

Norwegian Stocks	but is contain to make a great name	sors.	uay morning.	ollowing telegrams to-day:	Athens despatch.	terday.
	but is certain to make a great name	Afterwards when the ship was go-	* * *		······
The Eva arrived here to-lay.	for himself in his profession. The	ing to Patrick's Cove to complete	Velvet pencils for commercia	The S.S. Crowley left Botwood	Norwegian Ship	The "Susu" left Badger's Quay at
0	films that Mr. Rossley sent from	loading, trouble occurred on board.	use an12 tf
A well-known young lady of Plea-	New York were among the finest that	An offort was made by the crew to	V V V	erday with 4,100 tons pulp and	Sent to Bottom	9.15 this a.m., and is due here tomorsant Street while alighting from one	have ever been shown here and there	identify the man who informed the		haper.		row.
of the excursion trains Sunday night	is no doubt that the whole entertain-	Warden. There was a free fight, one	Capt. Rendell who came up com-	The following from Labrador	Christiania, Sept. 14 A Norwegian	The Portia left Curling at 3 a.m. stinned and fall and annained has log	ment is of the very highest excellence	warden. There was a free light, one	mander of the Lake Simcoe from	rrived at Trinity yesterday:	motor schooner laden with pit props	today for Dayna Day supped and ten and spramed her leg.			Barbados has been given command o'	'iligant, 100 qtls.; Easter Lilly,	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
Her injuries are painful and she is	and should not be missed by all class-	a chisel five times by an American	the Mildred. It is said that Cant	50; Bright Water, 550; Rose-	for England was torpedoed on Sunday	to-morrow.
	es of patrons. Mr. A. Clockel plesid-	seaman, and the sailor dangerously	Marshall will likely be appointed to		by a German submarine. 🖕
	ed at the plano with great accept	wounded had to be hurried to hospit-	the "Simcoe."	lear, 400; Primrose, 600; H.K.P.,	······	By the Mildred Capt. D. Robinson U can get Elastic Cement Roof-	ance to the artistes, and also played	al in Little Bay, while fearing his	* * *	0; and Empire, 150. All bring		will take over a crew to bring out a ing Paint in 1, 2, 5 and 10 gallon	with great discrimination and good	death, Magistrat Wells came quickly		ery bad reports of the Labrador		new vessel (a barquentine) recently tins from your dealer apl14,eod		from Dillov's Island to take an ante-	The members of the Loyarty Clut	hore fishery.	To Visit Trenches	purchased by Geo. M. Barr.
and Addit Jour demonstration		from Pilley's Island to take an ante-	to-night hold their nrst dance in the	The Little Gem sailed from	2
Wedding Dalls		mortem statement from the man. His	C. C. C. new hall. The full corp	irand Bank for Oporto yesterday	London, Sept. 14The Press Bur-	Arrived by S.S. Florizel: 40 Crates
Wedding Bells	Presentation To	assailant was arrested after much	band will furnish music and an en	ith 3,206 qtls. cod.
		trouble, by Const. Dewling.	joyable time will be given all wh	The S.S. Gallier left Horwood		California Plums, Pears, Grapes, 20
HUELIN-SEELEY	Ex-Inspector Collins	Then another row occurred on	attend.			cases Oranges, 5 cases Lemons, 40
A very pretty wedding was solemn-		board later when an officer of the	* * * *	or Barry yesterday with 3,300	workmen on a four days visit to the	bunches Bananas, 25 brls. American ized at St. James' Church, Channel,	Last night a number of the ser-	ship knocked out another seaman	Wallace's Chocolates R mo-	ords pit props.	trenches.	Apples, 4 brls Water Melons, 2 crates Sept. 8th., when Miss Lovetta Huern	geants and men of the police force	with a blow of a club and a most sen-		The steamers Ushurer and Par-	Arthur Henderson, Labor member	Cucumbers, Preserving Plums in 6 waited on ex-Inspector Collins, who	sational incident was that the ship	excellentap12,tf	hernia are loading pulp at Bot-	of the Cabinet, who has charge of the	quart baskets. Wholesale and Reand the Rev. Maxwell H. W. Seeley	has always been popular in the		* * *	rood.		tail at GLEESON'S, 108 Water St. were united in the holy bonds of	force, and through Sgt. Noseworthy	went ashore and came near being	We hear that the Betts Cove coppe			P. O. Box 681. Outport orders per-
Matrimony by the Rev. H. J. Read,	presented him with an address and	wrecked. The Magistrate and Con-	mine which was worked for years b	Reid's Ships Rector of the Parish. The bride was		stable are engaged securing the part-	a local and British syndicate ha	itelu s Ships		sonally attended to, shipped prompt-charmingly dressed in white satin	a beautiful Meerschaum pipe and to-	ies who are the principals in the			A vast preponderance of projectiles, with overdress of lace, and wore a	bacco pouch. The Inspector, who	whole affair and they will likely be	been transferred to American own	The Argyle left Placentia at 3	he says, is required for the shorten-veil covonet of Lillies of the Valley.	recently resigned from the force, ex-	brought to St. John's to stand their	ership. An expert will arrive there	.m. to-day.	ing of the war.
The bride was attended by her sis-	prograd in a far wall abagan words	trial	shortly to survey the proposition and	The Clyde left Botwood at 1.40 his appreciation of the kindness of		it is likely big development work	n.m. yesterday.	Threatened Danman	2 Minutes
ters Lilly and Jennie and Margaret	the men, whose present came to him		will be inaugurated there.	The Dundee left King's Cove at	Threatened Danger
Seeley, niece of the groom. They		The "Revenseeint"	-	I The Dundee left King's Cove at	D D II or Chates	A CALLER STATE as an agreeable surprise and one	The "Ravenscount"	* * *		Draws Balkan States were becomingly dressed in pink sat-	as an agreeable surprise and one		* * * Mr. Gus Wadden, the well-known	3.30 p.m. yesterday.	Draws Balkan States which he would long treasure.		* * * Mr. Gus Wadden, the well-known fruit and confectionary dealer will	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at	Closer Together	1st Nowfoundland were becomingly dressed in pink sat-	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain-	Towed Here	fruit and confectionary dealer will	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday.		1st Newfoundland
