THE PROBS

TORONTO, May 28.—Since yesterday morning rain has fallen very heavily over the Eastern portion of Ontario and a large portion of Quebec, while thunderstorms have been fairly general in the west attended by very warm weather.

FORECASTS.
Moderate winds, fine and much warmer to-day and on Thursday.

In Buffalo To-day
The members of the Board of Works are in Buffalo to-day looking over some road making machinery.

Go to Regina.
Dr. J. R. Witham, Osteopathy practitioner, left recently for Regina where he expects to open up an office.

Temperature.
Temperature for the past twenty four hours highest 61, lowest 47; same date last year, highest 77, lowest 61.

Received New Hats.
The Letter Carriers have received their new straw hats from the Post Office department at Ottawa, and today each of the postmen is sporting a brand new "lid." This should certainly be a sure sign of warmer weather.

New Pitcher.
Stanley Bates who is with the New York Giants at the present time was wired terms to-day by President Nelson. He has been with the Giants all spring and is highly recommended as a pitcher for the Canadian League by McGraw and others.

Water Commissioners
A meeting of the water commissioners was held in the Mayor's office this morning to consider the tenders received for hydrants, valves, water pipes, etc. There were no contracts awarded this morning, though there may be some awarded to-morrow.

Echo Place Lots
Mr. B. B. Whitney, of the firm of Whitfield and Whitney, real estate brokers, Hamilton, is in the city today and appointed John McGraw & Son, of Temple Building, sole agents for the sale of lots in Echo Place Survey. This survey is owned by Hamilton men and will be offered at attractive prices, as the owners are desirous of winding up the syndicate. This survey should appeal to builders and investors.

Methodist Conference.
Brantford Methodist pastors and representative laymen are in attendance to-day at the Hamilton conference convention, which is being held in the Centenary church, Hamilton.
It is expected that the first draft of the stationing committee will be submitted to-day. In this connection only one or two changes are likely in Brantford, and not many more in the Brantford district. Oxford street -old illm upm saquamp up to auo st bably receive a change of pastors.

He Knew McCarty.
Mr. Jack L. Winn, agent for Barnum and Bailey's shows, was in the city to-day. Mr. Winn spent his younger days in Springfield, Mo., as did also Luther McCarty, heavyweight white champion of the world, who died in Calgary on Saturday, as the result of a blow, received in the first round of his battle with Arthur Pelley in that city. Mr. Winn went to school with McCarty and they belonged to the Y.M.C.A. together, where he first learned boxing. He regrets Mc-Carty's death and speaks very highly of him.

Rawdon Street Mission.
Ohe Rawdon street Mission held a fine anniversary service last Sunday.
Mr. McFarland speaking. The hall was crowded, and the congregation was intensely moved by Mr. McFarland's address. In the afternoon Mr.
Henry Yeigh conducted a magic lantern lecture which was witnessed by an audience who filled the hall almost to overflowing. The magic lantern lecture last night was also attended by very large numbers. Mr. Symons presided, and instrumental and vocal numbers were interpolated. There were instrumental solos by Miss Eva Sisson; recitations by Miss Alice Smith; organ and violin duet by Miss Symons and Mr. Wright; quartette by the Rawdon St. Mission quartette.

Mrs. Bygraves acted as organist, and performed to the great delight of all.

Lepor Mission.

The regular monthly meeting of the Lepor Mission, was held in the Y.W.C.A. ball room, on Tuesday afternoon, the 27th. Twenty-three ladies were in attendance. Mrs. (Dr.) barber, the president, opened the meeting with devotional exercises, alter which the regular business of the society was called for. The treasurer reported $13.62 in the treasury. After a short discussion it was decided to hold the next meeting on the 24th of June, and not again until September.
A very interesting programme was then carried out. Mrs. Ritchie led in prayer, followed by Scripture reading by Mrs. Chapman. Mrs. Minsch then gave an interesting reading, entitled "Zacheus," followed by a solo by Miss E. Markle. "Guard While I Sleep," recitation by Miss Laura Le-gait, and a quartette by the ladies of Shenston Memorial church, after which Miss Mabel Stenbush favored the society with a piano solo, bringing a very interesting meeting to a close. The collection amounted to a little over $3.00.

