You'll feel fit and fine, eat with a relish, sleep like a top, have a clear color, and restful sleep if you regulate your system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Price 25c per box at all dealers.

A faithful clergyman was exhorting his congregation over in Durham, so the story goes, but in spite of his efforts could not keep some of his audience from going to sleep. He paused, and then in a loud voice continued—"My friends, they are building a new railway through here and require a good deal of road bed and bridges. I think if they came out here to-day we could supply them with a few good sleepers." He then continued with an excellent discourse, for which he had the closest attention from all his hearers.

He was hurrying across a London station-yard, wrapped up in thought and a heavy overcoat, when his contemplative mood was brought to a sudden termination by a cab almost running over him.
Cabby pulled up his horse with a jerk, and gave his opinion in plain English about absent-minded people. "Couldn't you see the bloomin' 'oss?" he asked, with a withering glance. "See it!" gasped the pedestrian, looking contemplatively at the specimen between the shafts. Then he stepped on to the kerb.
"I didn't see your horse when I stood in front of him, but I can see something when I look at him sideways."

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault.
This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve —simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.
This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr.
Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.
If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment.
Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means stomach weakness, always. And the Heart and the Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr.
Shoop's Restorative has made its fame.
No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, appearing to be any evidence to sub-

Recently Richard Harrison and J.
Hinsperger, of Teeswater, pleaded guilty before J. K. McLean, J. P., of having violated the Liquor License Act, and were fined $50 and costs. Representations were made to the Department at Toronto that the evidence on which the complaints were made was obtained by spotters who pretended they were ill and had induced the hotelkeepers to violate the law. The Department has replied that the fines will be remitted as the detectives had no permission from headquarters to obtain liquor in that manner, but are simply to procure liquor where it is being sold openly and the seller apparently keeping open for the purpose of seeking trade.
