

CAVE-DWELLERS FORGOT CLOTHES

Colony Living Just Outside of Berlin, Germany, Dispersed by Police

ATTRACTED SIGHTSEERES
Leader Soon Spoiled Things by Trying to Reform the World, and Failed

BERLIN, May 31.—The colony of cave-dwellers of Berlin, which took the back-to-the-land doctrine so literally that scores of men, women, boys and girls dug caves for themselves in the banks of the Spree just out of Berlin and discarded all modern wearing apparel, has been dispersed by the police. The colony's leader, Dr. Heinrich Coudberg, argued before a magistrate that the experiment was a simple solution of the housing and cost of living problems.

The cave-dwellers began by discarding hats and shoes but soon decided to do away with clothing altogether and in this fashion disported themselves in the waters of the Spree, or sat about their cave doors munching black bread and sausages, apparently oblivious to the crowds of sight-seers which began to frequent the vicinity.

Dr. Goldberg from his abode in the "Cave of Zarathustra" issued circulars discussing the Nietzschean philosophy, anarchy, Communism, the faults of the present civilization and asking the rent-weary and the work-worn to "watch this colony grow."

Somebody spoiled the experiment by complaining that the brotherhood was having a deleterious effect upon public morals and calling attention to the doctor's career, which was said to have included efforts to reform England, Russia and Poland.

The colony has disappeared but its leader has become a familiar figure upon the streets of Berlin, wearing long hair and going barefoot.

GREEN FOR SPORTS

For the sports girl who would not be a whit behind the mode comes the whisper that green is the color for the links and court.

Knitted alpaca (and what old-time visions does that recall!) in brilliant green with straight chemise frock and long knitted cape is the smartest thing in feminine sport toggery.

Not a few of these garments are banded with china red silk from hip to border. The neck line is invariably collarless and the sleeves are of the short mandarin variety. These as well as the narrow green sirdle which knots loosely at the waist, are edged with china red.

The capes have a delightful neck treatment—a long scarf, attached and deeply fringed.

For suits, which desire a sporting air, nickel buttons are the latest conceit. They are found at the strapped pocket and belt and occasionally one finds the skirt which flirts below the jacket, of the knitted variety.

Soutache braid, of which there used to be miles used every season, is finding its place on the semi-sport suits.

Daughter May Receives Position Vacant By Death of Father

Renfrew—The Renfrew Mercury understands that there is a movement on foot, backed by several local organizations, to have Miss Mabel Wright appointed to the position made vacant by the death of her father, the late Orange Wright. Miss Wright is well fitted for the position. She is a graduate of Queen's University and has had eleven years' experience as her father's assistant, during the years when there has been a changing tariff to deal with. There are no details of the business with which she is not perfectly familiar. In all her work she has given uniform satisfaction. We understand that the appointment of Miss Wright would meet with the approval of a very large majority of the people of Renfrew.

Consumption

—alone and poor!

"CONSUMPTION!"

To a little milliner in a small Ontario village the doctor's word sounded like her death sentence.

"Rest," said the physician, "fresh air, sunshine and good food are the only medicines for you."

—but how empty his words sounded!

"Rest!"

To this girl—without a relative in the world—rest meant starvation.

Death stared her in the face— and then a ray of hope!

The woman she boarded with spoke of the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives—

If she could only get there?

She did—and now this young, pretty girl is well again.

Thousands of deserving cases such as this—poor sufferers who cannot afford to pay for their own treatment, make necessary the National Sanitarium Association's

Consumptives' Emergency Million Dollar Fund

Week—May 29 to June 4

The Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives, destroyed by fire on November 30th last, must be replaced by buildings, larger and fireproof.

Accommodation is needed at the Muskoka Free Hospital for 400 adults in early stages of the disease. This will restore 250 of them to their homes and loved ones—cured. The remainder will be greatly benefited.

A few months for each patient soon means thousands cared for. Funds are urgently needed for this work.

Again—adults in advanced stages must be treated at the King Edward Sanatorium on the banks of the Humber near Weston. Extensions are necessary. Many of these patients can be saved.

And again—little children—stricken with the dread disease—must be cared for at the Queen Mary Hospital for Consumptive Children near Weston. Ninety per cent. of these are saved to become healthy men and women.

Funds are urgently needed to cover the cost of extensions.

Further, funds are urgently needed to carry on the work of The Gage Institute in the City of Toronto, where the needy poor come for free examinations, including X-ray, and for medical and nursing assistance.

Fifteen thousand needy consumptives have been cared for to date at the hospitals conducted by the Association.
