Simcoe, Sept. 7.—(From our own correspondent).—It has long been recognized in Norfolk, that water-melons and the annual harvest of the chestnut tree, like umbrellas, are common property. But when a few days ago an east side resident undertook to trim the shrubbery on an adjacent front lawn, in order to get a better view from her verandah, her act was resented, and we understand a lawyer's letter has followed, complaining of the rather serious trespassing.

 America is being celebrated the anniversary of the birth of Lafayette. To-day also I will visit the tombs of the heroes of the Battle of the Marne and men fallen in that advance guard of the armies, which are now fighting for right and civilization. Thus our two countries are celebrating the two common anniversaries which must draw them still more closely together and inspire them in the struggle in which they are engaged.

President Poincare was warmly applauded and then the officers gave three cheers and a tiger. The cheering was taken up by the troops in the distance and continued while the President and his party were moving off the reviewing field. One non-commissioned officer, who stood near the party during the speech, which was delivered in French, was greeted by some of his men when he rejoined his command, with the question: "What did he say?" "I don't know exactly," was the reply, "but I think he said to give 'em 'That's the stuff,' yelled a number of privates in chorus and the word ran all up and down the long khaki lines amid another outburst of cheering.

"It costs far more to care for a single wounded Italian in the midst of the roadless Alps mountains where transportation is lacking, than to care for the fallen on other fronts. It requires many more Red Cross men, doctors and nurses under such handicaps of nature. Motor ambulances cannot dash up practically to the front line trenches. Instead sufferers must be transported on snow sledges, by furtow back or by sledge runners. Sometimes it is necessary to lower the wounded in slings by rope, or in overhead cable box-like cars down the mountain sides.

"Italy is not the smiling, sunny country as before the war. Her exports and badly needed imports have been cut down until she suffers for lack of necessities. The Italian Red Cross is seeking to alleviate the sufferings of Italy's soldiers and families—Canada's allies.

"During the two-day campaign in Brantford, the same plan of canvassing will be undertaken as in Kitchener and Waterloo next week, Sep-

 Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezons, the ether discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost very little, but is said to be sufficient, to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.