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good	At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S.	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4	Closer Together	15t ACWIVIIIIIIII
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was	At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St.,	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on	15t ACWIVIIIIIIII
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr.	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the 'barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad-	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered	Regiment.
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter.	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad-	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in	Regiment.
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S.	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.50 p.m. yesterday.	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view	Regiment.
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully	Regiment.
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port.	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * *	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night.	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities.	Regiment. Parcels destined to the
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per-	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.0 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.0 yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:St. John's, Sept. 13th., 1915. To William Collins, Esq., District Inspector.	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night.	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has	Regiment. Parcels destined to the
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair.	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * *	5.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.15 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders t 4 p.m. yesterday.	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New-
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows: St. John's, Sept. 13th., 1915. To William Collins, Esq., District Inspector. Dear Mr. Collins,On this the oc- casion of your retirement from ac-	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul-	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.0 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.0 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eve	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.00 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.00 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event-	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office 53 Victoria Street
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish-	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro-	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street,
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God-	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get-	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.00 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.00 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders t 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack.	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis-
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get-	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis-
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertain- ed by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves-	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re-	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad-	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re-	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty,	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home	 30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 550 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 50 m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 50 m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Fhursday last Albert Parsons re- veived painful injury to his right 	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes.	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re-	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed,	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes.	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing.	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place.	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re- veived painful injury to his right by a piece of the material fly- ng from the axe and striking it.	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn-	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. 'The address is as follows:St. John's, Sept. 13th., 1915. To William Collins, Esq., District Inspector. Dear Mr. Collins,On this the occasion of your retirement from active duty, we deem it expedient and opportune to express our appreciation of the many qualities of head and heart, which rendered easy the discharge of the very onerous duties, which in the course of a long and faithful service you were called upon to perform. 	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * *	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re- veived painful injury to his right by by a piece of the material fly- ng from the axe and striking it. He was attended by Dr. Cor-	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed,	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES'
