INVALID WINE NOT FAVORED

From the Ontario License Depart mein, Inspector R. J. Eacrett has re-ceived a letter informing him that at present an investigation is being con-ducted into the manufacture and sale of invalid wine, which exceedes the 2 1-2 per cent allowed under the Ontario Temperance Act. These wines however are medicated but it thought that the medication may, in some cases, be merely a cover for the sale of the beverage. The manufacturers and not the druggists will probably be the victime should approach the sale of the sale of the beverage. probably be the victims should any proceedings be instituted, but In-spector Eacrett is of the opinion that the attitude of the Department constitutes a warning to the dealers who are handling the tonic to unload their present stocks as rapidly as
