

BRANTFORD DAILY COURIER

BRANTFORD, CANADA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1913. 70 COLUMNS ONE CENT

STARVING TO DEATH IN CITY OF DUBLIN

Terrible Condition of the People as Result of Transport Workers Strike --Plight of Poorer People is Dreadful--Dublin is Ruined.

By this time the captured feluca was alongside of the rock and more cannons were placed aboard her. These preparations were completed before the prisoners began to move in answer to the strain that was now being put on the hawser. She stirred, slipped and suddenly shot off into deep water, rolling nearly deck over keel.

Children's Comforters Are an Invention Of The Devil

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A London cable to the Tribune says: An amusing vision of members of the front bench of the House of Commons, each with a baby comforter during the dreary debates at Westminster, is conjured up by the remarks of Mrs. Hylton Dale at the National Union of Women Workers conference yesterday.

BOY MAY BE KIDNAPPED

Disappeared Two Minutes After He Left His Father.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The police continued today their two-day search for 15-year-old Arthur Harris, son of Dr. William L. Harris of Providence, R.I., who disappeared Monday morning two minutes after he had left his father to purchase a newspaper. Dr. Harris is confident that his son did not run away and fears that he has been kidnapped or met with harm.

CHILDREN'S AID MONTHLY MEETING

Was Held on Monday Afternoon--Acknowledgments Made.

The regular monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society here on Monday afternoon and had a good attendance. The president, Mr. Jos. Bell, occupied the chair. The accounts for the month were passed and Secretary Asford gave a report of the work of the past month also short report of the conference of Charities and Corrections recently held at Windsor.

HON. ROBT. ROGERS

Who Will Lay the Corner Stone of the New Post Office Next Week.

Sir James Is Not Well

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—That Sir James Whitney and Hon. Mr. Pym, Minister of Education, have gone north on a trip of inquiry regarding bilingual schools is emphatically denied by the officials in the Premier's office and the department of education.

IRISH QUESTION IS DISCUSSED

In a New Paper, Issued in Montreal To-day for First Time.

MONTEAL, Oct. 8.—The Irish question was discussed in a small but interesting paper, the first issue of the Nationalist leader, and Sir Edward Carson, head of the Ulster Unionists in letters written to The Daily Mail a new paper which made its first appearance this morning and of which B. A. McNab, late editor of The Montreal Star, is editor and vice president, and M. E. Nichols, late of the Winnipeg Telegram is president and managing director.

W. HODSON HIT BY AN AUTOMOBILE

An accident occurred at the corner of Colborne and Market streets last night shortly after 9 o'clock, when W. Hodson, who resides at 39 Brighton Place was accidentally struck by an automobile in charge of C. A. Bennett, Huron street. Mr. Hodson was knocked to the pavement and received a deep gash in his forehead. According to the story told by the police, it was an accident pure and simple. Mr. Hodson evidently did not notice the motor car approaching and he stepped off the sidewalk right in front of it.

Unavoidable Accident Says Coroner's Jury

Inquest Held Last Night Into Circumstances Surrounding the Death of The Late Frank Marlett.

"We the jury empanelled to enquire into the death of the late Frank Marlett who was killed on the plank falling on the sidewalk at the intersection of the street and the sidewalk on September 20th, last find that the deceased came to his death by being struck on the head by a plank falling from an upper story which fractured the base of his skull. We are of the opinion that it was an unavoidable accident."

DEPUTY SHERIFF KILLED TO-DAY

By Copper Mine Strikers in Calumet, Mich.—Feeling Runs High.

By Copper Mine Strikers in Calumet, Mich.—Feeling Runs High. (Canadian Press Despatch) CALUMET, Mich., Oct. 8.—James Pollack, a deputy sheriff, was killed this morning by copper mine strikers at the Isle Royale mine near Houghton. He was shot in the back of the head and attacked with clubs by a party of ten men and died an hour later. Pollack was found by other deputies lying beside a road. His head had been so badly pounded that his brains were exposed.

The Kaiser An Owner He Has a Restaurant and Insists on Looking After Business.

BERLIN, Oct. 8.—Emperor William is revealed as a restaurant proprietor for the first time by the Vossische Zeitung, which credits him with the ownership of a small restaurant near the historic mill of Sans Souci at Potsdam.