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train-	which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.0 m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.0 m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re- seived painful injury to his right by by a piece of the material fly- ng from the axe and striking it. He was attended by Dr. Cor- cochan and has lost the sight of	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES'
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:— St. John's, Sept. 13th., 1915. To William Collins, Esq., District Inspector. Dear Mr. Collins,—On this the occasion of your retirement from active duty, we deem it expedient and opportune to express our appreciation of the many qualities of head and heart, which rendered easy the discharge of the very onerous duties, which in the course of a long and faithful service you were called upon to perform. 	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in-	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re- revelved painful injury to his right by a piece of the material fly- ng from the axe and striking it. He was attended by Dr. Cor- rochan and has lost the sight of the optic completely. He arrived	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions.	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His presence in uniform gave the whole	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in- teresting sight, her foretopmast is	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re- veived painful injury to his right by by a piece of the material fly- ng from the axe and striking it. He was attended by Dr. Cor- rochan and has lost the sight of the optic completely. He arrived	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions.	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES' Scholarship, 1916
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His presence in uniform gave the whole affair a military appearance. The	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in- teresting sight, her foretopmast is	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such an object lesson of the necessity of	 30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 50 m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 50 m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques 51 to 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 51 to 20 last night. 52 While chopping a piece of pine 53 to 10.30 last Albert Parsons re- 54 eived painful injury to his right 55 ye by a piece of the material fly- 55 ng from the axe and striking it. 55 He was attended by Dr. Corrochan and has lost the sight of the optic completely. He arrived here yesterday and the eye will be 	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions.	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES'
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His presence in uniform gave the whole affair a military appearance. The bride was the recipient of many use-	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in- teresting sight, her foretopmast is gone, rigging damaged, bowsprit car-	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such an object lesson of the necessity of cold storage depots, a fact which is	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 5.50 p.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 5.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re- seived painful injury to his right by a piece of the material fly- ng from the axe and striking it. He was attended by Dr. Cor- rochan and has lost the sight of the optic completely. He arrived here yesterday and the eye will be	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions.	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES' Scholarship, 1916 The Rhodes Trust has notified
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His presence in uniform gave the whole affair a military appearance. The bride was the recipient of many use- ful presents.	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in- teresting sight, her foretopmast is gone, rigging damaged, bowsprit car- ried away, head gear gone, stear and	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such an object lesson of the necessity of cold storage depots, a fact which is patent to all except Premier Morris,	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re- veived painful injury to his right by by a piece of the material fly- ng from the axe and striking it. He was attended by Dr. Cor- rochan and has lost the sight of the optic completely. He arrived here yesterday and the eye will be removed in the hospital here.	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions.	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES' Scholarship, 1916 The Rhodes Trust has notified the Council of Higher Education
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His presence in uniform gave the whole affair a military appearance. The bride was the recipient of many use- ful presents. The happy couple leave by the S.S	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in- teresting sight, her foretopmast is gone, rigging damaged, bowsprit car- ried away, head gear gone, stear and cut water smashed and twisted, and	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such an object lesson of the necessity of cold storage depots, a fact which is patent to all except Premier Morris, who promised them so often, but	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re- veived painful injury to his right by a piece of the material fly- ng from the axe and striking it. He was attended by Dr. Cor- rochan and has lost the sight of the optic completely. He arrived here yesterday and the eye will be removed in the hospital here.	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions.	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES' Scholarship, 1916 The Rhodes Trust has notified the Council of Higher Education that there will be no qualifying
