The Dr. informed his friend that his case was hopeless, and he gradually sank till death ended his sufferings. Deceased was seventy years old. A widow and three children survive to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and father. Mr. Edgar was twice married, his wives being the Misses Copland, sisters of R. W. Copland, Brockville. By his first marriage he had two daughters, Mrs. A. W. Johnson, of Charleston, and Mrs. A. L. Sheffield, Lyndhurst. By his last marriage he had one son, Montgomery M. Edgar, of Brockville. A large funeral procession followed the remains to Trinity church, Oak Leaf, on Tuesday at 10 a.m., where the services were conducted by Rev. Rural Dean Wright, after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery.

A Farmer Cured of Rheumatism

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Pattens Mills, N.Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straigt as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by J. P. Lamb & Son.

A RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

On Saturday last, while out driving, Mrs. (Dr.) Lillie met with a serious mishap. The horse she was driving, one recently purchased, was frightened by a dog on Wellington street, become unmanageable and made a swift run to the corner of Sarah and Main streets, where Mrs. Lillie attempted to leave the rig. This attempt resulted disastrously, for she was thrown violently to the ground and besides receiving several bruises had one of her arms broken in two places, at the elbow and a compound fracture at the wrist. She was taken to the home of Rev. Mr. Geddes, where she received medical treatment, and was later conveyed to St. Vincent hospital. Mrs. Lillie was fully conscious through it all and bore with surprising fortitude the intense suffering occasioned by her injuries.

DELTA PARK

The work of establishing a picnic ground at Delta and advertising its convenience, the charm of its location, its healthful surroundings, and the beauties of the lake, which has been undertaken by the B. & W., should be vigorously seconded by the people of the village. The porosity of the soil in that section, the pine-clad knolls and ridges, the purity of the water, the fine fishing, the remarkably low death-rate of the district, the absence of malaria, hay-fever, etc., should all be placed prominently before the public and kept there. It is just such quiet inland retreats that scores of city people are seeking, and once a tourist traffic is started at such a naturally beautiful spot as Delta it is not too much to expect that in time the summer visitors will exceed in numbers the present population of the village. Let all the residents unite in booming the summer attractions of the Village of the Twin Lakes.

THE I.O.F. AT DELTA

On Sunday last services commemorative of the 84th anniversary of the founding of the I.O.O.F were held in the Methodist church, Delta, under the auspices of the local lodge. There was a great gathering of Odd Fellows present from all parts of the country, over seventy assembling in the lodge room prior to the service. There the brethren were marshalled in procession by G. F. Donnelley, of Athens lodge, and conducted to the church.

The bright, inspiring choral music and the eloquent and impressive address by the pastor, Rev. G. H. Williams, constituted a service that will long be remembered. The text was James I.: 27, and from it the speaker delivered an exceedingly practical discourse. From a personal knowledge of Oddfellowship, he was able to endorse its aims and objects, but while he presented "the gospel of good works" he emphasized the necessity of a living faith in the Saviour and a constant acknowledgment of dependence upon the Father of Lights. The sermon was a straightforward manly address to a company of men, and in it the true relation of benevolence and purity were clearly defined.

On returning to the lodge room, several brief addresses were delivered by visiting brothers, all highly commendatory of the services of the day, and a vote af thanks was tendered to the minister and choir of the church.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. B. Burbage, a student at law in Greenville, S.C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.