Society Notes.

Mrs. Wm. Cobden spent Sunday with Mrs. W. Finch, Hamilton beach.

Miss Clara Henningway spent the holiday at the parental home in Norwich.

Mr. J. Atwell Hough, mining recorder of the Temiskaming district, is the guest of Mr. E. G. Mayot.
West Mill street.

Mrs. Eddy and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm of Ottawa and Mr. Campbell of Vancouver, B.C., are the guests of County Treasurer and Mrs. Foster at their home in Mt. Pleasant.

Many friends of Miss Mae F. Mc-Graw will be pleased to learn that she is progressing favorably after her recent operation at the hospital for appendicitis.

A most enjoyable time was spent by the members of the T. F. Club Saturday afternoon (May 24th) when their initial meeting took the form of a picnic at Mohawk Park—an ideal spot for summer entertaining—and the happiest kind of a time was spent collectively and individually by the members.

With The Police

An interesting program was put on at the Police Court this morning consisting of drunks, quarrels and adjusted cases.

The cross action between Frances and Martin Chimura adjourned from last week was postponed sine die. Mr.
Lewis Stander said that both parties had simmered down, and the P. M. thought the best way to keep them so would be to let them alone.

Another remanded case, that of George Nelson, who playfully bounced a brick on the head of Geo. Na-handian (or Alverian, according to the taste and fancy of the "speller") came to a halt. Mr. Charlton, who was called at the last moment to defend Nelson found a technicality in the information, and objected to it.
The P. M. fined the accused $7.00 or two weeks, whereupon Mr. Charlton asked for and obtained a stay.

There was a strange case of a Burrow contractor named Charles Wooden, hale and hearty at the age of 66, and of Albert Craig and his wife.
Albert Craig alleged that Charles was acting the part of a gay Lothario and had broken up the Craig home after the two had been married 25 years without anything more serious than the usual marital dissensions.
The trouble occurred when Albert Craig saw his wife going into a boarding house, accompanied by Mr.
Wooden. Mr. Wooden was probably not going into the boarding house, but Craig, who had had suspicions, was angry. There was much talk and had a very pleasant time.
Miss Miller rendered selections on the piano. Bro. Thomas Ball, D. S.
C. R. was present and gave an eloquent address. Bro. Eacrett, Sr., was also present and paid a loving tribute to the benefits and what the I. O. F. would be to him and the members at large.

Lodge Note.
Court Brantford, I. O. F., No. 503, held its regular meeting last night in the Temple Building when a large number were present and general run-fine business was transacted. Court Brantford is growing steadily and has very social meetings. At the close of the meeting Court Brantford entertained Companion Court Regina and Court Fairplay to a repast, ably served at the Tea Pot Inn, which all enjoyed and had a very pleasant time.
Miss Miller rendered selections on
the piano. Bro. Thomas Ball, D. S.
C. R. was present and gave an eloquent address. Bro. Eacrett, Sr., was also present and paid a loving tribute
to the benefits and what the I. O. F.
large.

A very little later the magistrate stopped the case. "I am surprised at the way Mr. Wooden has acted," he said, "at the very best he has been guilty of very bad taste. I think there is no blame at all to be attached to Mr. Craig and the other two will be allowed to go. I hope the publicity they attain will be a punishment." There were four drunks, two of each kind—"allowed to go" and $2.
Harold Fisher did not turn up on a charge of being drunk in charge of an automobile. Teller was charged $2 for driving a buggy furiously on Dalhousie Street.

Corns are caused by the pressure of tight boots, shoes, no one need be troubled with them long, when so simple a remedy as Holloway's Corn Cure is available.