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His presence in uniform gave the whole affair a military appearance. The bride was the recipient of many use- ful presents. The happy couple leave by the S.S Portia on the 15th inst. enroute to	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:— St. John's, Sept. 13th., 1915. To William Collins, Esq., District Inspector. Dear Mr. Collins,—On this the occasion of your retirement from active duty, we deem it expedient and opportune to express our appreciation of the many qualities of head and heart, which rendered easy the discharge of the very onerous duties, which in the course of a long and faithful service you were called upon to perform. Your kindness, and affability of disposition have made it easy to other members of the Force in the discharge of their obligations and duties to the general public, and you combined the qualities of an efficient and fearless officer of the law, and 	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in- teresting sight, her foretopmast is gone, rigging damaged, bowsprit car- ried away, head gear gone, stear and cut water smashed and twisted, and her forepeak filled with water. A	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such an object lesson of the necessity of cold storage depots, a fact which is patent to all except Premier Morris, who promised them so often, but whose promises are like pie crusts,	3.30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 3.50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 3.m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 3.m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders at 4 p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine at the mines on Bell Island on Thursday last Albert Parsons re- veived painful injury to his right by by a piece of the material fly- ng from the axe and striking it. He was attended by Dr. Cor- rochan and has lost the sight of the optic completely. He arrived here yesterday and the eye will be removed in the hospital here.	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions.	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES' Scholarship, 1916 The Rhodes Trust has notified the Council of Higher Education that there will be no qualifying examination for this Scholarship.
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His presence in uniform gave the whole affair a military appearance. The bride was the recipient of many use- ful presents. The happy couple leave by the S.S Portia on the 15th inst. enroute to	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:— St. John's, Sept. 13th., 1915. To William Collins, Esq., District Inspector. Dear Mr. Collins,—On this the occasion of your retirement from active duty, we deem it expedient and opportune to express our appreciation of the many qualities of head and heart, which rendered easy the discharge of the very onerous duties, which in the course of a long and faithful service you were called upon to perform. Your kindness, and affability of disposition have made it easy to other members of the Force in the discharge of their obligations and duties to the general public, and you combined the qualities of an efficient and fearless officer of the law, and those of an esteemed and popular cit- 	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in- teresting sight, her foretopmast is gone, rigging damaged, bowsprit car- ried away, head gear gone, stear and cut water smashed and twisted, and her forepeak filled with water. A survey will be held to-day to ascer-	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such an object lesson of the necessity of cold storage depots, a fact which is patent to all except Premier Morris, who promised them so often, but whose promises are like pie crusts, made to be broken.	 30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 50 m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 50 m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques 51 to 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 51 to 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 51 to 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 52 to 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 54 p.m. yesterday. While chopping a piece of pine 54 the mines on Bell Island on 55 Functional Structure of the material fly- 55 form the axe and striking it. 55 He was attended by Dr. Corrochan and has lost the sight of 55 he optic completely. He arrived 55 her yesterday and the eye will be 55 to 10.50 here. 56 The Florizel Arrives 	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions. Loan Without Collateral Security Finds No Favor New York, Sept. 14—Report that	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES' Scholarship, 1916 The Rhodes Trust has notified the Council of Higher Education that there will be no qualifying examination for this Scholarship. Candidates are now required to