HAED-ON COLLISION, FULL STEAM AHEAD

R. J. Spedding's Motor Omnibus Collides With Paris Auto.

A head on collision occurred at the corner of Market and Dalhousie Sts. yesterday afternoon when an automobile in charge of J. R. Layton of Paris collided with a car run by R. J. Spedding the well known shoe repairing merchant on South Market St. The crash came shortly after the large crowd left the Courier office who were watching the bulletins that were given out of the Philadelphia-New York world series.

Thirty Minutes

The Courier edition containing the story of the World's Series baseball game yesterday, played by play, was on the street 30 minutes ahead of all opposition. The big game started at 2.02, was finished at 4.07, and the Courier gave it to Brantford crowds at 4.15—besides announcing play by play from the balcony of this office. The service speaks for itself.

FROM YESTERDAYS LAST EDITION A FLETCHER'S WIN 6-4

A Crowd of 40,000 Watched Giants and Athletics Battle at Polo Grounds--Baker's Homer in the Fifth Gives the Mackmen a Good Lead--A Hard Hitting Game by Mack's Sluggers.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Some 40,000 persons filled the broad reaches of the Brush stadium this afternoon to witness the National League do battle with the Philadelphia Athletics, leaders of the American League in the first game of the world's baseball series. A record breaking attendance was indicated for the turnstiles were still mercifully clicking at noon and elevated trains, traction cars, automobiles and all manner of conveyance were bringing their hundreds to the playing field. Over back of the Athletics dug out were several hundred Philadelphia enthusiasts.

President Anxious. WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—President Wilson was an enthusiastic fan to-day waiting for news of the world's series. Several friends telegraphed the President inviting him to their boxes at the Polo Grounds, but Mr. Wilson declined with reason. He would have liked to go but official business prevented.

The Umpires. POLO GROUNDS, Oct. 7.—It was announced that Umpire Klem would give the balls and strikes decisions, while Umpire Egan would give decisions on bases. Righter went to left field and Connolly to right field. Here They Are. Marquard and Meyers were announced as the battery for New York. Bender and Schang were announced as battery for Philadelphia.

First Innings. First half—Marquard sent over a high one and Murphy flew out to Murray. Murphy smashed the first ball pitched and the crowd gave a big cheer. Marquard shot a strike over Oldring. Oldring singled to right on the second ball, between Doyle and Merkle. Marquard tried to catch Oldring napping at first but could not get him. The New York pitcher used plenty of speed and kept the ball around the Athletics' knees. Oldring caught off first by a quick throw by Marquard to Merkle. Collins singled sharply to centre after having two strikes called on him. The crowd gave "Home Run" Baker a big cheer when he came to bat. Baker flew out to Burns. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Second Half—Bender grinned as Shafer came to bat and shot a wide curve which was close in to Shafer's knees, it was a ball. The next one was a strike. Bender had good speed which was difficult to follow in the dark day. Shafer fled out to Murphy. Doyle cut on a high fly to Strunk. Fletcher got a single by Barry for New York's first hit. Fletcher stole stealing Schang to Collins. Fletcher was caught at least ten feet off the bag, No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third Innings. Philadelphia—Schang out on a high one to Burns. Bender went out Fletcher to Merkle. Fletcher made a poor throw but Merkle speared the ball. Murphy got a Texas Leaguer to centre, which Shafer could not get near. Murphy was forced at second when Fletcher took Oldring's grounder and touched second. No runs, one hit, no errors.

New York National—Burns doubled along the left field line. Herzog sent a ball to third which was foul by only a few inches. Burns was caught out on the line when Bender took Herzog's grounder and tossed to Baker who threw to Collins. Collins returned the ball to Baker for the put out. Murray was a strike out victim, going out on three strikes. Meyers fled to Oldring. Fifth Inning. Murphy went on a bunting, Marquard almost caught Collins, Oldring's grounder and threw the batter out at first. Marquard became unsteady and gave three balls to Collins pitching a strike. Collins walked. It was the first base on balls given. Marquard almost caught Collins, off first with a quick throw. Collins stole second, Meyers' throw being slightly wide of the bag and the runner having taken a good lead. Collins scored on Baker's home run drive in to right field stand. It was a longer drive than Baker made when his famous home run two years ago on the Polo Grounds and tied the score. McInnis lined out. Two runs, one hit, no errors.