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His presence in uniform gave the whole affair a military appearance. The bride was the recipient of many use- ful presents. The happy couple leave by the S.S Portia on the 15th inst. enroute to Jackson's Arm in the Mission of	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. 'The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in- teresting sight, her foretopmast is gone, rigging damaged, bowsprit car- ried away, head gear gone, stear and cut water smashed and twisted, and her forepeak filled with water. A survey will be held to-day to ascer- tain the extent of the damage. Two	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such an object lesson of the necessity of cold storage depots, a fact which is patent to all except Premier Morris, who promised them so often, but whose promises are like pie crusts, made to be broken. * * *	 30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 30 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 30 m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 30 m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques 31 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 30 t p.m. yesterday. Will Lose His Eye While chopping a piece of pine 31 the mines on Bell Island on 32 hursday last Albert Parsons re- 33 teived painful injury to his right 34 ye by a piece of the material flying from the axe and striking it. 35 He was attended by Dr. Corrochan and has lost the sight of 34 he optic completely. He arrived 35 he optic completely. He arrived 36 here yesterday and the eye will be 36 emoved in the hospital here. 	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions. Loan Without Collateral Security Finds No Favor New York, Sept. 14—Report that the Anglo-French Financial Commis-	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES' Scholarship, 1916 The Rhodes Trust has notified the Council of Higher Education that there will be no qualifying examination for this Scholarship. Candidates are now required to have had at least two years Uni-
were becomingly dressed in pink sat- in which formed a nice background. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Isadore Huelin, brother of the bride, and the bride boys were Mr. John Read and Mr. Percy Carter. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride where a reception was held, which was attended by many of the rela- tives and friends of the happy pair. The Rector in proposing the health of the bride and groom gave a short history of his acquaintance and wish- es them every happiness and God- speed for the future. On behalf of the bride and himself the groom thanked the Rector for his kind re- marks and good wishes. The "best man" arrived that morn- ing from Halifax where he was train- ing as a soldier of the King. His presence in uniform gave the whole affair a military appearance. The bride was the recipient of many use- ful presents. The happy couple leave by the S.S Portia on the 15th inst. enroute to	 which he would long treasure. All were then hospitably entertained by the Inspector and his good wife, and a very pleasant hour was spent. The address is as follows:	Towed Here At 3.30 p.m. yesterday the S.S. Prospero entered port towing the barque 'Ravenscourt' which was bad- ly damaged by collision with the S.S. Alaguash, Friday night, off Cape Race and now also in port. As we stated yesterday the 'John Greene' had to slip the vessel owing to the high wind prevailing, and left her within a mile of Cape Spear, and the Prospero took her in tow about three miles off this port. A high N. W. wind blew and the work of get- ting out hawsers to the damaged ves- sel was attended with some difficulty, one of them snapping in the process of towing. The barque, however, was brought safely to port and as she rides at anchor in the harbor presents an in- teresting sight, her foretopmast is gone, rigging damaged, bowsprit car- ried away, head gear gone, stear and cut water smashed and twisted, and her forepeak filled with water. A survey will be held to-day to ascer-	fruit and confectionary dealer will shortly transfer his business two doors west of the store on Water St., now occupied by him and which is for more spacious than the present place. * * * Venus Drawing pencils are per- fect.—ap12,tf * * * The body of the late Timothy Sul- livan who was drowned from the Mildred Saturday night was coffined at the Morgue yesterday afternoon by Under taker J. T. Martin and his aides, and conveyed to his late home Livingstone Street. * * * No squid being obtainable the fish- ermen of St. John's are doing nothing with codfish. There was never such an object lesson of the necessity of cold storage depots, a fact which is patent to all except Premier Morris, who promised them so often, but whose promises are like pie crusts, made to be broken. * * *	 30 p.m. yesterday. The Ethie arrived at Trinity at 50 p.m. yesterday. The Glencoe left Burgeo at 4 50 m. yesterday. The Erik left Catalina at 6.15 50 m. yesterday. The Kyle left Port aux Basques 51 to 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 51 to 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 51 to 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 52 to 10.30 last night. The Meigle left Port Saunders 54 p.m. yesterday. While chopping a piece of pine 54 the mines on Bell Island on 55 Functional Structure of the material fly- 55 form the axe and striking it. 55 He was attended by Dr. Corrochan and has lost the sight of 55 he optic completely. He arrived 55 her yesterday and the eye will be 55 to 10.50 here. 56 The Florizel Arrives 	Closer Together Athens, Sept. 14.—The situation on the Russian frontier is not considered immediately menacing by persons in official circles here, especially in view of the fact of Roumania not yet fully prepared for eventualities. The tenseness of the situation has promoted steps, however, for closer understanding between Greece, Rou- mania and Serbia, with view to event- ual action in the event of an Austro- German attack. Bulgaria has not been included in these negotiations, for it is now ad- mitted that the Turko-Bulgarian agreement finally has been signed, and that Bulgaria will not accept Serbian concessions. Loan Without Collateral Security Finds No Favor New York, Sept. 14—Report that	Regiment. Parcels destined to the Battalion on active service may be sent to the New- foundland Pay and Record Office, 53 Victoria Street, London, S.W., for transmis- sion to the front.—sep13,1w RHODES' Scholarship, 1916 The Rhodes Trust has notified the Council of Higher Education that there will be no qualifying examination for this Scholarship. Candidates are now required to have had at least two years Uni- versity Training.

when the topmast and rigging came about LaFrance & Satina Tablets and Halifax. The ship brought a sort, and solely on Government notes can be obtained through all the war

P

Fre

note

000,

the

ier

day

ly t

ma

far

but.

mal to t

wal whe

£2 firs

000

figu

to has and ions

sin

esti

som

whi

lic

it,

cur

nece

amo

cou

er

expe

exp

cee

was

car

general feeling of regret at your re-down with the impact of the collision. full cargo, had fine weather with of Great Britain and France, caused Canadian Universities. Ask your dealer for Wallace's tirement, which personally we all -ap12.tf the biggest sensation of the year in Souvenir box chocolates. Three share. strong N.W. winds from Halifax Applications will be received by Our Volunteers the New York financial district. pictures of 1st Nfid. Contingent We therefore hope that you will and brought a large list of passen-Want Extension the undersigned up to December The consensus of financial opinion Of Improvement gers, including a number of round trippers. on cover-quality "Most excel- accept this small token of our re------1st next. Inspector O'Grady put the men is that the Commission would find its ap12,tf gard, not for its intrinsic value, but A. WILSON, as a slight recognition of your sterl- through various drills in the armtask tremendously more difficult than Hons G. Knowling, R. Watson, J. A. Secretary C.H.E. sep14,6i oury yesterday. There will be exwould be the case were the proposed The T.A. Savings Bank ing worth. Paddon, Mr. White (Nfld. Clothing A Pit Prop aminations for non-coms. shortly. credit loan secured by collateral of (Sgd.) S. NOSEWORTHY, Sergt. Factory) and Dr. Frazer, have peti-Steamer Ashore LOST—On Thursday be-The average for medical exams American bonds and stock as at firs JAS. MacKAY, Sergt. tioned the Civic Board to have the At yesterday's meeting of the T. A. tween Sergeant Noseworthy's and been high of late. The number suggested. Tarria pavement on Duckworth St M. SAVAGE, Sergt. and B. S., President Ellis referred English's Farm, Freshwater Road, The S.S. Carrisbrook, which has the roster is now 2265. Yesterday J. BRYNE, Sergt. continued to the Eastern end of the to Savings Bank, established for the a Purse containing about Twenty load of pit props on board, went the following were added: Removed To Hospital J. RYAN, Act. Sergt. Clothing Factory, they to pay the cost pembers three years ago, and told Dollars. The finder will be reashore a couple of days ago near Wm. S. Hann, Grand Falls. E. LAWLOR, Const. of the improvement. I: is rumored all that when their third year expired warded by returning same to Little Bay, striking a rock and is Wm. Alex. Sullivan, Pouch Cove. that other property owners will ask Mrs. Cantwell of Cape Spear MRS. PATRICK HOGAN, Thor-L. SHEPPARD, Const. they could get their cash from the still hanging on the ledge. She Reuben Costello, Pouch Cove. to have it extended to Frescott Street, was taken to hospital yesterday burn Road. JAS. TOBIN, Const. ceshier with an addition of 3½ per was bound to Cardiff and is a Jas. Carew, St. John's. they paying the cost of the extension large, British steamer, owned in ARCH GREENE, Const. in the ambulance which met her cent. This idea was taken up on the the state of the search and the & special meeting of the Board will P. EMBERLEY, Const. on Blackhead Road. She is very nitiative of the worthy president, Whitby. It is possible that St. Thomas' Church Lost, Stolen, or Strayed from be held to consider the matter. and over $3000 are now to be divided ill of appendicitis. amongst the depositors. Such an insteamer will be sent from St. Fred Moore of Spencer Street Brigus on August 18th, a BROWN Intercession Service John's to her assistance. This is also ill of the same disease was BOSTON TERRIER DOG, anstitution encourages thrift, industry His Inventions Tested the ship on which a free fight ocswering the name of "Buster." Little Bay Mines curred last week as alluded to in taken to the institution. and sobriety and we congratulate the Sunday last the Rector announced Wm. Walsh of the Goulds, suf- Anyone giving information that Society and its president on the exat St. Thomas' Church that in future Rumour had it yesterday that Mr. another column. fering with a very sore hand, was will lead to the recovery of same cellent outcome of this new and We hear that Mr. W. A. McKay the weekly intercession service for ML Comerford who is at present in who is now in this country in con- our soldier's and soldier's and soldier's made of some His Grace Archbishop Roche ac- taken to hospital yesterday by Mr. will be rewarded by communicatworthy venture. ing with H. T. BARTLETT, nection with the establishment of held at 10 a.m. on each Wednesday useful appliances for military pur- companied by Revs. J. McDermott Eli Whiteway. Brigus.—sep9,6i In the Police' Court today a dis- smelters for ore in St John's and else- instead of Thursday at 10.30 as here- poses, has met with complete success. and J. J. McGrath, left here Saturorderly was discharged. Six young where, has taken over the copper tofore. The offerings at the service His ideas, we hear, have been taken day morning on an episcopal visit We regret to hear to-day of the mon, residents of Torbay, were sum- mine at Little Bay. The mines will each week will go to the Women's up by financial people of standing to St. Mary's Bay, where Confirma- very serious illness of Mr. Gordon WANTED-For Hant's Hr. in the Old Country. One of them is tion will be administered in many Bully, who has been confined to his and vicinity, a DOCTOR. For all not be worked for the present, but Patriotic Association. moned for assaulting a woman of the the dumps will and a number of men of a most original character, and if places. The people have prepared a home for the past three months. His particulars apply to MEDICAL place. The hearing was postponed till are now engaged separating the ore Strawberrys and Cream at what we hear is true the inventor's great welcome for His Grace and the condition is giving his relatives much COMMITTEE, Hant's Hr., T.B. from the debris. Friday next, clergy with him. concern. -- sep13,m,tu,th fortune is made. · · ··· / ···· IE· WOOD'S Restaurants.